The people of the Northwest, and particularly those of Portland, were not entirely satisfied with the attendance at the show of the Portland Country Club and Livestock Association, and immediately upon the close of that meeting a canvass was commenced for 1909 season tickets. The success of this campaign has been phenomenal. The tickets are $5.00 each, and it is proposed to sell 5,000 of them and from the present outlook this can be accomplished without any trouble. It is the intention of the Committee to have special guaranteed trains from points throughout Oregon, Washington and Idaho to bring an attendance, including those from this city, of 150,000.

It is rumored that the fruit brokers of New York City got together recently, had a midnight meeting down in the subway, and decided that they were not going to pay fancy prices for Oregon and Washington apples. There was at least one commission man who did not attend this meeting, however, and he sneaked off to Hood River and bought 50,000 boxes. A grapevine telegram says that 150,000 more have been sold and eastern commission men have been plentiful in the Yakima, Rogue River, Grande Ronde, Wenatchee, and other fruit producing sections.

Hon. John Barrett, Director of the International Bureau of American Republics at the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress last week in Albuquerque, will be present at the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress at San Francisco, when he comes North for a visit to points in Oregon and Washington. His addresses will be non-political and will deal with the creation and fostering of the trade of the Pacific Coast with South America, a subject upon which he has bestowed special attention.

The numerous Hearst publications have been personally represented throughout Oregon and Washington recently by Ray Washington Taylor, who is writing a series of articles showing agricultural industrial and horticultural actualities in this portion of the United States. Mr. Taylor is on the staff of the San Francisco "Examiner," but his stories will be printed in all the Hearst papers.

Both Friday and Saturday night trains to look good big delegations of people from the Pacific Northwest to attend the conference of Coast commercial bodies to be held in San Francisco this week, and also to participate in the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress.

We notice the change of ownership of the LaCamas Post. With the last issue of that paper Kelley Lee retires and Geo. O. Mercer becomes the new editor and publisher.

LOCAL NEWS

Wm. Wilcox Builds House

Mr. Wm. Wilcox in the Garfield district has just completed a fine new house on his ranch. The building is a story and half high and will contain three rooms upstairs. A dining room, two bed rooms, closets and kitchen on the first floor. It is all sided up and lined throughout, with a big open fire-place in the living room. Wide porches on three sides of the house will add to the comfort and pleasure of a summer's evening as well as it does to the scenic beauty of their ranch home. Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox are to be congratulated on their improvements.

Mr. and Mrs. Spurlin came up from Harrisburg and spent a day with Mrs. Spurlin's parents. They expect to go to Hood River, where Mr. Spurlin has secured a clerkship.

Reception and Fruit Shower

The Ladies of the M. E. Church have planned to give the new pastor, Rev. Kuhlman and his family a reception and fruit shower on Friday Evening at half-past seven. From notices printed at this office they send out invitations, not only to the heads of families to be present; but it is the committee's desire that all church people, their friends and the friends of the church be present. All come. The family having come from the East and knowing how hard it is, as well as useless thing, to ship canned fruit into a fruit favored spot as Oregon; conceived either that they would give the pastor's family a sample of what he could get in this new country (to him) or to aid in supplying the families fruit supply, as much of the gathering time has past. Let us as friends of the church not forget the elegant strawberries, black caps, black berries, peaches, and etc. that have been, as well as plums, prunes, pears, apples and etc. that are now with us and bring them along to convince these good people that Oregon does have an abundance of fruit for all.

Does Good Work

Henry Cromer, road supervisor in the Springwater district, completed the approach to the Estacada bridge on the South side last Friday. Now travelers find it much more convenient to get to Estacada. Mr. Cromer has done a good job and deserves the praise he is receiving. It is to be hoped the proper authority will lose no more time in having the approach on the North side completed before the rains begin.

CAZADERO

A very pleasant surprise party was given Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. C. Kenney of Cazadero in honor of Mrs. W. Blech. The home was very beautifully decorated with autumn leaves. A nice and dainty luncheon was served and all enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon.

They say an R. F. D. not only increases the value of property but makes it twice as easy to sell.

SCHOOL STARTED MONDAY WITH MRS. MABEL LA FRANCE OF OREGON CITY AS SCHOOL MA'AM.

We would like to rouse a little enthusiasm into the merchants of Estacada for we think the more R. F. D's. she has, the better the vast farming country backing her is shown up.

We seem to be cutting quite a little ice at present for they not only give us the road but don't seem to be particular in giving us the glad mitt.

We don't know whether its the hydrophobia the leprosy or the small-pox we have among us but none of us died yet so don't think it very serious.

The Dodge Social Club gave its second entertainment last Saturday night. The hit of the evening was made by Bill Myers the Dodge saw mill man in a song entitled "When I went to Estacada."

Mr. Fred Horneas' violin solo "Selections from the Carnival of Venice" was beautiful.

SPRINGWATER

This rain is rather tough on the prune pickers.

Your correspondent notices in the "Evening Telegram" of Oct. 2 strong opposition to J. W. Reed for Post-Master of Estacada and that the opposition to Mr. Reed is trying to bring up that old Reed faction. We think it would be well to bury that matter or fight it out and then kiss and make up, that whining about J. W. Reed is getting old. Reed is not an angel but he tries to make things go, in place of grumbling at the other faction.

School commenced Oct. 5. The teacher Miss Erma Shibley a few days ago gave her pupils a picnic. The little folks report a fine time.

Our minister Rev. Robertson has moved his family away from Springwater. He was to come back and preach for us until Oct. 13, but has failed to do so thus far.
