LOCAL NEWS AND PERSONAL MENTION

Dr. Adix and wife visited with Ed. Saling and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Kelley have moved into the Wm. Cunningham property.

Mrs. Ray Wilcox spent a part of last week at the home of Mr. Wilcox's parents.

Ray Wilcox came in from the mountains and is spending a few days with his family.

Our schools opened on Monday and the familiar ding-dong of the school bell can now be heard daily.

W. A. Jones took three persons into the mountains on Friday for the purpose of locating on rail road land.

Harry Eckles came into the city from his home in California on Friday evening. He expects to remain a while.

Ed. Boner and Clyde Schock left on Saturday for Spokane (?). Clyde returned on Tuesday and Ed. on Wednesday.

The Ladies Aid Society will meet with Mrs. Paroungian on Friday afternoon at two P. M. All are cordially invited to attend.

Archie Yocum is home from Government Camp where he has been employed for some time. He expects to remain at home.

County Commissioner mattoon was in the city on Wednesday on his way to examine the working of the county road stone crusher.

C. F. Howe went out on upper Eagle Creek on Sunday with the Miller brothers. He expects to spend a few days rusticiating.

Mort Richards has been on the invalid list since the Osborns burnt their clearing. He thinks he took cold after becoming overheated.

J. A. Suter of Eagle Creek was in the city on Thursday. While here he gave the Progress office a call and renewed his subscription.

From October 1st to November 1st we will sell for cash only. This strictly cash sale will be for 30 days only.—Cary Hardware Company.

Louis Gerber, who has been taking in the different sections of this, as well as adjoining states, came back to the city Tuesday evening.

Someone is placing poison along the trail leading to the berry patch out by Squaw lake. This is a serious offence should the party be found out.

Hood River has organized a "University Club" with sixty-three members. There are only two other similar organizations in the Pacific Northwest.

Wm. Stratton, on his way from home to school, tarried several days in our midst last week. Billy continues to lengthen out and broaden in physique.

Judge F. M. Gill moved out onto the Ballard Loony ranch on Saturday. He has been engaged to teach the Porter school which commenced on Monday.

The State Fair opened Monday last under most favorable auspices. The buildings and grounds are in "apple-pie" order, and exhibits in all departments superior.

Mr. Tyson who lives on the Brown ranch, South of Currinsville sent a box of fine, luscious, peaches to Mrs. A. E. Sparks the other day and they were greatly appreciated.

Howard Rippey and wife and Walter Fitzgerald of Philadelphia Pa. are stopping at the Lodge at Cazadero. The gentlemen are consulting engineers, so we were informed.

W. A. Jones, the drayman, has taken the contract, and commenced hauling crushed rock and gravel on Wednesday to keep the "big, bustled balloon" down. That is right, William, dont let it get away. We need it in our business.

Mrs. Geo. Dale came back home from Montaville last week.

Mr. Fanton while picking pears from a tree on Sunday last fell and his arm was caught in such a manner as to give it a bad wrench but is getting along all right.

Mr. Bonney, the picture man, gives notice to his patrons that his gallery will be closed from Sept. 28 for about a week or ten days as he intends to take a vacation and visit.

The Closner and Strunk families just returned on Monday from the berry patch with ninety gallons of berries. There were eleven in the party and they picked two and half days.

Mrs. Blockly went to Portland on Saturday to enjoy the entertainments and pleasures of the larger city. She has been pretty closely confined since coming to Estacada. She returned on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Miller left on Monday on a pleasure trip. They expect to spend a few days with Mrs. Miller's brother at Wilsonville. They also visit the State Fair at Salem and return the latter part of the week.

The school board out at Fanton's secured a teacher for their four months school term in the person of a Miss Miller from Oregon City. The school will commence Sept. 28. They are talking of lengthening the term.

W. W. Tucker, of Springwater, was in the city on Tuesday. He has been hauling grain for others, but has not yet sold his own. He left the price of a year's subscription with the editor. Thanks, come again and send your friends.

It is Rev. Paroungian's desire that all the stewards and officials of the church have their work all completed this week; as well as subscriptions to the Pacific Christian Advocate handed to him so that he can make out his report for conference.

