The forest fires that have been raging along the summit of the Cascade mountains east and southeast of here the past ten days are pretty well under the control of the forest rangers. Some damage has been done to timber and more will be done, but the work of the Government's forest rangers has prevented the destruction of millions of feet of good standing timber.

The plank streets about town will need some repairs soon, and in fact they are needed now. The plank on Main street hill, and on that portion of the street on out to the main country road need fixing. Also, the road leading into town from the bridge is in great need of repairs. It is not long until the rains will begin again, and it might be better to have the streets fixed before the wet weather begins.

Someone came up to us on the street the other evening and asked us what so much beer and liquor was shipped into Estacada for, now since the town had gone dry. It was our opinion that if any was shipped in it was for home consumption, which is not prohibited by the new law. Of course, there is a great deal said about the open way the blind pig is being run and the bold way in which prohibition is being violated in Estacada, but the prosecuting officers have no knowledge of it.

The Surface Case

Concerning the case in which Mr. E. F. Surface, proprietor of the Estacada drug store, got involved because a prescription containing alcohol was filled in his store after the prohibitory law went into effect and before Mr. Surface had secured a government license to handle alcohol for medicinal purposes, it seems necessary to give the facts as they have been told to us by the physician who wrote the prescription and the druggist.

It was necessary to prescribe a lotion containing alcohol for external use, and the doctor, not knowing that a license had not been secured, wrote the prescription and it was filled. Mr. Surface wished to conduct the drug business if possible without handling spirituous liquors, and had requested that no prescription containing alcohol be filled and he was not aware of the fact that the prescription in question was being filled. The government inspector found the prescription and, of course, trouble followed. Mr. Surface at once took out a government license, but he was not made to pay any fine.

So much has been said about the case which was not at all as the facts are, that we think it of sufficient importance to mention and to give the affair correctly to the public as we have learned it.

The United States Needs a National Charity Law.

By Dr. EMIL MUNSTERBERG, President of the Department of Public Charities of Berlin, Germany.

AS DIVERSE AS THE SOCIAL DIFFERENCES AND THE CLIMATIC VARIATIONS OF NEW ENGLAND, THE SOUTH, THE PRAIRIES OF THE WEST AND THE MOUNTAIN DISTRICTS ARE THE ASPECTS OF PUBLIC AND PRIVATE CHARITY IN AMERICA. THERE IS INDISPUTABLE NEED OF A UNIFORM LAW OF SETTLEMENT AND REMOVAL FOR THE WHOLE TERRITORY OF THE UNITED STATES.

Of course grave difficulties arise from the terms of agreement prevailing between the different states as to the responsibility for destitute members of various states. The only advisable principle in relief administration is TO GIVE EVERY ONE THE KIND OF HELP THAT HIS PARTICULAR CASE DEMANDS. Adhering to this principle involves the equipment of a great variety of institutions. To satisfy the growing demands of this description LARGE MEANS ARE REQUIRED, such as can be raised only by large and wealthy communities. In smaller communities the lack of means always goes hand in hand with DISTINCT AVERSION to such elaborate provision for the poor.

The poor are not beloved, and they are disposed of in the easiest way. Very few states show any expenditure upon outdoor relief of the destitute.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Williams and family of Sellwood were visitors at Mayor and Mrs. W. A. Heylman's home, Sunday.

A. E. Sparks and Roger Cary came home Saturday evening from their camp near the hot springs up the Clackamas river. They came home feeling fine and with an Hawaiian complexion.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Miller went to Corvallis last Friday in company with Mrs. W. S. Irwin and Miss Zoia. They may remove there to live for awhile providing Mr. Miller can get carpenter work. Mr. and Mrs. Miller returned home Wednesday.

Merchant H. Cooper visited his family at Arleta Sunday. Mrs. Cooper, who is receiving special treatment for her eyes, is getting benefitted a great deal, and expects to return home in a fortnight. On Monday she, with her daughter, Mrs. Grabel and family, went down to the coast for a week's outing.
