Rebekahs Hold Dist. Convention In Estacada

Afternoon Session of the Rebekah Convention of Dist. 2 was called to order at 1:30 by Mrs Cook, Chairman.

At the Roll call every lodge in the district was represented excepting Lents, and each lodge was reported in excellent order and working in harmony.

Business of importance concerning lodge work was discussed by members and answered by P. President Mrs. Stuart, after which a motion was made and carried that a committee of three be appointed to draft resolutions of sympathy to the family of the late Grand Master Richard Scott.

A motion was made and carried that our next Dist. Convention be held in Oregon City. (This convention will be called by the President of the Assembly some time during 1909.)

The new officers of the convention are as follows: Mrs. Rachael Scripture, Oregon City, Chairman; Mrs. Hattie Wissinger, of Milwaukie, Vice Chairman; Mrs. Myrtle Miller, Estacada, Secretary; Miss Cooper, of Milwaukie, Conductor; Mrs. Clara Robbins, of Molalla, Warden; Mrs. Sarah Miles, Oregon City, Chaplain; Miss Anna Willhart Oregon City, Inner Guard; Mrs. Nettie Albright, of Molalla, Outer Guard.

About sixty members of the Rebekah lodge were in attendance. Several visitors from Columbia lodge were present.

Great interest is manifested in these conventions as they are very helpful and unite the lodges very closely.

At the evening session lodge was called to order by Gertrude Morrow Noble Grand, (it being our regular lodge night) and Curtis Wilcox and Edwin Bates were given the Rebekah Degree, the staff from Willamette Lodge of Oregon City conferring the same.

After the regular business of the lodge was concluded, a musical and literary program was rendered as follows:—Cornet Solo "Holy City" by L. E. Belfils, Mrs. Dr. Adix Piano Accompanist and responded with "Love Me and the World is Mine," Recitation, "Betsy Hawkins goes to Town" by Miss Myrtle Tooze of Oregon City. The cleverness and simplicity with which Miss Tooze rendered this selection, was so well appreciated that it was necessary for her to respond with a second number, although brief, but full of merriment.

The last number on the program was a reading by Mrs. Scott of Oregon City, which was well received. Unfortunately, the evenings entertainment was cut short by reason of the majority of the visiting delegates had to return by special car at a set time.

The Degree team of Willamette Lodge of Oregon City conferred the degree work in a superb manner and their lodge should be well proud of them. Every part of the floor evolutions as well as the ritualistic work was precise in every respect. The lessons taught remains indelibly upon all those who witnessed it.

What is known as the Portland Restaurant was used exclusively for the visiting members and a good variety of edibles was served during the day and evening.

Everyone expressed themselves as highly pleased with every event attending this convention.

LOCAL NEWS AND PERSONAL MENTION

Don't forget the dance at the pavilion on Thanksgiving eve Nov. 25. Al. Lindsay and wife went to Portland on Wednesday.

Order your Thanksgiving turkey now. Big, fat and juicy. At the Meat Market.—Frank VanDuren

Robt. Duncan who is traveling for a Portland firm came out to visit his parents on Tuesday.

Came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tweedie of Springwater on Nov. 12 a baby girl. Mother and baby are doing nicely.

Alonza Hammock has been in a Portland hospital for some time but we were glad to see him again on our streets Wednesday.

E. S. Shankland and mother, of Selwood, were business visitors in Estacada on Friday and made the PROGRESS office a call.

We were glad to see Robt. Currin in town on Friday. Mr. Currin is obliged to use crutches, but is improving nicely.

The Ladies Aid Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Emmett on next Friday afternoon, Nov. 20th. All are cordially invited.

The Albany Nursery stock has arrived and the delivery of the same is being made by W. A. Jones. There was about seventy-five different orders handled. All in good shape.

The date of our next issue being on Thanksgiving it is the desire of the Progress force that all matter for publication be in early so that our paper can go to press on Wednesday. MILLINERY—Parlor millinery at Cazadero in the little white cottage.—Mrs. J. C. Herring.

In writing up from memory without the aid of a program we unintentionally omitted the names of Miss Rose Clossner and Miss Dorris Lovell, each of whom recited very nicely in the Educational Rally program last week.

A change has occurred at the freight and ticket office of the Portland Ry. Light and Power Co. Mr. J. P. Telford is the new agent. We are informed by Mr. C. P. Kelley that it is his intention to remain in Estacada; a fact we are glad to know as Mr. Kelley has made lots of friends in this community.

Henry Guldenzopf, a son of Wm. Guldenzopf of Cazadero, on Monday afternoon while about a gymnasium bar that some of the boys at that place had erected, fell and cut quite a gash on his head. His father brought him to the office of Dr. Adix where the wound was dressed and the lad went on his way feeling, no doubt, glad it was no worse.

An accident happened near J. J. Davis' in Garfield on Sunday afternoon, in which Mrs. T. Linn, of Linn's Mills, was hurt but how seriously we have not learned. Mrs. Linn and Mrs. Rallins were driving along when their horse became frightened and started to back and rear, breaking from the buggy. Mrs. Linn attempted to jump, and hurt herself in so doing. They were able to go on home, however.

Those who were not present to hear the sermon of pastor Kuhlman on Sabbath morning missed an opportunity to hear many good things said that should be helpful to anyone. As announced, the service was "A Welcome Service" and was intended to make the stranger among us feel at home. The M. E. Church was well filled and many newcomers were among those present. On every hand could be heard words of praise on the practical remarks of the discourse.

On Sunday last the Italian workmen of Cazadero decided to hold a sort of social gathering among themselves and to this end had procured some liquid refreshments. Beer and wine drinking is understood to have been indulged in to a considerable degree, when a dispute arose and Mike Rich, who was formerly employed at Cazadero but had gone to Portland to work and was paying his friends a visit, was ordered from the house on account of the noise he was making. A fight ensued in which it is said several were engaged. It is further stated that Rich drew a stiletto and stabbed Joe Nicholli. Dr. Adix was called and found ten stabwounds on his head and body. The most dangerous of which was in the side.

Word was telephoned to Estacada for an officer, but as no warrant had been secured, officer Jones telephoned the sheriff. The wounded man was kept at Cazadero until Monday afternoon when he was taken to Portland to the hospital. Rich the man who is accused of doing the stabbing was said to be in hiding about Cazadero, as he was seen by persons on Monday.
