Evangelist Sewall and family are visiting the parents of Mrs. Sewall at Thornton, Wash. They will be absent for a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Holt, of Portland, mother and stepfather of Councilman Hawkins, came out and spent Christmas with the Hawkins family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stubbs, of Hood River, came to Estacada on Sunday evening to spend part of the holiday period with Mrs. Stubbs' parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dale.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Woodward of Oregon City, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilcox of Garfield, and Mr. and Mrs. David Esleman spent Christmas at the Womer home.

We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. E. Blockley on the arrival of a little baby girl at their home about a month ago. This information has just reached our office.

Monday was observed by the Estacada State Bank as a holiday. Other lines of business in Estacada moved on just as if Christmas was over.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Belfils had with them to enjoy their Christmas day Mr. and Mrs. John Schone of Portland. Mrs. Schone is a sister of Mr. Belfils.

Donald Newman has been spending his vacation from Hill's Military Academy, Portland, with his grandma and aunt Mrs. S. J. and Miss Maude Sturgeon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jones had with them to enjoy their Christmas day dinner Mrs. O. B. Lawrence of Lents and Mrs. Eva Kessler, mother and sister of Mrs. Jones, and Mr. N. A. Ely, of Chicago.

Road district No. 49 in upper Garfield met on Saturday Dec. 17th and levied a special road tax of 8 1/2 mills for the roads and 1 1/2 mills for tools, and machinery. They went on record as being against the state aid road proposition.

I am prepared to file and fix the teeth of your horse so that he can enjoy life. Price $1. E. M. Miller.

Mayor and Mrs. Reed had as guests for Christmas Mr. W. W. Leete, of W. Salem, Wis., an old back East friend who is just now looking over the West with a view of locating, also the Misses Eunice and Gladys Richards of Portland, who are spending their holiday week here.

Every family has need of a good, reliable liniment. For sprains, bruises, soreness of the muscles and rheumatic pains there is none better than Chamberlain's. Sold by all good dealers.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Alspaugh of Alapaugh had with them for Christmas their sons, A. M. Alspaugh and family of Portland and Roy who is a student at Corvallis. Roy has a couple of weeks vacation which he is spending at home.

When your feet are wet and cold, and your body chilled through and through from exposure, take a big dose of Chamberlain's cough remedy, bathe your feet in hot water before going to bed, and you are almost certain to ward off a severe cold. For sale by all good dealers.

The Palace Meat Market bought a hog last week that created almost as much of a sensation as Santa Clause himself. The hog was two years old and was raised and sold by John Honebon of Garfield. It dressed 530 pounds and was of Yorkshire breed.

Road District No. 10 in Garfield met in the Grange hall and voted a special 5 mill tax. They decided to commence on the Wilson hill and go from there on doing all the work possible for the money they would have to do it with.

Antonia Petraso and John Solomon, who are working at the River Mill have bought from John Zobrist 23 acres of land that lies directly East from the railroad at the River Mill switch. Consideration $2070.

Miss Mary Dale was the lucky guesser as to the number of beans in a jar at the Estacada Pharmacy and received as a prize an elegant stand mirror. The exact number of beans contained in the jar was 6803. Her guess was 6856 the nearest to the exact number.

P. D. Antrim, agent for the Idaho and Washington R. R. with headquarters at Spokane, spent Christmas with his parents here, Mrs. Anna Read, of Portland, and Lance Read, O. A. C. student, are also spending their vacation at the Antrim home.

Dr. G. G. Carl, of Portland, is assisting Dr. Adix during the rush of the holidays. Unlike most of the professions, which are usually a period of vacation at this time, the medical prescriber and the confectioner are busy men.

The Rev. Robert Diven was sent by the Board of Home Missions to the Springwater Presbyterian congregation on last Sunday as a Christmas gift to the congregation for the day. This was very graciously acceptable to them as the reverend had ministered to this church before and has many friends here.

At Springwater the Sabbath School and public school children united in having a Christmas day exercise which was held in the Grange hall. A Christmas tree was prepared and the children entertained in a very pleasing manner with songs and recitations. A spirit of unity seemed to prevail throughout the entire exercises. Rev. Robert Diven also made a short address.

At the Fern Rock farm Monday was observed by Mr. and Mrs. D. Bridenstine as their Christmas day. A nice tree was arranged for the children and they, as well as the guests of the family who had been invited for dinner, thoroughly enjoyed the day. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. M. Warnock of Springwater, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Nicholson of River Mill, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Warnock of New Era and Miss Lottie Tracy of Garfield.

"I had been troubled with constipation or two years and tried all of the best physicians in Bristol, Tenn., and they could do nothing for me," writes Thos. E. Williams, Middleboro, Ky. "Two packages of Chamberlain's stomach and liver tablets cured me." For sale by all good dealers.

On Christmas day a family reunion was held at the home of Councilman Woodlee. A Christmas tree was arranged on Saturday. On Sunday all gathered around the family circle to spend the day and partake of a good Christmas dinner which the madam who rules over the household knows how to prepare. The day was very pleasantly spent. G. R. Woodlee and family of Dover, Ray Woodlee and family and Claude Woodlee of Barton and Miss Tera Ramsdale of Portland, a guest of Miss Myrtle, were those present in addition to the family residing here.

On Friday evening the children of the M. E. Sunday School and the friends of the congregation gathered at the church to participate in the Christmas exercises. The church had been nicely decorated with Oregon grape and looked very pretty. Songs and recitations together with the appearance of Santa Clause, who was greeted by the old boys and girls with the same delight as those of more tender years and less experience, made up the evening entertainment. A treat of candies, nuts and oranges was distributed to those present.

E. S. Wilcox and wife while driving down the Wilson hill had quite an accident. They had turned off the plank to allow another team to pass and in so doing the tongue of their wagon broke and dropped to the ground, stopping the wagon so suddenly that the occupants were thrown to the ground. Mrs. Wilcox fell under the horses. Fortunately the horses stopped and after the team was straightened out it was found no one was hurt much and they came to town. In returning home they met with another mishap, getting on one of the muddy and had grades a singletree broke and they were left sticking in the mud.

LOST—Gold Rebekah Pin, P. N. G., design five pointed star with enamel, surrounded by wreath which is suspended from bar by two short gold chains. Liberal reward if returned to Progress office or to owner, Mrs. E. M. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dubois spent several of their Christmas holidays at Portland. This, however, did not prevent them from having a Christmas tree at home, which was enjoyed not only by the family but his employees also.

Another change was made at the Estacada freight depot on last Friday when W. H. Leisure, agent here for a few months, was transferred to the Portland office and W. D. Telford, of Oregon City, who had been working in the Portland office, is the new agent here.

Death Of Mrs. G. P. Looney

Mrs. G. P. Looney died on Thursday morning in a Portland hospital after an operation which had been performed at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Looney has not been in good health for a couple of years. They have lived on the B. C. Looney place in Garfield for about a year. Her grand-mother Mrs. H. M. Looney has been sick and Mrs. G. P. Looney had been caring for her. This extra work seemed to aggravate her trouble and she was taken to Portland for treatment. Her death comes as a great shock to the community.

J. R. Townsend and son Emnis have bought out a grocery store at Laurelwood, a suburb of Portland, and have left to take charge of it.

Reed and Sparks will move the dry kiln from the wood working plant to a lot on Broadway where it will be converted into a business house.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Duffy, of Goldfield, Nevada, are new arrivals in Estacada. They came with a desire to locate here. It is a conclusion easy to arrive at that they have come to stay and are casting about for an opportunity to do something to their liking and we believe they will find it.
