WANTED—Nice fat beef cattle at Townsend's. Top prices paid. Fat cattle wanted; the fatter the better.—See Penland & Jorg.

Sheriff Beatie made a business call in Estacada Tuesday.

The days are becoming shorter and the nights longer.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Hulse spent Tuesday in Portland.

Jerry Jones is on the sick list this week.

L. E. Belfils has sufficiently recovered to be back to work in the bank again.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Eshleman returned on Saturday from their trip to Alberta.

Rev. Brown, the new pastor of the Estacada M. E. Church, will preach next Sunday morning.

Rev. Kuhlman has been changed in his pastorate to Sheridan. He leaves this week.

Wm. Perry is all smiles these days all on account of a baby girl that came to his home on Friday.

Mrs. Otto Stuben, of Portland, was a visitor to Estacada on Wednesday.

Gerald Wilcox, of Springwater, has returned to Corvallis where he is attending school.

A ten pound baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Woodyard in Oregon City on Tuesday.

J. I. Bunker who has been confined to his bed by sickness for the past two weeks was able to be on the street again this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stratton and daughter Edith, of Portland, spent a couple days this week visiting with friends in Estacada.

The city is having the big stumps burned out that have not added any to the appearance nor convenience of travel on Zobrist St. between 2nd and 3rd.

We have a cash buyer for an improved farm of from 30 to 60 acres. Write immediately giving price and full particulars. Ralph Ackley, 605 Corbett Bldg., Portland, Ore.

J. H. Burton, of Portland, while engaged in fishing near the Brown place on the Clackamas last week, fell and dislocated his shoulder. Mr. Houck brought him to Estacada where Dr. Adix attended him.

Mrs. Humble, mother of Miss Miriam Humble the teacher employed at the Garfield school, has rented part of the old Irwin home owned by Mr. Wonacott and moved there this week. This makes it convenient for the teacher.

Mrs. Evans, finding it impossible to rent a house in Estacada, has purchased the Al Lindsey property and will shortly move here. Mrs. Evans does this so that it will be convenient for her son Milton to attend our school. Here is another evidence that it builds up our city to have good schools.

Capt. Shannon, an old time resident of Springwater, was taken to Portland in an automobile ambulance to the Good Samaritan hospital last week. Mr. Shannon had been away and had just returned home when he was taken sick. It was thought best by his children to have him removed to the hospital where he could receive the best attention.

Geo. Dale who works at the power plant at Cazadero was struck by a flying belt on Thursday morning and received a cut on the right side of his head, also several hard raps on the back. The accident happened about six o'clock in the morning and he had just gone on his shift. Mr. Robley brought him home on the early car. He was put to bed and is resting fairly comfortable.

License Petitioner

Starts Suit

Gilbert C. Reed, of Portland, an applicant for liquor license in Estacada has brought mandamus proceedings against the mayor and city council to compel them to issue to him such license. It is alternative in character, giving the council the privilege to grant a license to the plaintiff or to appear before the circuit court at Oregon City on Tuesday Oct. 11th to show cause why they refuse to grant a license.

MaZamas Visit

Estacada

Twenty-five members of the Mazamas Mountain Climbing Club, through the courtesy of B. O. Caldwell of the P. R. L. & P. Co., came to Estacada on Sunday last to see the city and its wooded country. Several points of interest were suggested as places likely to prove interesting to such a hardy bunch. They finally decided they would take to the woods. With Mr. Hulse as guide they climbed the elevations on the south side of the river and came by way of Habets down the bluff to the Clackamas. The days rain did not matter but proved a little unpleasant as all were drenched by the rain and wet brush. The trip was enjoyed however by all as most of them are familiar with roughing it. Mr. West of the railroad company's officials, made one of the party. They had a special car.

Examinations For Assistant Rangers

The Civil Service Commission will hold an examination for Assistant Forest Ranger on October 24-25, 1910. The U. S. Department of Agriculture estimates that 400 eligibles will be needed during the field season of 1911. Assistant Forest Rangers are paid an entrance salary of $1,100 per annum.

The examination will be held at National Forest headquarters in Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Florida, Idaho, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, New Mexico, Nevada, Oregon, South Dakota, Washington, and Wyoming. No examinations will be held in Arkansas, Oklahoma, and Utah, except at Kanab, Utah, the headquarters of the Kaibab National Forest. Since all of the Kaibab Forest is in Arizona, residents of Arizona will, under the law, have preference in appointments for this Forest.

Death Of Martin Pratt

Martin Pratt died at the Park Hotel on Saturday morning after a short illness. Mr. Pratt, with his son-in-law Clark Wisner, recently came from The Dalles and were arranging to open up the Park Hotel to keep boarders. He has been a sufferer from diabetes for a number of years, which was the cause of his death. Mr. Yeakey, also a son-in-law, had previously intended to open up the Park Hotel but before arrangements to have the building repaired could be completed he died suddenly in Portland.

Martin Pratt was born in the state of New York. He served as a soldier in that state enlisting for three years service in 1862. After serving two and a half years he was discharged from the service in 1865 for disability. He came West in May 1900 and located in the state of Washington, where he resided for about a year after which he took up a homestead in Wasco Co., Ore. He came to Estacada about a month ago.

At the time of his death he was aged 74 years and 4 mo. He is survived by the following children, Mrs. Emma Yeakey of Portland, Ore., Mrs. Reed of Minneapolis, Minn., and Mrs. Clark Wisner of Estacada. The children, also his brother Wellington Pratt of The Dalles, were here at the time of his death.

The body was shipped to Clear Lake, Polk Co., Wisconsin, for burial on Saturday evening. Mrs. Reed accompanied the remains.

Lightning Plays Piano

Lightning tore open the piano, shattered one side of the building, knocked out the front door and started a small fire near the telephone when it struck the mountain home of Adolf Aschoff, at Marmot, Or., Saturday, but it did not kill or even seriously injure any of the several occupants.

While the bolt was ripping the piano, jangling the keys out of tune, Mr. Aschoff was standing near the telephone. Following the crash, a tiny flame started near the instrument and, although stunned by the shock, Mr. Aschoff calmly put out the blaze with his hand. Since the lightning struck Mr. Aschoff has complained of headache, his son Gustav's hearing has been affected and Mrs. Aschoff has suffered from a pain in the back but they consider themselves lucky to have escaped alive.—Oregonian, Oct. 4.

J. B. C. Has Good Time

(This interesting piece of news was unintentionally omitted from last week's issue.)

The J. B. C's broke into the limelight again Friday evening (Sept. 23) by giving a house party at the home of J. P. Woodlee. Quite a number of the young friends of the Woodlee family were present. Flinch was the game of the evening. About midnight refreshments were served and the guests soon all departed for their several homes each vowing they had had a splendid time and hoping that these gatherings could be kept up all the year.

Charged With Selling Liquor

Jerry Jones having said before the marshal and others that he had secured a bottle of whiskey from J. P. Altizer, Mayor Reed swore to a complaint charging Altizer with violating the ordinances of Estacada. Altizer was arrested and
