Big stakes will be offered in the HIDES race meet of the Portland Fair & Livestock Association to be held next September. Approximately $25,000 will be distributed in prizes according to the plans of the directors, who meet early in May to pass officially upon the program. It has been decided to offer again the $10,000 purse for the 2:12 trot, which aroused so much interest among horsemen last year. In addition, there will be two new classifications, the 2:08 pace and the 2:08 trot. Dates of the meet are September 4-9.

It is not too early to start the annual fight against the usual timber loss, believes the Oregon Forest Fire Association, for this organization is in the field lining up timber owners to patrol their holdings during the dry season, seeking a more rigid enforcement of the law and co-operating generally in the good work. This association points out that 80% of the value of the timber goes for labor and materials. New Stallion Law In thus giving the entire population a direct interest in preventing its de struction.
