E. A. Miller went to Portland Wednesday a. m.

Mr. Ed. Scott and sister went to Portland on Wednesday on a shopping tour.

Mrs. M. A. Stubbs, of Gresham, was visiting with the Dales last week.

Walt Osborn left the city on Friday for Heppner, where he has secured a position as manager of a ranch.

Most of the hop-pickers of this locality have returned. A few went to other yards to help, and will return later.

Rev. M. B. Paronmagian and wife went to Gresham on Thursday where they were the guests of Rev. Dr. A. Thompson.

Prune drying will now be on for the next three weeks. Most of the ranchers having orchards in this vicinity commenced picking Monday.

Clyde Schock and Earl Delap went over to Oregon City Monday to get a license. When they returned each wore a knowing look on their usually happy faces.

J. B. Duncan of Leesville, La. spent Sunday in Estacada looking over our nice little city. He will likely locate here for he is much pleased with what he saw.

The Estacada State Bank has just rented the Blood property on Broadway, lot 8, block 14, to G. J. Logan to be occupied by some friends of his who expect to come here.

The pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church on the Estacada charge, Rev. M. B. Paronmagian, left on Tuesday morning for Salem to attend the annual conference.

Miss Cora Yocum went to Portland on Monday to spend a few days visiting. She will teach the Bull Run school this Winter. It opens on Monday next.

Miss Maud Sturgeon, who has been rusticated down at her home at Tillamook for some time, is back in her old position at the Estacada Pharmacy. She came in on Sunday last.

Schock and Boner gave another of their trap shoots on Sunday. They will move their shooting ground to some other locality by the time they arrange another shoot.

David Horner, of Dodge, was in the city on Monday. Mr. Horner has lived in the Dodge community about a year. He paid the Progress a visit and left the price of a new subscription.

F. Ahert of the German burn was in the city on Tuesday and came near having a run-away with a team he was driving. Fortunately he secured the lines before any damage was done.

J. W. Reed has been up at Ontario looking over the proposed bridge site on the Snake river that it is proposed to build with the intention of bidding on its construction, for the firm of Reed & Olds. He returned on Tuesday.

Jones' stable again, on Wednesday, sent five head of pack horses into the mountain. This time to pack the Reece brothers and party into section twenty-three, where these persons have filed on railroad timber land.

Mr. Matt Patterson of Garfield came home from Portland on Tuesday where he had been consulting with a specialist. Mr. Patterson had been getting along well recently, but took some extra cold and is not feeling so well as he did.

A. N. Johnson has had the room next to the post-office fitted up as a jewelry store and shop so that he can carry on his business as a jeweler in connection with doing the work of the post-office. He moved in on Saturday last.

A boy about fourteen years old desires to secure a place in Estacada where he can earn his board and go to school. Apply at this office.

A girl who wants to work for her board and go to school in Estacada can find out about such a place by inquiring at the Progress. The girl is desired for company for the lady of the house as much as for work.

John Brown, who represents the Oregon Fire Relief Association of McMinnville, Ore., was in the city on Thursday last looking up business. He says he is writing lots of insurance and that his "ad" in the Progress has done him good.

For Sale

One Registered, full blooded Cotswold buck Sheep, 3 years old.
—I. P. Steinman.

The Hood River Applegrowers Association have just closed a contract for 80,000 boxes of the growing crop, and now have under discussion the sale of 150,000 additional boxes. This will be good news to all the fruit-growing sections of the Northwest.

Gaylord Kiehl, a boy of fifteen years of age, living with his parents at Deep Creek, and attending the Estacada school, while at play on Monday noon at the school house, fell and broke his arm. Dr. Adix not being at home the boy was sent to Gresham to have the injury attended to.

