Moving-Picture Operator Takes Desperate Chance to Avoid Panic.

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 7.—Joseph Pierce, the machine operator at the Hermann moving-picture show, 460 South Spring street, made himself a hero last night, when he closed the steel and asbestos door of his den upon himself and remained in a furnace of exploding and burning films, while the manager, E. L. Kennedy, calmed and sent away the audience without panic. Pierce, when he emerged from his fiery ordeal, his hair and clothing scorched and painful burns upon his hands, said he was at work when something went wrong with the wires. THE BUSINESS SIDE OF FARMING

Professor Bexell Gives Some Valuable and Interesting Pointers.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvalcollege has just issued a bulletin for free distribution emphasizing better ousiness methods on the farm.

Professor Bexell, the author of the bulletin, says in his introduction:

"It is a truism to say that the finan cial side of farming is of the utmost importance. But the act remains that this side of the world's greatest indus for-Early Investigation of Nica- try is almost entirely neglected by both ragua Likely-May Be Known as the farmer and the schools.
