Miss Mary E. Egerton finished a successful six months term of school in Garfield last week and returned to her home at Roseburg. While on the car, it is presumed between here and Portland, she lost a pocket book containing sixty dollars. Miss Edgerton had several parcels at the time and did not discover her loss until she was on the transfer car crossing Morrison St. Bridge. She immediately returned and made search for the missing article but failed to find it. Fortunately she was accompanied at the time by Mr. Parker, also of Garfield, who lent every assistance possible and accompanied her to her home.

J. W. Reed received a telegram Saturday noon, from his brother in Norton, Kansas, informing him that Mrs. Sadie Hopes, a daughter, was seriously ill with blood poison. Mr. Reed at once prepared and left on the three o'clock car for Norton. J. W. Reed has a son and daughter by a former marriage. Clarence, the son, always made his home with the present Reed family until they came West and owing to the fact that he had a splendid position as that he had a splendid position as Electrical Engineer with a large power plant at Lacross, Wis., he did not come West. The daughter who is now Mrs. Sadie Hopes, made her home with them only a part of the time, remaining mostly with her Uncle, Mr. Reed's brother It is not known how long Mr. Reed might be delayed but it is expected days.

The music which was of a high class character was supplied by Messrs Kilgore, W. Kandle, P. Kandle, Lewellen. Ed. Horner and H. Horner, and Mesdames Kandle and Tyson, and Miss Wilcox. The dance was held in the upper story of the new portion of Mr. Kandle's house, which has just been completed.

On Saturday afternoon last the picnic was held in the park woods for the benefit of the day school children under the direction of Miss Francis, the teacher. The shildren took their dinners uncooked and upon arrival at the woods built bon-bres and enjoyed the novel feast of cooking their dinners in the open. A jolly time was spent, games, etc., being indulged in. A short program which should have been performed by some of the larger boys had to be post-poned as the boys were not forth coming. They had skipped off to Clear Creek to fish.

The Publisher's Claims Sustained

UNITED STATES COURT OF CLAIMS The Publishers of Webster's International Dictionary allege that it "is, in fact, the popular Unabridged thoroughly re-edited in every detail, and vastly enriched in every part, with the purpose of adapting it to meet the larger and severer requirements of another generation."

and severer requirements of another generation."

We are of the opinion that this allegation most clearly and accurately describes the work that has been accomplished and the result that has been reached. The flettonary, as it now stands, has been thoroughly reedited in every detail, has been corrected in every part, and is admirably adapted to meet the larger and soverer requirements of a generation which demands more of popular philological knowledge than any generation that the world hasever contained.

It is perhaps needless to add that we refer to the dictionary in our judicial work as of the highest authority in accuracy of definition; and that in the future as a the past it will be the source of constant reference.
