Pretty Wedding

The Ford-Bell wedding which occurred two weeks ago deserved more space in these columns than was given it, owing to lack of space.

The wedding occurred June 15th at the home of Willis Yonce. The rooms at the home had been beautifully decorated with Oregon grape carnations and roses. Only the immediate family was present. Mr. Bell is unknown among the people of Estacada while the bride has many friends here. The bride wore a dress of cream serge carrying white carnations and smilex, while the groom was attired in conventional black. After the ceremony and congratulations a sumptuous luncheon was enjoyed.

The happy couple spent some days at the A.-Y.-P. Exposition returning to Estacada last week. They are to make their home in Seattle, Wash., and have following them the best wishes of a host of friends. Rev. Kuhlman officiated.

We have several pieces of property left with us to negotiate a sale for. Intending investors in Estacada will do well to consult us as we may have just what you want. Inquire at the PROGRESS office.

Reward Offered For

Recovery of Shawl

Several ladies of dusky complexion, who claim the Warm Spring Indian Reservation as their home, ate their lunch under the shade of the old apple trees near the homes of Al Lindsey and E. M. Miller yesterday and one of them went away leaving her shawl of green plaid hanging on a tree. An Estacada youth, described as being tow-headed, with light suit and white hat, spying the shawl hanging there, no doubt thought: "Here's my chance to make mother a present!" At any rate he was seen hurrying through the alley with the shawl under his arm, and today when the "kloochman" came in quest of her wrap she was dismayed to hear of his fate.

She told Mrs. Lindsey and Mrs. Miller that if they would locate the shawl and care for it until she comes back (in about three months) she would "maybe so give 'um each fifteen cents," so if any one has an extra shawl that smells of the camp-fire and sage brush of Crook Co., and will leave same with either Mrs. Miller or Mrs. Lindsey these ladies will gladly give the honest one a generous slice of that thirty cents—when they get it.

Two desirable lots, small house with water on the premises. For sale. Easy terms. E. P. Scott, or inquire of the Progress Office.

The Portland Railway, Light & Power Co. gave the second of a series of four picnics to its employees on Wednesday when ten car load of rail road men and their families, came into Estacada about 10:30 A. M. and proceeded to have a good time, by strolling through the Park and dancing in the pavilion. The Piedmont brass band from N. Albina furnished music for the occasion. It is estimated that over a thousand people came on the cars.
