Dolphin and Flying Fish.

A ship was lying at anchor at Boca Grande, says the Punta Gorda Herald, lately when the crew observed a dolphin chasing a flying fish, both coming directly toward the ship. On nearing the vessel the fish arose in the air and passed over the bow just after the forecast. As it did so the dolphin went under the ship and, coming up on the other side, sprang from the water and caught the flying fish on "the fly" just as it was curving gracefully down in its descent to the water.

Trouble in His Brain Pan.

"Doctor," said the little Boston boy, "you are an alienist, are you not?"
"Yes," answered the distinguished physician, "that is the particular branch of medical practice to which I devote myself. Can I do anything for you?"
"You can assist me, perhaps, in allaying a serious apprehension that has arisen in my mind. This morning, doctor, I found myself saying 'fossiliferous' when I was trying to say 'palaeontological.' Does that indicate aphasia, or is it merely temporary heterometry?"

Looking Forward.

"Why are you looking so happy?"
"My rich uncle has bought him an aeroplane."
"But Curtis says an aeroplane is as safe as an automobile."
"And I believe it; that's why I'm so happy."—Houston Post.

Sleeping with Feet Raised.

Among the pernicious things that we have all been doing without knowing it is sleeping with a pillow under our heads. No longer if we value health and happiness may we bury our weary heads in these soft and soothing depths. It is the feet that want elevation, not the head, says a German doctor, and a pillow isn't big enough to raise them to the required height. The doctor has the foot end of his bed elevated about eight inches and says that in this position his circulation is better and that his brain and nerves have profited thereby.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

Not in the Thunderbolt.

"I sent you a communication a day or two ago," said the indignant caller, "and you wouldn't print it just because it didn't happen to agree with your views."
"What was it about?" asked the editor of the Morning Thunderbolt.
"It was about woman suffrage."
"O, yes, I remember."
"You threw it in the waste basket, I presume."
"I presume I did."
"My object, sir, was to show that a good deal can be said on both sides."
"Well, you said it, all right, sir—on both sides of the sheet. That's the reason why you can't say it in the Thunderbolt. Good morning, sir."

RIVER SEINE FLOODS PARIS

Highest Water Ever Known Has City at Its Mercy.

Subways Filled, Sewers Burst, Streets Torn Up and Buildings Toppling to Ruin—Many Rescuers Drown—Whole Country Submerged and Waters are Still Rising.

Paris, Jan. 25.—At 2 o'clock this morning the water, which was rushing through the tunnel under the Quai d'Orsay station burst through the roadway and flooded the streets, including the Rue de Lille, and Rue de Poitiers and the Rue de Bellechasse, on which are many aristocratic residences. The sidewalks are likely to cave in at any time. Those who occupied the houses were awakened and hurried to places of safety.

At 3:30 this morning the flood from the Quai d'Orsay station extended to the Rue de l'Université. It is estimated that the homeless in the outskirts of Paris number at least 5,000.

Four soldiers have been drowned at Villeneuve and three at Alfortville, while engaged in rescue work.

The situation resulting from the floods is fast becoming desperate. The premier and minister of the interior made this declaration tonight. All conditions indicated a further rise of several inches of the River Seine and the cold rain, which still continues, is causing intense suffering among those who have been made homeless. There is little prospect of relief.

M. Millerand, minister of the public works, after a tour of inspection, said that if the rise continued nothing could prevent a deplorable disaster and the flooding of the most populous quarters in Paris. Measures that had been taken, he said, appeared to him to be adequate "for the present, but only for the present."

Paris is threatened with an immediate and complete tie-up. The stoppage of transportation has raised prices of food, which is becoming scarce, and the supply of water in certain arrondissements has been crippled. Authorities assert that drinking water is assured, but there is no water for industrial services, which are practically suspended.

The Red Cross society is organizing aid for the sufferers. Subscriptions have been opened and theaters are arranging benefits. At midnight the water was less than four feet from the arch of the Pont de l'Alma. Other bridges are not in such danger, unless river craft is swept against them. Big sewers in the Place de Havre and near Place de l'Madeline burst today, threatened foundations of houses.

Part of Rue St. Lazare threatens to cave in and the whole street had been closed. Tunnels of the subway now under construction are flooded. The Orleans terminus is a vast pool and engineers fear that the tunnels may collapse.

At Alfortville, 2,000 people are homeless. The water is 12 feet deep. The salvage is being done by soldiers in autobots at the risk of their lives.

All the factories above and below Paris are closed and thousands of persons are out of employment.

