The correct way to pronounce it is Es-ta-ca-da, accent on the third syllable, a having the sound of a as in ah in the two last syllables.

Members of the Board of Army Engineers have inspected the Umatilla irrigation project during the past week and upon their report depends Oregou's chances of sharing in the $20,000,000 bond issue proposed for the completion of reclamation projects already under way. The inspectors declined to make any statement but it is regarded as certain that their report will be favorable.

They went carefully over the district and saw thriving orchards, alfalfa fields from which three crops have been cut, and gardens filled with fine vegetables. Reclamation Service officials told the engineers that conditions on the proposed extension of the project are more favorable than those on the district where reclamation work has already proved so successful. The extension of the project will irrigate 60,000 acres additional.

Portland's Harvest Festival, which was the big feature of the past week in Portland, was the most successful such event in the history of the city. The crowds were the biggest ever attending any similar affair in the state, with the the Lewis and Clarke Fair. The $50 HEDGETHORN PURGTURE-PROOF $6 80 Is still at the old stand and willing to do stock was of a very high class and the races were run for the biggest purses ever offered in the Northwest. The support given the Fair was gratifying and plans are being ontlined for a $1,000,000 livestock show next year,

The Oregon & Western Colonization Company, which recently acquired the big Cascade wagon road grant and will open up 800,oco acres' to settlement, has appointed Earl L. Marvin, formerly state land agent for Idaho, manager of the property, and the lands are now being appraised preparatory to opening them up for settlement. The possibilities of irrigation on the lands are being considered by the owners.

Bend is going to get valuable advertising in the East by making a complete exhibit in the Oregon car to be shown by the Hill interests. The grown around Bend will be included in the exhibit, which object lesson in what Oregon farms can grow. It is certain to get good results. Every Oregon town should have a like showing.

Beautification of railroad stations in Oregon is planned by the Harriman lines and W. C. Chace has been appointed official landscape architect, Eugene was the first city in the state to adopt modern landscaping ideas for its depot grounds and others will follow suit.
