EAGLE CREEK

The storm is over and again the sun shines. Little damage is reported in our vicinity. Fred Hoffmeister feared he was going to lose some real estate but it stopped sliding before it crossed the line. A slide on Judd ridge, beginning just across from Homer Ballous, would have buried Pleas Douglas and all he possessed had it kept on sliding.
Pleasant moved out temporarily.

On the roadside, near the Freeman place, 2½ acres took a slide.
It was quite heavily timbered and, of course, the timber went too.
About one-third of the timber fell, the remainder stands as erect as before. The slide put the Douglas Ridge and Dover telephone lines out of commission.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs.
Roy Myers has been quite sick but is doing nicely now.

Mr. Egbert Foster was quite ill Monday but is reported better.

Russell Jones and his friends think he has the measles. We hope not as in that case teacher and pupils of Dist. No. 50 are exposed and an enforced vacation will probably result.

Goose Creek went on a rampage as a result of the recent snow and rain. The creek very nearly reached Hiukie and Ely's store and James Sutor, who lives in the small house east of the store, moved out but the water lacked an inch of coming in on his floor. Wilbern's hall and the buildings east of it were surrounded by water.

Mr. Alex. Baker purchased the Robert's property in Eagle Creek for $500. He rented it to Mr.
Hightman for $50 per annum.
Good interest, Alex.

Three bridge men, while engaged in taking driftwood away from the railroad bridge across Eagle Creek, were standing on one plank when said plank broke and precipitated them into the current of the stream.
Fortunately they caught hold of the timbers and were rescued by fellow workmen. One man had three ribs broken.

Mr. Franklin Taylor has sold 20 acres off the east end of his farm in section 33 to a man who will move out immediately. He has a family and will live in Mr. Taylor's house until he builds his own, which he expects to do in the spring. All such are welcome but it has been stated positively that no more bachelors will be tolerated.

GEORGE

We still have an inch of snow at George, which is good for the fall sowed grain.

Mr. Walter Paulsen, of Portland, was out to visit his father, Hans Paulsen, who has been on the sick list.

A surprise party was given to Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Miller on Friday last. All had a fine time.

Mrs. Klunker and daughter Helen and Mrs. Schell were the guests of Mrs. Robert Miller Monday.

Mrs. Theodore Harders has been quite sick for the past two weeks.
She is staying with her mother Mrs. Fanton at Estacada.

Mrs. Joyner is spending a week at the River Mill dam at Estacada where Mr. Joyner is working.

Messrs. Chris and Henry Johnson were the guests of Mr. Wan.
Held on Monday night.

Death Of Grandma Tenny

Grandma Tenny died at the home of her son Lorenzo Tenny at Viola on Sunday night last. About two weeks ago she met with an accident by falling in her room and breaking the hip bone. Her death was in consequence of the accident. Grandma Tenny was born in the state of New York, April 14, 1817 and was almost 94 years of age. She came from Illinois to Oregon with her son in 1894. They settled in Viola where they have since lived. Lo-

Will Campaign With County Superintendent

Edward H. Todd, vice-president of the Willamette University, and Superintendent T. J. Gary will start out on Monday morning, January 23, to visit schools and to hold educational rallies in various parts of Clackamas County. They will be at Oak Grove on Monday, Harmony, Tuesday; Boring, Wednesday; Springwater, Thursday; Logan, Friday; Brown's, Saturday.
Superintendent Gary heard Dr.
Todd speak at the dedication of the Estacada school house, and says that it was one of the best addresses he has ever heard. Dr. Todd's lectures appeal with special force to the young people.

Two years ago State Superintendent Ackerman assisted in one of these campaigns and at every place was greeted by a packed house. Dr. Todd will doubtless receive the same appreciation.—

The Storm

The storm of last week did not do much damage in and about Es-tacada except to inconvenience a good many people. The river was not as high as it has been in many instances but the snow that lay on the ground melted by the rain, raised the water in the small streams which overflowed in all directions.

Estacada, having no adequate sewer system, the water flowed freely through the streets. The railroad had trouble between here and Portland and the loss to them was quite heavy as several slides and washouts occurred. We were without any mails for about twenty-four hours. The cars could only run from here to Gresham and return.
The rainfall as registered in Es-tacada for the two worst days, 18th and 19th, was 3.42 and 2.87 inches in 24 hours. Several persons bound for Portland were compelled to stay here from Wednesday evening until the last car Thursday evening before trains could be run through.

Death Of Mrs. L. E. Snow

On January 20th Mrs. Louise Ware Snow, wife of L. E. Snow of Cazadero, died at the home of her parents at Park Place where she had been taken about a month ago.
Mrs. Snow has lived in Cazadero for about four years. She was not very strong and suffered considerable. Her recent illness was due to a complication of diseases. She had cancer of the stomach also.
Her maiden name was Ware and she was born in Texas, February 17, 1884 and was almost 31 years of age just in the prime of life.