The provinces show improvement. At Tours St. Marne, however, eight houses collapsed and at Juvigny 12 collapsed. The authorities have decided to blow up the dam and allow the canal to flow into the river and save the buildings. A hundred houses at Chalou threaten to fall.

The situation at several places up and down the river is deplorable. The lower quarters of all the towns on the river below Paris are under water, the streets at Auteil resembling those at Venice. A dyke near St Germain broke today, flooding the valley as far as Malmaison.

The lower portion of the Bois du Boulogne is a blanket of water reaching to Bagatelle. Judging from reports received today from the provinces a quarter of France is under water. The Eastern, Central and Southeastern districts of France are terribly afflicted. The valleys and plains are inundated and the cities and towns are in darkness. Troops everywhere have been ordered to the work of rescue, but often they encounter the greatest difficulty in driving the peasants to places of safety. The cities of Montargis, Macon, Chalons sur Saone and Epernay and the entire Champagne country are experiencing the most disastrous floods since 1856. The water in many of the villages along the Saone and Marne reaches to the roofs of the dwellings.

50-Minute Quake Recorded.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Another well defined earthquake of moderate intensity was recorded by the weather bureau seismograph as having been at 1:55:49 o'clock yesterday afternoon, its strongest motion occurring five minutes later. It continued about 50 minutes. Officials believe the disturbance occurred about 1,300 miles from Washington, probably to the Southward. The scene of the activity is thought to have been between Cuba and Jamaica. It was of less intensity than the earthquake of last Saturday.

Americans Win Again.

Boston, Jan. 25.—That nearly 90 per cent of the $20,000,000 to be paid by the Argentine Republic for the building of the dreadnoughts in American shipyards will go for labor, and only 10 per cent for material, is estimated here semi-officially. One of the ships will be built at Quincy, Mass., and the other at Camden, N. J. Each will be 570 feet long with a displacement of 28,000 tons and will have a speed of 25 knots, and 40,000 horse power.

Woman Secures Biz Damages.

Denver, Jan. 25.—Miss Jennie Rosen, a young woman of this city, whose leg was broken and who received other injuries when she was struck by a Denver & Rio Grande railroad train, was today awarded a verdict for $13,224 by a jury in her suit for damages against the railroad.

ENUMERATORS' RATES OF PAY.

Philadelphia Woman Gives Costly Instrument to Young Violinist.

Washington, D. C., January 24.—The varying wage scales in different parts of the country and the differences in the nature and extent of the local difficulties confronting the enumerators in the larger geographical divisions of the United States have influenced and guided United States Census Director Durand in the adoption of a classification of enumerators' rates of compensation, within the limits prescribed by the United States Census law enacted by congress.

Per diem rates of pay will be paid to the census enumerators in the sparsely settled rural districts of Arizona, California, Texas, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming.

The rate will range from $5 to $6 per day for the enumeration of the rural areas outside of cities and towns. Six dollars is the highest rate authorized by law.

There are three general rates—the per capita, the mixed, and per diem. The first and second general rates have five subdivisions each, on farms, the per diem rates range from $3 to $3.50, $4, $4.50, $5, $5.50, and $6, and are paid for a day of eight hours' work.

For enumerators on the per capita basis, which will be that most widely used, the pay for each inhabitant is: Class A, 2 cents; class B, 2 1/2 cents; class C, 3 cents; class D, 3 1/2 cents; and class E, 4 cents. Urban enumerators will also be paid for each farm as follows: Class A, 20 cents; class B, 22 cents; class C, 25 cents; class D, 27 cents; and class E, 30 cents. These rates are in each case 5 cents or more higher than those paid in 1900, when the range was from 15 to 20 cents.

For each establishment of productive industry the rate for each class is 30 cents. For each barn and inclosure containing livestock, not on farms, the pay is 10 cents for each class.

Under the mixed rate, which is a combination of the per capita and the per diem, there are five sub-classes alphabetically arranged, and the per diem is: Class F, $1; G, $1.25; H, $1.50; I, $1.75; and J, $2. For each inhabitant the pay is: Class F, 2 cents; G, 2 cents; H, 2 1/2 cents; I, 2 1/2 cents; and J, 3 cents. Urban enumerators will also be paid for each farm as follows: Class F, 17 1/2 cents; H, 17 1/2 cents; I and J, 20 cents each. For each establishment of productive industry the rate is 20 cents for each class.

ARIZONA STARTLED BY COMET.

Nebulous Body With Flowing Tail Plainly Seen at Sunset.