M. D. Mast and wife of Elkhardt, Indiana came into the city Sunday night. Mrs. Wm. Kaake is a niece of Mrs. Mast. E. A. Miller also being an old time back East friend. Mr. Mast is a rail road man and is on his vacation which he will spend here visiting friends in Estacada, Dodge, Logan and vicinity.

The Osborne brothers burnt off their clearing last Thursday night. It made quite a fire and attracted a considerable number of downtown visitors. The flame leaped high for a few minutes only, when they quickly subsided, and in a couple of hours the fire had mostly burned out. They got a good burn on the clearing.

D. C. Sherman who lives up in the Springwater country was in the city on Tuesday accompanied by his wife on a shopping tour. Mr. Sherman who bought the Whitehead ranch last Spring, but could not get possession then expects to be able to move on it sometime next month. He is also a new subscriber to the Progress.

Mrs. Wm. Wilcox sent to the home of the editor and his family a nice lot of vegetables, corn, green beans and cucumbers. The bean pods of some of them were measured and found to be at least twelve inches long and they were not particularly trying to grow long beans either. They were crisp and nice. The Wilcox's have a fine garden.

of the Estacada State Bank.

NOTICE
 I have this day sold my business in the Estacada Pharmacy to A. N. Johnson. All bills due me will be discounted 5 per cent. if paid before Sept. 30.
 E. F. SURFACE.
 Dated Sept. 17, 1908.

A boy about fourteen years old desires to secure a place in Estacada where he can earn his board and go to school. Apply at this office.

O. R. Jacobs moved into J. J. Marchbank's house on Saturday last. He is the new tinner and plumber at the Cary Hardware store.

Mr. Scott has leased his home to Principal Howard James of the Estacada school and has leased three rooms from Mr. Lockerby, located over Sparks' store room. He is now engaged in painting and repairing the same for a temporary residence.

At the Rebekah lodge meeting held last week the following candidates were initiated—Cora Yocum, Gussie Githens, Mary Erickson, Ed. Saling, James Lynn, William Githens and Richard Githens. After the initiatory ceremony was over a social time was enjoyed and refreshments served.

W. H. Steinman and wife who have been spending the past two months with S. P. Steinman a brother and his family, started on their return trip East on Thursday. He expects to go by way of Seattle and Vancouver, B. C. making a short visit at each of these cities. He will then take the Canadian Pacific for his home at Evansville, Ind. Mr. Steinman has made three trips to the Western Coast.

The school rooms of the city are well filled except the high school room. Hop-picking and business engagements have interfered with their starting promptly. Three grades will be taught in the room this season, ninth, tenth, and eleventh. It is the desire of the teachers that parents and guardians of the children be prompt in sending. There is a state law, in fact, that requires them to do so.

The fifty-seventh anniversary of Centennial lodge of Rebekahs will be held in their hall room on Saturday evening Sept. 19. All I. O. O. F. members and their families are cordially invited to be present. Judge Thos. J. Ryan of Oregon City will make an address. After the exercises are over refreshments will be served. The committee of arrangements are Mrs. E. M. Miller, J. W. Reed and L. E. Bellis.

Mr. Elmer E. Smith of Seattle, a brother of Mrs. Ed. Scott of this city, quietly slipped into the Scott home and took his sister by surprise, on Tuesday. Mr. Smith is a business man of Seattle who, in company of several others, comprised a hunting and fishing party that have been spending several weeks sight-seeing, hunting, fishing through Idaho and Wyoming. They spent three weeks in Yellowstone Park. It is Mr. Smith's intention to visit with his sister for a few days.

Grange Fair and Festival at Gresham October 6 to 10
 Preparations for this year's Fair and Festival, to be held at Gresham on October 6-10, are being pushed rapidly forward and the exhibits and other attractions promise to surpass the splendid fair and carnival of last year.

With new grounds, new and substantial buildings, and permanent financial backing, every citizen of Portland and of the surrounding country has reason to expect a big Fair at Gresham and the management is determined to bring it about.

MAUD FOR SALE
 "Maud," the donkey, is offered for sale cheap. Anyone desiring to buy her for driving can buy harness also. Just new; made especially for her.—Mrs. J. R. Wilson.
