Death Of Mrs. Stubbe

Mrs. Caroline Stubbe, mother of August and Wm. Stubbe, died at the home of her son, August, on Monday morning, with whom she has been making her home for sometime. After receiving the congratulations of their friends they started on their honeymoon trip to Salem and Southern Oregon points of interest. It is Mr. and Mrs. Woodward's intention to make Oregon City their home at least for the present where they will be at home to their friends after Oct. 1st.

Card Of Thanks

We desire to thank the many friends who aided us with deeds and words of sympathy, and especially the school children and teachers for their loving tribute of flowers at the death of our mother, and their kindness will be ever remembered.

The Taffy Pull

Saturday evening September 18 the Good Templars of Currinsville united in giving Mr. Frank Vessey a farewell. Games were played and a jolly time was experienced by all.

The girls were just too sweet for anything, even their dresses were sweet. It wasn't the girls fault they tried to leave go the sweetness but you know what a close friend taffy is so it was no use. Sunday morn it was, "I love taffy but oh my hair."

We are very sorry Mr. Vessey is going to leave us. He was a very active member of the Good Templars, being secretary nearly a year. He will make his future home in Portland, we understand, and he has our best wishes.

Two Minute Title Talks

ABOUT BEING SURE

Once a book agent entered a front gate and was met by a vicious looking dog. He hesitated.

Presently the woman said, "Come right in. I don't think the dog will bite."

Did these words reassure the man? "Think" was hardly strong enough. This was the time when he wanted to "know."

So it will be when you go to sell your land. Unless you can use a stronger word than "think" your assurance will be weak indeed.

You must be able to say, "I know the title is good, and here is the abstract that you may know it too."

The abstracts of title to the lands and lots in Clackamas County are prepared by the

Rail Road Continues To Beautify It's Property

The Portland Railway, Light & Power Co. still continues to make improvements in Estacada. The hotel is just now receiving a new coat of paint and workmen are engaged in making improvements and alterations on the inside and outside, the cost of which will be considerable. Workmen are filling up about the depot and on the street in front of their property, which adds much to the appearance, as well as convenience of its patrons.

Traveling Library

The Oregon Library Commission has just sent to Estacada a Traveling Library. The State provides these Traveling Libraries for the use of the people of Oregon and they are free to all. The library contains interesting books on history, travel, agriculture, cooking, etc., and fiction for grown up people and for children. Every citizen of Oregon should know about and make use of these books. Howard James is librarian.

Patterson Ranch Sold

Matt Patterson, of Garfield, sold his ranch of forty acres in Garfield last week to A. O. Whitcomb, of Chicago, who intends to bring his family here at once and occupy the same. It is his intention to go into fruit raising and he will make his plans accordingly. No consideration is mentioned but it is generally understood that Mr. Patterson has received a good price for his ranch. He informs the Progress that his future plans are not definitely settled but when they are he will not be far from Estacada.

Sunday School Convention

The Sunday School Convention held Wednesday Sept. 22nd was well attended and enthusiastic addresses were given. Mr. Lewellen from Springwater was in the chair. The various speakers were heartily received. Luncheon was served at noon. Reports were heard from the various schools from the District, which includes eight or ten of the schools in the neighborhood. Mr. Phipps acquitted himself in his usual able manner. Rev. J. V. Milligan failed to appear, to the sorrow and regret of all present. The house was well filled and many took part in the helpful discussions of the day. We believe that great help will be received from this convention. Mr. Lewellen was re-elected chairman of the District for the ensuing year.

Mr. Elford Sherman and family of five from Michigan are taking in the sights of the Coast and the A.-Y.-P. Exposition. Elford is a brother of D. C. Sherman, of Springwater, where they are expected by the middle of next week. Mrs. D. C. Sherman informs the Progress that they hope to have them remain here permanently. They will at least visit for some time.

Mrs. W. P. Snuffin spent Sunday last with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Myers, of Dodge. She was so well pleased with that country that she came back more than pleased with Garfield. Her aged uncle is quite feeble. She had a lot of fun on her trip especially on the load of hay.