Douglas, Arizona, Jan. 24.—Without being heralded, there appeared in the western horizon just before dusk this evening, a spectacle as none in these parts had ever before witnessed.

It was nothing more nor less than a magnificent comet, of a body having the appearance of one, with nucleus, coma and a great tail. The word was quickly passed around and soon the whole city was out viewing the beautiful spectacle. At first it was supposed as a matter of course it was Halley's comet, though this is not expected until April, but word from Professor Douglas, astronomer at the state university at Tucson, is that the stranger is distinct from Halley's. The name word also comes to the Dispatch here from Flagstaff university, in Northern Arizona.

The wonder of the spectacle was its completeness and its appearance without any warning just after sunset. Douglas is about 4,000 feet above the sea and has a wonderfully clear atmosphere. No comet like this one has ever before been seen in this section.

Honolulu, Jan. 24.—Captains of inter island vessels arriving here report having seen Halley's comet.

Disputes Delay Settlement.

Paris, Jan. 24.—It is rumored here that the delay in the final settlement of the terms of the Hankow-Sezechun railway loan was due chiefly to disputes over details connected with the apportionment of the roadway between the financial groups interested, the construction material and similar questions. According to a statement in well-informed quarters, the French group, headed by the Indo-China bank, both Russia and Japan, make reservations regarding the Aigun-Taitaikar proposition, the Temps today insists that the concession would be a violation of the Anglo-Pussian convention and the China-Japanese convention.

Thaw Declared Bankrupt.

Pittsburg, Jan. 24.—That Harry K. Thaw is a bankrupt and that his estate is subject to the United States bankruptcy laws is held by Referee William B. Blair, who today handed down an opinion on the petition of Roger O'Nara, trustee of Thaw's estate, for leave to sell the bankrupt's real and personal property to his sister, Alice Copley Thaw, at private sale. The petition was opposed by New York creditors.

Sugar Weighers Stay in Jail.

New York, Jan. 24.—Judge Lacombe, in the United States Circuit court here, denied today the application of the four men now serving a sentence of a year's imprisonment on Blackwell's island for conspiracy to defraud the government in the weighing of sugar on the docks in Brooklyn to be released on bail pending the hearing of the motion of an appeal.

A French scientist has advanced the theory that there is no such metal as radium, but that radio-activity is the result of certain now unknown chemical combinations of which barium forms the chief part.

STRAD FOR A PRESENT.

Philadelphia Woman Gives Costly Instrument to Young Violinist.

Few violinists, even after they become great, own a Stradivarius, but this good fortune has fallen to Domenico Bove, the young Italian of this city, whose career, which many believe will rival Kubelik's, has scarcely begun, the Philadelphia Bulletin says.

Most interesting of all is the fact that this musical treasure was the property of the late Antonin Dvorak, the composer, from whose widow the violin was recently purchased by Mrs. Joseph Drexel, and by her presented to the youthful Bove.

Mrs. Drexel is widely known as a patron of music, and interested as she has been in the young violinist's career, it is but natural that she should choose him for the honor of owning the Stradivarius. Surely nothing could be a greater inspiration to a violinist than the possession of such a priceless thing.

Such things have prices, and high ones, too, for it is whispered that Mrs. Drexel paid $15,000 for the instrument, which gives the layman an idea of what such a gift means in prosaic dollars and cents. Mrs. Drexel made light of the matter when asked recently about the gift to her protégé. "Although naturally averse to parting with this souvenir of her husband, I learned recently that Mme. Dvorak was willing to sell the instrument," said Mrs. Drexel, "and when it came into my possession I naturally looked about for some one who could use it properly, since I could not play it myself."

Bove is now in Prague, Bohemia where it is understood the violin was transmitted to him. Mme. Dvorak resides in Prague.

The young violinist is making rapid progress, according to reports received by his friends in this city. A son of poor Italians in the southern section of this city, Domenico early manifested an inherited ability to play the fiddle both his parents gaining a livelihood thereby. Then Frederick E. Harn, the widely known violinist of this city, became interested in the lad and gave him lessons. His undoubted ability and his proficiency in mastering the most difficult technique of the art aroused the interest of several wealthy patrons, who, it is understood, made it possible for him to go abroad to finish his musical education.

Several of the foremost musicians in this city declare that Bove will become a second Kubelik.

THE BOY-HAVE YOU CAUGHT ANYTHING, SIR?

The Angler—No, not yet, my lad.
The Boy—Ah, I thought not. There weren't no water in that pond till it rained last night.—Leslie's Weekly.
