LOCAL NEWS AND PERSONAL MENTION

Pigs for sale by J. A. Reid.

Nilson Beeby, of Marvaville, Cal. and Mrs. Clayton Ellison, of Portland came to Estacada on Tuesday last to visit the family of T. Beeby, living in Garfield.

Two desirable lots, small house with water on the premises. For sale. Easy terms. E. P. Scott, or inquire of the Progress Office.

Mrs. J. H. Hogsett, son and daughter and Mr. Chiselette Berryman, of Portland, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hayes.

H. Cooper, Treasurer of Estacada was out on Tuesday from the city where he is temporarily stopping. He attended to some business matters and informed us that he does not expect to be out again until the close of the month when he will be here to close up the business of his office.

FOR SALE—One 3 1/2 wagon, wide tire, wagon bed. Inquire at the PROGRESS.

W. A. Jones received a telegram from Mrs. Samuel Hayes on Tuesday bearing the sad intelligence that her husband had been killed on the Northern Pacific Rail Road on Saturday and would be buried on Thursday. No particulars were given but it is supposed that they were still living in Portland.

Rachael and Russel Reed returned from Seattle on Monday where they had been visiting friends and taking in the sights of the Fair. We believe this to be the first of the Fair visitors from among us to return and they say that it is alright.

Mr. Geo. Lockerby informed us Sunday that he had been out on the Clackamas and succeeded in landing a fine trout weighing five pounds and measuring twenty-five inches. We only moved on a little way until we met Gartner of the Estacada State Bank, who said, "You ought to have seen the fine trout Lockerby and I caught." I said, "Now Gartner, is it not a fact that Lockerby caught that trout?" He said "Yep," but then Gartner did catch some trout not so large as this particular one.

Mrs. J. W. Reed returned from Sparta, Wis., on Thursday where she had been called a couple of weeks ago on account of the illness of her father, H. J. Oakley. Mrs. Reed was accompanied by her sister Mary Oakley, of Seattle, Wash., who also returned with her. Mr. Oakley, while weak, is much improved and Mrs. Reed informs us is likely to pay Oregon a visit and will remain if he can dispose of his property there.

C. R. Breck and the men under him who have been working on an engineer corps up the Clackamas, came out of the mountains on Monday. It is not known if their work has been completed or not, but the supposition is that such is the case as the office that has been maintained here, with R. Causley and H. Piggot in charge, has been closed. These gentlemen have been very agreeable and made friends who are sorry to see them go away. It is hoped by our citizens that out of all this mysterious development work will come something that will do the Eastern portion of Clackamas and this section of the state much good.

The Palace Meat Market has been sold to W. V. Penland and F. Jorg. Mr. Penland, who has been in the employ of Mr. Richards as meat-cutter most of the time the shop was owned by Richards, will be in charge of the business and we have no doubt will succeed, as he has made many friends since coming here. Mr. Jorg is a Portland man.

Mrs. Cora Yocum went to Corvallis last week to attend the commencement exercises and visit friends.

Garfield Boys Start Out To Have Good Time

David Dietrick, Oliver Bowman, Alwyn Hunt aged 15, 12 and 14 years respectively, boys from Garfield were taken to Oregon City on Saturday by Deputy Sheriff D. Bridenstine.

For some time depredations of a wild west character have been committed at the ranches of John Honebon and J. B. Bowman in Garfield. The cause was not so much a desire to become desperadoes as it was to gratify the desire of a boy to buy from the mail-order stores and to revenge supposed wrongs suffered.

Money has been taken, fires started in the fences, sheep pen and other places of mysterious origin, and a load of buck shot fired into the side of the Honebon house. These had been so annoying that Mr. Honebon had requested Sheriff Beatie, of Oregon City, to come out and investigate the matter, which he did on the evening of June 7th. The Sheriff was unable at that time to locate the cause of the trouble, consequently he returned home and a reward of twenty dollars offered for the capture of the culprits and the matter placed in the hands of Deputy Sheriff Bridenstine. It soon became known that Dietrick, a brother-in-law of Honebons and who makes his home with him, was suspected as being the cause of the trouble, accordingly he was questioned closely and finally admitted his part in the affair and implicating the Bowman boy with him.

Many stories, and much for which there is no foundation in fact, has been circulated in the community and in this way the name of Alwyn Hunt became connected with the boys and was taken by Bridenstine along with the other boys to Oregon City, but no charge was placed against him and when on Monday his father, G. T. Hunt, went to Oregon City to attend the trial, which was supposed to come up but which was delayed on account of Judge Dimick being absent and unable to hear the case, so the District Attorney allowed the Hunt boy to return home with his father on promise of being present in Court, if needed. Mr. Bowman, also Mr. Honebon, were to the county seat on Monday. We were unable to secure an interview with Mr. Honebon, all the others connected with the case gave their version of the matter and as a matter of course were much surprised at the revelations implicating those connected with the case.

On Wednesday Judge Dimick heard the case and disposed of the same in the following manner, David Dietrick was sentenced to a term of three years in the reform school at Salem. Oliver Bowman was released on parole to report to the court weekly by letter. Alwyn Hunt was released as no charge was sustained against him.

Rev. Van Marter, Conference Evangelist for the state of Oregon, who was scheduled to begin revival meetings here last Sunday has been detained a week longer than was expected. He expects to arrive in Estacada on Saturday and will preach at the Methodist Church on next Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. There will be services at 11 A. M. at 3 P. M. and at 8 P. M. Come and hear this flaming evangelist whose success has been marked. Thousands have been converted under his preaching and we cannot afford to miss hearing this man. Meetings continue every night this week except Saturday evening. Currinsville and Mt Zion will be with us again next Sunday.
