Miss Euphemia Thompson of Arleta, who has been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Helfrich, returned to Portland, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Al. Close attended a dance at Fred Closes' last Friday night. They report a fine time and a nice lunch.

Wm. Mitchell, a friend of the Richard and Reagan families, from Aberdeen, S. Dakota visited them this week. He runs a line of lumber yards and is in the hardware business. He transacted some business while here, also.

Mr. Fred Wilson and wife of Valdez, Alaska, a brother of our townsman J. R. Wilson are visiting at the home of the latter a few days. They have been spending about three weeks in Cal. for the benefit of Mr. Wilson's health.

J. H. Helfrich has decided to go into the real estate business in Beaverton, Oreg., and departed with his family the first of the week to their new home. We are sorry to lose them from our little city, but wish him success in his new venture.

Monday afternoon the ladies of the Christian Church called at the home of Mrs. James Helfrich to bid her farewell, and as a slight token of their esteem for her presented her with a handsome piece of china. Those present were Mesdames Morrow, Tracy, Townsend, Linn, Jones, Norcross, Jacobs, Graham, Havens and Miss Gertrude Morrow.

A. W. Pinkley came to Estacada on Friday and sent for the sheriff to come up to Garfield and take L. R. Woodard away as he was creating a disturbance at the Pinkley home. Woodard was taken to Oregon City where an information was made out against him and he was placed under bonds to appear before Judge Sampson Tuesday at 10 o'clock.

LATER—Woodard appeared before Judge Sampson on Tuesday and the case was dismissed against him pending good behavior.

Mr. J. Frank Stroude, of Beaverton, was in Estacada Wednesday, Jan. 28, a guest at the homes of E. M. Miller and J. H. Helfrich. Mr. Stroude spent several months in our city two years ago, and on his return was much impressed by the improvement made. To friends he said that it often occurs that home-seekers who come to his real estate office in Beaverton can't talk of anything but Estacada, and don't want to buy anywhere until they can see Estacada. This speaks well for the booming done by our wide-awake business men. Let the good work go on.

Another Old Settler Answers Call

Last Friday morning Mrs. Margaret Beeson passed away after a very brief illness. She had complained of heart trouble but no one thought her ailment serious. Mrs. Beeson was born Nov. 15th 1839 in Wayne Co., Ind. On June 28th, 1856 she married and the same day started for Iowa where she lived until 1863 when the family started across the plains for Oregon with an ox team. Let's that year they arrived at Oregon City after enduring many hardships. They have lived in Clackamas Co. since then. In August 1907 Mr. Beeson passed away, and since that time Mr. Beeson has lived with her youngest daughter, Mrs. Mayfield, Estacada.

The deceased leaves one son and four daughters. James Beeson, Shubel, Oreg. Mrs. Mary Hardenbrook, Camas, Wash. Mrs. M. Traylor, Elkton, Ore., Mrs. Etta Imel, Boring, and Mrs. Clara Mayfield, Estacada.

Interment took place at Highland Cemetery Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Kuhlman. A large number of people had gathered to pay their last respects to one well known among them for many years. The floral offerings, the unusually large attendance, and the unmistakable expressions of grief testified to the high esteem in which she was held.

Death of Mrs. Wm. Cunningham

Mrs. Ida Cunningham, wife of Wm. Cunningham, a former business man of Estacada but now of Camas, Wash., died at a Portland hospital on Saturday and was taken to Clark's Cemetery at Highland where she was laid to rest near where most of her girlhood was spent. Besides numerous friends in Estacada who were grieved and shocked to learn of her death, she is survived by her husband, one son and a little daughter, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shockley of Highland, and three brothers and three sisters.

Death of Mrs. Coyd Looney

Just as we go to press we learn of the death of Mrs. Coyd Looney, of Garfield. She has been very ill for three or four days and Dr. Adix had called to his aid two doctors from Portland and everything that could be was done for her. Death came to her relief about noon on Wednesday.

Farewell Party in Honor of Mrs. James Helfrich

A farewell party was given Saturday, January 30, by the members of the Rebekah Lodge, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Yonce in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Helfrich who are moving to Beaverton to live.

The evening was spent very pleasantly playing cards, and in conversation, after which a delicious lunch was served and all departed for their homes echoing in their hearts the wish expressed by one guest present that Mr. and Mrs. Helfrich might have "many happy returns." Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Yonce, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Helfrich, Dr. and Mrs. Adix, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. An Explanation From Mr. Al Close

Editor Progress: Mr. Holder says the city had a good case against me and why I was discharged they could not understand. Now I want to say that they never had a case against me. Had not my case been dismissed on a technical point of law and my witnesses had all been called to give their evidence, I would have proven my innocence, and shown the prosecuting witnesses to be perjurers. When the prosecuting witnesses were on oath they were asked by Judge Hayes whether they had talked to anyone about the case before they were subpoenaed and they swore positively they had not, and then they produced a one-half pint of whiskey which they claimed they had purchased from me. Now how could they give this bottle to Mr. Heyleman and tell him what they knew about the case without first seeing him. What was that but perjury?—Al Close

Fred Close Gives Dance At Springwater

On Friday evening last a social dance was held at the home of Fred Close at Springwater a big crowd of friends and neighbors were present. Wm. Kandle acted as floor manager and the manner in which he performed his work showed him to be no novice at the business. Horner and Lewellen were the musicians and did credit to themselves, as they always do on like occasions. Supper was served at twelve o'clock and at an early hour in the morning all dispersed expressing their pleasure and hoping for another social gathering as pleasantly spent.
