Mrs. E. M. Miller has received a letter from a friend at Falls City that contains some information of former Estacada people that will be interesting. It says that Henry Brown, who formerly worked here and was hurt by ties falling on him, is the manager of the electric plant there, also that Mr. Barr, a former business man in Estacada, and Ed. Rich, who was a salesman here in the early history of our town, are engaged in business in that city.

Come in and let us help you make your Christmas selections. We have a nice line to choose from. Make a deposit and we will lay the goods aside.—Estacada Furniture Co.

Ed. Boners new Christmas post cards can't be beat. Make your selections early.

At eleven o'clock to-day the house of L. E. Snow, of Cazadero, was discovered on fire. It caught from the pipe on the roof. The neighbors put it out before much damage was done.

Raid Made On Soft Drink Places

Sheriff Beatie And Deputies Secure Two Wagon Loads Of Beer, Wine And Whiskey

Two Detectives Secure Evidence

Charges Of Running A Saloon On Sunday And Gambling Are Made

On Thanksgiving day Sheriff Beatie and his deputies swooped down in Estacada about 11 A. M. and from that time until late in the afternoon were kept busy making arrests and searching business places. Considering that we were a "dry" town, conditions for some time have not been at all satisfactory. It was no uncommon thing to see intoxicated persons on the street and in the soft drink places. Frequent trips to Portland with suit cases by the same individuals and mysterious freight packages have aroused considerable interest. Things seemed to be going from bad to worse.

About two weeks ago two strangers appeared in town and gave out that they were interested in real estate. They kept patronizing the various soft drink places, confectionery and other lines of business. It now develops that they were detectives in the employ of someone as yet unknown to us who is represented by Attorney Cross of Oregon City.

The sheriff and his deputies arrested J. P. Altizer, J. M. Foster, C. L. Ferry, Paul the chinaman employed by Foster, and Floe Henderson who conducts a rooming house over Foster's place. They were all taken to Oregon City where warrants for their arrest had been sworn out before Justice of the Peace Sampson.

They all returned home on the evening car having given bail for their appearance later. Foster and Altizer were each held in $750, Ferry $300, Floe Henderson $100, and Paul $50. A man who has been about town for some time and known by the name of Schell was also included in the raid. He was arrested in Portland the next day and was taken to Oregon City where he was held in the sum of $400 bail.

We understand that the charges were, running a saloon on Sunday and gambling. After the arrests had been made a number of places were searched. It is said that at Fosters, Ferrys, and the Henderson woman's places a lot of stuff was confiscated and locked up, which Mr. White, the detective, informed us consisted of whiskey, beer and wine. The names of the detectives as given are H. P. White and C. E. Reynolds.

Foster Guilty On Two Counts

J. M. Foster was convicted on Tuesday at Oregon City before Justice of the Peace Sampson on two counts of having sold liquor on Sunday and was fined $25 on each count. Pelton, Woodard, Sheriff Beatie, Mayor Reed and detectives White and Lindsey were the witnesses. On Wednesday he was tried on a charge of maintaining a disorderly house.

"I had been troubled with constipation for two years and tried all of the best physicians in Bristol, Tenn., and they could do nothing for me," writes Thos. E. Williams, Middleboro, Ky. "Two packages of Chamberlain's stomach and liver tablets cured me." For sale by all good dealers.

Garfield To Build Gymnasium

Effort Will Be Made To Build Suitable Building At Once

There's quite a little excitement among the young people of Garfield over the prospect of a gymnasium building. The young people are to solicit the funds and arrange the erection of the building, and the present plan is to have the scheme fathered by the Y. M. C. A., and eventually grow into a branch of that great institution. In the mean time some of the responsible men of Garfield are to act as directors and guarantee that funds contributed shall not be diverted from the purpose for which given.

The plan originated in a gathering of the young men during the evenings of last summer for the practicing of baseball and other games. It promises good things for the young ladies as well as the young men, for it will make possible basket ball, indoor baseball, roller skating and other sports.

Its originators are determined that it shall be conducted on a high moral plane and be free from everything of an objectional nature. You who know the value of the gymnasium in keeping young people clean in habit and contented in spirit will be glad of this movement, and when the committee awaits upon you receive them with smiles and liberal gifts.

If you would rather Sunday baseball and public dances would stop, then provide the young people with wholesome amusement during the week. Show them that you recognize their desire for reasonable amusement, so that when Sunday comes they may not be compelled to use it as the only opportunity. Furthermore why not shut down work Saturday afternoons with the same end in view. It's worth much more than it costs.

Meeting Of Fruitgrowers

There will be a meeting of the Estacada Fruit Grower's Association at Estacada, Saturday Dec. 10th. Mr. A. J. Lewis, fruit inspector for Clackamas county, will be the speaker of the day.

Not only are all the members of the Association expected to be there, but everyone who is interested are cordially invited. We want every man in the district to become identified with the Association.

Come and enjoy the meeting and if so inclined join the Association.

GARFIELD

Mr. A. H. Standish, of Chicago, arrived Thanksgiving morning to spend a few weeks with his sons in Garfield.

Mr. Tom Morton, who recently arrived from New York and has been making his home in Garfield for the past few weeks, has recently taken a position with the Estacada Mercantile Co.

Miss Verna Smith and Miss Clara Mann spent Sunday with Miss Humble. There was great excitement in Garfield when it was learned that two more girls had arrived in the vicinity, but the communities expectations were soon quelled, when they were escorted to the train the very same day of their arrival. Oh, you "Heck."
