LOCAL NEWS AND PERSONAL MENTION

Have you seen the H. Cooper & Co. reduction sale.

F. D. Hunt, Traffic Manager, L. W. Jones, of the Pacific Photo Co. of Portland, were taking in the sights of Estacada on Wednesday.

E. P. Scott is busily engaged in painting and varnishing the M. E. Parsonage.

Chas. Gilbert is building a fence about his lots, recently purchased on Currin St., and otherwise improving the property. It is Mr. Gilbert's intention to build a home.

Mr. Al Lindsey is having his home painted and fixed up in first class shape. He is having three coat work done and Ferry is doing the work.

Two desirable lots, small house with water on the premises. For sale. Easy terms. E. P. Scott, or inquire of the Progress Office.

Visitors to the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition next summer will find ideal weather during the entire time of the fair. Seattle never suffers from extremes in heat or cold.

It has been learned that the unerring aim of H. B. Sarver, that pioneer hunter and cattle king of the foot hills has laid low two more monster wolves, that came near making a meal of his dogs.

The perpetual snow fields of four mountain ranges and Mt. Rainier, the highest peak in the United States, offer an unsurpassed view from the central court on the grounds of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition.

O. R. Jacobs is having a house 14 x 28 built upon his property between Currin and Pierce St. He expects to get moved into it this week. So one by one we are getting moved into homes of our own and it can be said we are a city of homes, as very few of our population are renters and they soon become home owners. Bramkamp and Possen are the contractors.

D. F. Warner has just had his eighty-five angora goats sheared and had three hundred and seventy nine lbs. of mohair, worth $88, this is a profit of more than one dollar per head and the increase would be additional, so when the grubbing qualities of these little animals are taken into account and considering that Mr. Warner did not provide any feed or even shelter, we conclude angoras pay.

Our farmer friend T. W. Parker from Garfield has been made the "funny part" in a joke going among his friends of the neighborhood, just as if he or any other man or woman for that matter would not be welcome at the M. E. Parsonage, even if they did not intend to get. Why certainly, brother Parker it is just what would be expected and needed by a big hearted good-natured rancher and would be no crime either.

The subscription price of Human Life—the Magazine about people—which has made such a remarkable success, and is now in such great demand, has been advanced to $1.00 per year. If you accept this offer now you can get this most unique and most interesting magazine and the PROGRESS for $1.50 a year. This offer must be withdrawn May 1st. Take advantage of it now.

W. J. Lewellen, of Springwater, just returned on Tuesday from a trip of several days up in Eastern Oregon. He visited Mrs. Ora Zell and Wavo, two daughters at the Dalles, and his son, George, at Moro, Sherman Co., and his sister, Mrs. Cornett, of Fairview. He finds his daughter, Ora, to be considerably improved in health and they expect to soon return to Prineville again. Mr. Lewellen says that the prospects for a good crop are everywhere in evidence where he visited.

Flowers never before grown in the United States will form part of the decorative features at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition at Seattle next summer.

It is said, by those best acquainted, as an evidence of busy times at the Fenton shingle mill, a late light is frequently seen in the cook-house indicating that some one is working overtime.

$275.00 will buy a Conover, upright piano, Colonial style, mahogany finish, practically new. Retail at $425.00.—Estacada State Bank.

Grains, fruits and vegetables grown in Alaska, will be a feature of the exhibit from the Northland at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition next summer.

The Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition has appropriated $100,000 for premiums in the livestock show to be held in connection with the 1909 exposition.

B. Shoenberg who is homesteading up on the divide between S. Fork and the Clackamas river was in our city on Monday shaking hands with friends. He reports having killed a fine grey wolf in February.

Mr. Lockerby is home again from his fishing trip. He says he caught some fish, and a friend at our elbow says it was an even hundred.

Another baby boy was added to Estacada's growing populace on Tuesday morning when Mrs. J. E. Greenwood presented her husband with a possible future mayor for Estacada.

Mr. Richards of the Palace Meat Market has hired a practical and professional meat cutter who is expected to be here by Thursday. He will bring his family.

The PROGRESS and Human Life for one year. Price of both $1.50 PROGRESS and Weekly Oregonian one year, $1.50 PROGRESS and Semi-Weekly Journal for $1.50 a year.

E. P. Scott has rented his house to Mrs. C. W. Kent, who has already taken possession of the same. Mr. Scott has an option on a couple of rooms for a short time to enable him to determine just what he will do.

Mr. D. F. Warner went to Oregon City on Tuesday in response to a letter from J. E. Jack, the Assessor. It is understood Mr. Warner will be appointed deputy assessor.

Geo. Dale, while cutting wood at his home on Sunday morning, cut the fore-finger of his left hand so badly that it required several stitches to put it in shape again. As a result George carries his hand in a sling.

We have several pieces of property left with us to negotiate a sale for. Intending investors in Estacada will do well to consult us as we may have just what you want. Inquire at the PROGRESS office.

Mr. John Page has had moved the red or division house, as it is familiarly called, from East of town near the high bridge to his lot on Shefford Ave. and is constructing a home of larger dimensions out of it. The tired fisherman, who found shelter from the elements in it, will sadly miss it.

An inspection of the new Christian Church, which is being constructed by that congregation, develops a neat structure 32 x 48 ft., in dimension with a hip roof and belfry. The belfry which is about forty-five feet in height will be surmounted by a golden colored ball. The interior will be wainscoted, ceiled and papered on the sides and the ceiling overhead will be painted. It is expected the church will be completed about the first of May. The carpenter work is under the supervision of W. W. Boner and the painting is being done by Mr. J. R. Cassidy. It is expected that the outside carpenter work will be finished this week.

The Deering sawmill at Viola has been sold by S. T. Deering to the Western Lumber & Fuel Company of this city. Improvements will be made for logging by the placing of donkey engines for hauling.

The DuBoise Lumber Company has about completed the placing of the machinery in the new mill and presume by next week the same will be in operation. The burning of their plant which is conceded to have been the work of an incendiary has caused this Co. a great deal of inconvenience and a large sum of money.

Mr. Clark Denny, who always wears a smile has an unusually broad grin these days, all on account of his wife presenting him with a twelve pound baby girl last week. Mother and daughter are getting along nicely and Clark says he feels first rate, and knows that not all our increased population comes from the East.
