COLONIST TRAVEL HEAVY

Year of 1909 Was Record-Breaker

More Expected in 1910. Chicago, Jan. 3 .- The colonizing work done by the railroads in the zed in a manner which none but this west and Pacific northwest during the teneration could have understood. spring and fall of 1909 broke all records in railway history. Figures pre pared by the management of the Harriman lines show that the number of cific coast territory far exceeded the teroplane? umber in any other year.

The increase over the colonist move ment of 1908 was fully 70 per cent, and may have been in excess of this. Figures for the movement over the Hill lines are not available, the man into the northwest during the last year. It is understood, however, that the an effort to secure colonists as they have made in former years. This fact is said to be due to trouble in the colonist department of the Northern Pacific which led late in the year to the resignation of C. W. Mott, general immigration agent. On the Great Northern road, the illness of Max Bass general immigration agent, which re sulted in his death, somewhat retarded the work of taking homeseckers to the northwest.

It is understood that in 1910 the management of both the Great North ern and the Northern Pacific, aided by the management of the Burlington, are to make a special effort toward popu-lating the vacant lands along their lines in the fertile states of the north-

In each year the railroads have the hort periods which they call colonis periods. The spring colonist period is from March 1 to April 30, while the fall period is from September 15 to October 15. In the fall period of 1909, the Harriman lines sold a total of 11, the Harriman lines sold a total of 11,541 tickets to California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Utah, Colorado and Wyoming points. In the corresponding period of 1908, the same lines sold a total of 6,327. The increase for 1909 was 5,314 tickets. This is an increase for the fall period of 85 per cent. In the fall of 1908 collaboration, be not only kept wide awake, but ember 1 and October 31, during which Harriman lines sold within 4,275 tickets of the number sold during the 60-day period of 1908.
