It is expected that 700,000 will pass through Westminster Hall to look upon the coffin. Barriers are being built by means of which the people will be ushered through in four lines at the rate of 18,000 an hour. The body of the late king will not be ex-posed to view. The mourners will see only the coffin with the official regalia and heaps of flowers. The flowers contributed by organizations and individuals will represent many thousands of dollars in value. The most elaborate wreath was sent from Windsor, consisting of costly white flowers, interwoven with purple, which is the royal mourning color. The wreaths contributed by private in dividuals, numbering thousands, will be hung on posts in the streets.

The artillery horses, with gun car riages, were rehearsing today through the streets along the line of march, so as to avoid the possibility of a mishap on Friday. Fabulous prices are being asked for
