Dear Professor James:
I find that the Heppner institute is called for the 11th, so it will be impossible for me to be with you at that time. I think I could be with you on the 18th.

Strunk-Howard Nuptials

On Sunday, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Howard, at Rocky Point, E. A. Strunk was married to Miss May Belle Howard, P. M. Gill, Justice of the Peace of District No. 14, officiating. The ceremony was performed at noon in the presence of the relatives of the bride and groom and a number of friends. The bride and groom left immediately for Currinsville, where they will make their home this winter. Estacada Correspondent to the Evening Telegram

The bride's family at one time were residents of Estacada. At the close of the ceremony the party sat down to a sumptuous nuptial feast. Mr. Strunk will work in the wood camp at Currinsville this winter, but in the Spring will build on the land he purchased from Dave Bridenstine just across the road from his brother-in-law's, G. Y. Beebe.

Mr. and Mrs. Strunk are young people standing high in the esteem of the communities where they have resided, and we wish to congratulate them upon the wise step they have taken, and wish them success, prosperity and happiness during the years of their married life.

The Masquerade Ball given by Ed. Boner, Cecil Shock and Louie Gerber, on Thanksgiving Eve, was well attended. About one hundred couple being present. The prizes for best sustained characters were awarded to Mr. George Croucher of Scappoose, and Miss Ellen Ericson of Currinsville. The prizes for best waltzers were awarded to Mr. Kirshum and Miss Gill, of Logan.

Mr. Omer and Miss Mary Groll entertained a small party at a taffy pull Saturday. All present report having had a delightful time.
