WELLMAN AIRSHIP LOST; CREW SAVED BY STEAMER

New York-The New York Times received a wireless saying that Walter Wellman and his companions aboard the airship that started to fly from America to Europe were rescued by the Royal Mail steamer Trent.

News of the rescue came by wireless from Captain Downs, of the Trent, in message which read:
"At 5 o'clock this morning we sighted Wellman's airship America in distress. They signalled by the Morse code that help was required. "After three hours of maneuvering with fresh winds blowing we picked up Wellman and the entire crew and the cat. All are now safe aboard the Trent. All are well. The America was abandoned in latitude 35:43 north, longitude 68:18 west." This point is east of Cape Hatteras, and half way to Bermuda.

The cat referred to was the America's mascot, placed aboard by Mrs. Vaniman, wife of the chief engineer of the airship. Captain Downs gave no other particulars.
