LOCAL NEWS AND PERSONAL MENTION

Carl Cary and Roy Stevens left on Sunday for Medford to do painting.

Joseph G. Cannon was re-elected Speaker by a vote of 204-166 his strongest opponent.

The Oregon Legislature convened in extra session on Monday and adjourned Tuesday.

FOR SALE—Jersey Bull. Full blooded, 3 years old.—Kilgore Brothers, Springwater, Oregon.

Two desirable lots, small house with water on the premises. For sale. Easy terms. E. P. Scott, or inquire of the Progress Office.

Is your farm for sale? If so, write to or call on The Conant Realty Co., Room 5, 250 1/2 Alder St., Portland, Ore.

A. D. Schmidt has moved to his farm at Springwater. He built a temporary residence until he can get more permanently settled.

Would it not be a wise thing to have a regular day and all clear up. We think it could be arranged and successfully to. It certainly needs it.

The Estacada Pharmacy has been getting in line with improvements and gave a regular dusting and calceining and put on a regular St. Patrick's Day color.

Zeb Martin of Mason & Herman and a friend came out from Portland and W. A. Jones, the liveryman, drove them to Clear Creek on Sunday to fish. They came back with a nice basket full.

James Murphy, of Cazadero, while at work had a piece of steel fly and lodge in his eye. The doctor removed the steel and while it is painful, it is not thought any permanent injury will result.

Max Von Newman was unfortunate enough to have a sliver of steel fly and strike him in the eye and as a result he has that member bandaged up as if he had come in collision with some obstreperous antagonist.

J. R. Wilson has opened up one of the finest Cafes on the East Side. Mr. Wilson is not feeling very well these days. He and Earl were home over Sunday and report that their business has opened up in splendid shape.

We have several pieces of property left with us to negotiate a sale for. Intending investors in Estacada will do well to consult us as we may have just what you want. Inquire at the Progress office.

Mrs. Mary Molene and family of Oregon City are new residents in Estacada, moving in last week, occupying the Park Hotel. They intend to keep boarders and take in washings. They have an "ad" in another column.

The Progress and Human Life for one year. Price of both $1.50 Progress and Weekly Oregonian one year, $1.50 Progress and Semi-Weekly Journal for $1.50 a year.

W. A. Jones and wife went to Portland and Oregon City on Saturday returning Sunday. They were combining business and pleasure, staying over night at Lentz at the home of Mrs. Jones' parents. Rhma Harris, Mrs. Jones' niece from Dallas came along with them.

That very interesting magazine about people, Human Life, which is publishing the story of Homer Davenport, will advance its subscription price to $1.00 per year. This makes our offer of Human Life a remarkable bargain. See our ad "The Oregon Magazine Hit of 1929."

I. N. Weston an old resident of this section and well known to most of the old time residents, died in Oregon City on Sunday and was taken to the Springwater Cemetery for burial on Tuesday. He was at the home of Edward Bates for two or three months last Fall and went from here to Oregon City.

Jones Sells Livery Barn

W. A. Jones has sold his barn to the Western Lumber & Fuel Co. The transfer was made on Friday. Negotiations have been in progress for over a month but were just completed on Friday. The new owners expect shortly to send several of their teams from Portland here to engage in hauling the wood they have in this vicinity. Mr. Jones will occupy the same place for a couple of months yet as he does not intend to give possession until then. We will later be able to tell of his location.

Entertainment in Church

Saturday evening we shall have the pleasure of hearing the college boys from Pacific University. There will be a male quartet and Prof. Orr, Impersonator and Reader. Perhaps this town has never had a group of college men to give them a program. You cannot afford to miss hearing these men with their songs of mirth and college spirit. The impersonations of Prof. Orr alone will be worth your while to hear. Come and enjoy the evening and bring your friends with you. At the I. O. O. F. Hall Saturday, March 20.

Homesteaders to Have Good Time

Invitations are out for the social evening of the Homesteaders to be held in Garfield Grange Hall Saturday evening April 3. Come have a good time. The evening will be spent in games and music. Lunch will be served. If you want to have a good time just visit the Garfield Homestead. The order of the Homesteaders is one of the finest Insurance Order in existence. It is life insurance and accident combined. Come learn the ways of the Homesteaders.—A member.

Estacada Now Has Commercial Club

The members of the old Commercial Club met in the Estacada State Bank on Monday evening and reorganized for the purpose of boosting the advantages of Estacada and Eastern Clackamas Co. A soliciting committee was appointed to secure new names for membership. It is the desire of the Club to interest every individual willing to lend assistance to this important movement. All over the state such organizations are doing good work for their immediate vicinity and the entire State by personal effort. Large sums of money are being spent to give out to the World the advantages they possess. Thousands of Eastern people are now coming daily, looking for homes and investments. Why not interest them here?

Officials of the Railroad Visit Estacada

R. M. Townsend, Property Agent G. F. Kelly, Land Agent, F. D. Hunt, Traffic Manager, and R. W. Sheppard, Auditor, officials of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Co. came to Estacada in a special car on Wednesday and were registered at the Hotel Estacada. We were unable to learn of any special business connected with the party, however they met some of our citizens and the building of the new waiting room was talked of in an informal way. All we can say is that a new depot will be built. It being St. Patrick's Day Kelly sported a shamrock, but that did not indicate that he was the only Irishman in the party. If we were to pass our opinion as to the mission of the party our opinion might be