William Henry Close Dead

Wm. Henry Close, familiarly known as "Hank," while on his way to open his place of business on Wednesday was stricken with apoplexy. As he went by the butcher shop of VanDuren, Frank called to him and said, "How are you?" he answered, "I am all right" but as he looked up the expression on his face indicated to VanDuren that he was not. So he came to the door of his shop and looked after him and saw that he was quite sick. Mr. Close succeeded in getting as far on as the Estacada State Bank when he fell, VanDuren at once notified his brother "Al" and he was carried into "Al's" home and Dr. Adix summoned. It was soon discovered that he would not survive the stroke. His wife and remaining brothers and friends were quickly notified. He was not conscious after being carried into the house but to VanDuren he said he had an awful pain in his head, when he was lifted from the boardwalk where he had first fallen. He passed away at about nine a. m.

H. D. Trapp brought into the city on Monday morning several baskets of ripe, luscious strawberries grown on his own and Walter Sniffin's ranches. The berries are quite large and of the Magoon variety. They expect to be able to bring in some more in a week or ten days.

LOAN MONEY WANTED

7% allowed on money left with me to loan. Farm loans a specialty. Abstracts furnished.—Grant B. Dimick, Oregon City, Oregon.

Mrs. E. F. Surface left Estacada on Monday for Corvallis their new home. She will be missed in the community by a large circle of friends; especially by the church people, among whom she labored faithfully, being secretary of the board of Stewards since the organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church in this city.

H. W. Blood, who is working in the woods at Marshfield, came up on Sunday and tarried until Monday, moving his furniture from his house, located on Main St., to smaller quarters on Broadway, and looking after other business matters pertaining to the several properties he owns in the city. Mr. Blood owns some good property in Estacada.

MAUD FOR SALE

"Maud," the donkey, is offered for sale cheap. Anyone desiring to buy her for driving can buy harness also. Just new; made especially for her.—Mrs. J. R. Wilson.

Pat. J. Ward was in Portland for a couple of days this week attending to some business.

The W. H. Holder tract of sixty five acres which was recently sold to A. C. Miller has been resold through the Estacada State Bank to J. B. Duncan of Leesville, La.

Another of the Estacada State Bank's real estate deals was consummated by its real estate officer, E. M. Miller, this week. Mr. Albert Navotine securing a ten acre tract from the companies' land on the hill and adjoining the Whitfield tract. The consideration was sixty dollars per acre.

It will be remembered that about ten months ago a cow belonging to Mr. John Page disappeared leaving no trace whatever as to what had become of her. Word was received here last week that a cow answering her description was over at Gladstone where John used to live. William Porter went over the other day and drove the cow home for Mr. Page as it proved to be the one that strayed away.

Robert Currin, a prominent rancher of Currinsville, while at work on Tuesday pulling stumps with his team of horses, was so unfortunate as to be struck on the leg by a root from one of the stumps. The blow came with such force as to fracture the bone of the right leg below the knee. Dr. Adix with the assistance of Dr. Bitner, who administered the anesthetics, reduced the fracture and Mr. Currin is getting along as well as could be expected.

Reed and Lindsey are the contractors who are to build the new Stubbe home. It is to be of the bungalow type, up-to-date in architectural design and finish, inside and out, with all modern conveniences for comfort and home life. The inside is also to be plastered. Builders in general are plastering most of their houses now as it gives much better effect also permanency. Reed and Lindsey know how to do the work and this is a guarantee that Stubbe's will have a fine home.

Rebekahs Fifty-seventh Anniversary

The Rebekahs held their fifty-seventh anniversary at Centennial Lodge Saturday evening Sept. 19. The I. O. O. F. members participated in the exercises. Rev. M. B. Paronmagian opened the ceremony with prayer. Owing to the absence of Judge Ryan, of Oregon City, who was to make the speech of the evening, the Rev. Paronmagian made an address on the merits of the order and the objects to be attained by it. After the address the assembly was entertained by L. E. Belfis, on the coronet, accompanied by Mrs. Dr. Adix, on the piano, which was well received owing to the well known ability of the performers. Supper was served by a committee of Rebekahs after which a jolly good time was enjoyed by all present. About seventy-five persons were present, composed of the order and I. O. O. F. members and their family.

The purchase by F. E. Pratt from the Zobrist tract through the Estacada State Bank's real estate officer proved to be of larger proportions than at first expected or mentioned. Forty-two and a half acres, two thousand one hundred and twenty-five dollars being the consideration.
