Aviators, With Passengers, Go From Paris to Brussels. Paris-Henry Wynmalen, the Dutch

aviator, and holder of the world's alti-tude record, and M. LeGagneux, the French aviator, each with a passenger, made remarkable trips in biplanes from Paris to Brussels. They started an hour and a half apart, in an attempt to win the $30,000 offered by the Auto club and the $5,000 offered by the municipality of Paris for a successful flight with a passenger to Brussels and return.

Wynmalen, after reaching the Belgian capital, left almost immediately on the return trip and arrived safely in the evening at St. Quentin. LeGag-neux decided to stop for the night in Brussels and will start for Paris early in the morning.
