NEWSPAPER SOLD

I have sold THE ESTACADA NEWS and my connection with the paper, as editor and publisher, ends with this issue. On Tuesday, the 18th, terms were agreed to between Messrs. Geo. Estes, A. E. Sparks and Chas. E. Dubois, directors representing the newly organized corporation known as Estacada Progress, and myself for the transfer of the plant, the subscription list, business and good will of the paper to the said corporation. The new proprietors are to take possession Friday morning, August 21. For a month I shall be in the office part of the time assisting the new force to become familiar with the work.

Wm. Hammond of the Oregon City Enterprise was in town Tuesday. During Editor Brodie's absence at the beach, Mr. Hammond has editorial management of the Enterprise.

General reports from farmers indicate that the crops this year vary quite a bit. Some say the crops are not quite up to the average, while others think their crops as good, if not better than usual.

For the first time press dispatches speak of the interest churches are taking in politics. As a matter of truth the ministry of today and of several years have been taking a very active part in politics.

County Commissioner Wm. H. Mattoon may move to Estacada to live. Mr. Mattoon finds that his duties as commissioner occupy so much of his time that he has very little time left to look after work on his farm. He has a large farm at Viola, and several head of dairy cows to be looked after of which requires considerable attention. He may rent the place, or sell it.

The Clackamas County Court and Board of County Commissioners has expended quite a sum of money this year for road and bridge improvements in this part of the county. And there are more bridges to be built. The new bridges at Estacada and Eagle Creek falls, and the repairs to Eagle Creek bridge, and the rock crusher have cost several thousand dollars. Two more small bridges are to be built on the North fork to Eagle creek similar to the falls bridge. These expenditures will end the bridge question in this part of the county for some time to come.

Kills a Big Black Bear

Monday John Jones killed a big black bear, and he wasn't out hunting either. He was in company with Ed. Gray coming from camp up Eagle creek, and was about 8 miles from town when they saw old Bruin in the brush. Jones got off his horse and sent six bullets after the animal, four shots taking effect. By hard lifting they placed the dead bear on the horse and brought him in and shipped him to Portland for the big hotels. Bruin weighed 130 dressed, with his black fur on. Ed. Gray's hound had some sport in the capture.

J. W. King Sells Farm

Another sale of real estate took place last week. J. W. King sold his farm to a man from Pendleton, who expects to move on the place with his family and work it. The price paid for the farm was $4000. Mr. King receiving like more than one-half cash and the balance in real estate in Pendleton. The Bank of Estacada drew up the papers in the deal. Mr. and Mrs. King will give possession of the ranch at once.

Mr. and Mrs. McMonigal, of Jennings Lodge, were visitors at the Howe home Sunday. Mr. McMonigal and Merchant Howe spent a few years together in the Southern Oregon mines. Six years ago Monigal bought a few acres at Jennings for $1200 and now he can get $7000 for his investment.

Wife of A Former Clackamas County Man Dies

Mrs. William Folsom, wife of the well known Umatilla county pioneer and former county recorder, died Saturday at Medical Lake, Wash., as a result of nervous trouble, and the remains were brought to this city Sunday morning, the funeral occurring at Pilot Rock, their old home, under the auspices of the Pauline lodge of Rebeccas of this city of which she was a member, and of the Church of the Redeemer, Rev. Charles Quinney of that church conducting the religious services.

Mrs. Folsom was practically reared in this county and lived at Pilot Rock before coming to this city several years ago upon Mr. Folsom's election as county recorder. Her maiden name was Mollie Johnson, and her people now live near Lewiston and Peck, Idaho. One brother, C. M. Johnson of Denver, arrived in the city last night and attended the funeral to day at Pilot Rock.

Besides her husband she leaves three children, Percy and Jack, sons and a daughter, Jesse. Percy was at American Lake with Company L of this city when the news of his mother's death reached him, but was notified in time to attend the funeral.

Mrs. Folsom was well known and beloved in this city, where she had a large circle of friends. The local lodge of Rebeccas of which she was a member accompanied the remains to the O. R. & N. depot this morning in a body, and a number went out to Pilot Rock. The floral tributes from the Rebeccas, Odd Fellows and friends were very beautiful.

Mr. and Mrs. Folsom recently sold their property in this city and moved to Kennewick, where they purchased a valuable tract of irrigated land, where they have resided for the past year.—Pendleton East Oregonian.

—Mr. Folsom mentioned above is a brother of C. M. Folsom, Springwater. He was born and raised in the Garfield neighborhood and still has many friends here.

Little Johnnie, aged six, had been to church and had displayed more than usual interest in the sermon, in which the origin of Eve had been dwelt on at some length. On his return from the services, there being company to dinner, he had also displayed a good deal of interest in the eatables, especially the rice pie and cakes. Some time after ward, being missed, he was found sitting quietly in corner with his hands pressed tightly over his ribs and an expression of awful anxiety on his face. "Why, what on earth is the matter?" asked his mother in alarm. "Mamma," he answered, "I'm afraid I'm going to have a wife."

87 at Examination

Superintendent of Schools Gary had the largest class of applicants for teachers certificates last week that was ever known in Clackamas county. The applicants for papers numbered 87.

A. Vallen of Elwood was in the city Saturday. Mr. Vallen is a believer in the small farm well tilled, rather than in the large farm only meagerly tilled, and thinks there is more profit in it for the farmers. To illustrate; Mr. Vallen cut nearly seven tons of hay off one acre this season on which he had put a little fertilizer, and did a little extra labor.

We Are Afraid of Hard Work.

THE Americans won't work any more. They are so busy speculating and trying to live off one another that they have abandoned labor, and THE FOREIGNER COLLECTS THE WAGES and sends the money abroad. In my state and in the surrounding states you CANNOT FIND AN AMERICAN LABORER. All the work is performed by foreigners, mostly Greeks at present, and the moment they get their pay they SHIP EVERY CENT OF IT THAT THEY CAN SPARE from their bare living expenses to their homes in the old country. That means more Greeks. I do not think that the postal bank, as suggested by Postmaster General Meyer, or any other scheme of government guarantee would keep that money from going across the ocean. If the foreigner is paid more money than he actually needs to live on HE WILL SEND IT HOME. PERHAPS THE FINANCIAL PANIC WILL TEACH US A LESSON AND SOME TIME IN THE FUTURE THE AMERICANS WILL GO BACK TO WORK. IN THE LAST FEW YEARS OUR PEOPLE HAVE BEEN TOO BUSY GAMBLING AND SPECULATING TO DO ANY REAL WORK. THEY HAVE BEEN TOO MUCH ENGAGED IN ROBBING ONE ANOTHER.
