$275.00 will buy a Conover, upright piano, Colonial style, mahogany finish, practically new. Retail at $425.00.—Estacada State Bank.

On account of sickness in the family of Rev. Sewell last Sunday, he was unable to come to Estacada. However, he will be here this coming Sunday.

Miss Leah Stevens is home from McMinnville where she is employed on the News Reporter. She came in on Friday and spent most of this week at home.

Chas. Sparks, of Concord, Neb., and a nephew of A. E. Sparks, is employed by the Estacada Mercantile Co., being a much needed help in these busy days of moving.

The Cary Hardware Co. have practically all their goods moved from their old building into the new concrete Department Store. A. E. Sparks is moving his stock of goods this week.

W. A. Jones, wife and daughter, Lucille, are taking a well earned vacation. They left Estacada on Saturday and spent some time with friends in Portland. From there they will go to Hoquim, Wash. and other points visiting for about a month.

At a meeting of the Business Mens' Club on Monday night the name was changed to the Estacada Commercial Club. They expect soon to have permanent quarters so that it will be a permanent fixture in Estacada.

Henry Kolpin, son and two daughters are a new family just arrived from Burlin, Wis. Mr. Kolpin is a brother-in-law of August and William Stubbe and is a shoemaker by trade. He has rented the house next to the Bank of Estacada and now occupied by Att'y. Bartlett. He expects to engage in the shoemaking business and make to order as well.

Kansas Man Arrives

J. J. Munday of Norton, Kan., neighbor of the Henthorn families arrived in Estacada on Sunday evening having been making a tour of the South and West. Mr. Munday went from Kansas to Texas and came up through California sight seeing and looking the country over. It is possible he may make this Western Country his home. He is only like many more who have heard of this wonderful Western Country and want to see it.

Last Entertainment of Series By League

The third and last of the series of entertainments by the League was held in the I. O. O. F. Hall on Saturday evening and was by far the best attended of any of the course. The Hall was crowded to its limit and the entertainment was enjoyed by those present. The young gentlemen who entertained on this occasion were all from the Pacific University and all, with the exception of Prof. Orr, remained over and attended Church services at the M. E. Church Sabbath morning, where they had charge of the music for the service.

FAIR PLAY—IT PAYS

No matter how much money a man may have he does not like to be defrauded. If he buys a coat he wants the cloth to be just what the merchant says it is; if he buys a barrel of apples he is indignant if he discovers that the big apples have been put in the ends of the barrel and small or unsound ones between, and he decides not to deal again with the man from whom he bought them. No man wins permanent success who does not deal fairly with his customers. But let us not be honest simply because it pays financially, for there is a better reason—it pays for peace of mind afforded and the true welfare of the soul.

From April Farm Journal.

Homeseekers Come to Estacada

It will be remembered that B. C. Looney went back to Virginia last Fall and while there married again, his wife being an old school mate of his before coming to Oregon. On March 16th he and his wife, in company with fifteen others, making a party of seventeen in all, left Newcastle, Va. and landed at Currinsville on Sunday. This company are all relations of the Looneys and Sarvers, of this vicinity. They came to C. H. Sarvers and from there went up to the Garfield country, B. C. Looney going on to his ranch. We understood that the entire party came with the fixed intention of remaining here permanently except David Looney, father of B. C., G. P. and Coyd Looney and it is said while he only came to see the sights of this Western Country, he is so well pleased with what he has seen that he is likely to remain. All the advance guard of these people have done well since coming, as they are mostly all property holders and ranchers and we predict ere long to say the same of these new comers.

John Zobrist has had another birthday. Although to take a look at him you would not think he was—There I came near giving a secret away, but I will say that he is a "jolly good fellow" and while unmarried is old enough to secure a marriage license without the consent of his parents. He invited a few of his friends to meet with him on Wednesday evening and have a game of "solo."
