LOCAL NEWS AND PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Cary are rustivating by the sea.

W. G. Clover at Eagle Creek is building a hop dryer.

Iva Hortocher is the new dry good's manager and clerk at the Estacada Mercantile Co.

Mary McWillis has accepted a position with the Estacada Mercantile Company as cashier.

Mrs. Oscar Full has been selling garden produce at River Mill twice a week.

At a meeting Council held on Monday evening A. G. Ames was elected policeman.

Mrs. Wright of The Estacada, is making outing trips these days to Faraday.

The "Portland," with the official retinue of the P. R. L. & P. Co. made its weekly visit to Estacada on Tuesday.

Rarl Schultz and Lee Bronson returned on Monday from a weeks outing up the Clackamas. They were in the Bronson camp on the Colewash.

Chas. Sparks and wife have returned from a week's camping on the Clackamas. Charlie says he caught six fish, which proves him not a fisherman. If he had been he would have reported six dozen.

Gilbert Potwin, of Forest Grove, spent over Sunday in Estacada with his friends. He says the folks all like their new home and that they have been busy with the berries on their ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sparks and Miss Springer, her sister, left last week for White Salmon, Wash., where Mr. Sparks has a homestead which they have not visited for six years. They will spend their outing period there this year.

The mystery of the shooting of the eight horses on the Mt. Hood road above Sandy is again agitating the people of that section. They think the County Court should appropriate one hundred dollars to make a search of the locality to see if any trace of a crime can be found. They think probably that the owner of the horses was murdered.

Mrs. C. F. Bode and her boys, who have been visiting with the Sevier family at River Mill left on Monday for Seattle, from there they go to California before returning to their home in Salida, Colo. Mr. Bode is a railroad man back "in Colorado town" and is a brother of Mrs. Sevier.

Mrs. W. M. Yonce and family, Mrs. B. O. Sarver and family and Mrs. Otto Stuben and family have just returned from a camping trip of a week. They were located on Clear Creek. The women folks were expert crawfish catchers and when Otto Stuben visited them in camp they filled him up on crawfish. They report having a splendid time.

On this Thursday the Brotherhood of Electric Railway Employees are holding their annual picnic at the Oaks. The admission of ten cents to the grounds goes to the sick benefit fund of the association, as Manager Cordray donates the use of the grounds for the occasion. In addition the P. R. L. & P. Co. donates $500 toward the expense of holding the picnic. An attendance of 20,000 people is expected.

An interesting story comes from the Palmater settlement this week. A lone fisherman was in the vicinity of Noun Falls on Eagle Creek when some of the small boys of the vicinity who had gone there to take a swim, saw a little chipmunk and opened fire on him. The fisherman in an excited manner wanted to know what was the matter. The boys with no regard for truthfulness on this occasion said they saw a cougar. The fisherman straightway took to his heels and has not been seen since.

LOCAL NEWS AND PERSONAL MENTION

Kitty Reigau is in the phone office as "sub" this week.

Gertrude Morrow is off on her vacation this week.

Mr. Elgin Barton is working at the Eagle Creek station. He intends to become an operator.

Mr. Edgar Hieple is busy cutting grain. It is said that he has the finest wheat in the country.

O. E. Smith is building a modern bungalow at 5th and Currin Sts. Al Lindsey has the contract.

Tr. Lowe, the optician, will be in Estacada August 23rd.

Mrs. Blockley and her sister were Portland visitors the first of the week for a couple of days.

Pearl Whitfield has accepted a position with the Progress and is wrestling with the type in a succeeding way.

A number of persons about Estacada, who have been on outing trips, have returned and are to be found at their several vocations with renewed energy.

The forest fires in this locality are either out or well under control. All the men engaged in fighting the fire have been dismissed except a few to guard the fire that has not been entirely subdued.

Coyd Looney, from New Castle, Va., writes the Progress that he arrived there July 30, had a fine trip, took his friends by surprise, and is having a very enjoyable visit with them.

Rev. Browne and family, after a pleasant outing of two weeks, have returned home to the parsonage. The family had a select place on Clear Creek to camp and had plenty of company, as other Estacadians were camping there at the time.

Married by Rev. A. A. Darling Aug. 9, 1911 at the bride's home, Miss Mabel F. Henthorn and Mr. Perry M. Anderson. All parties of Estacada, Ore.

EAGLE CREEK

The Banfield Veysel Fuel Co. have purchased from the Merchant's National bank the property known as the Bohn farm and other timbered lands comprising in all 500 acres. Consideration $30,000. Have 25 men or more cutting wood. Moved the old house and will add new porches, a pantry and bathroom. Will build a large new house just in front of where the old one stood. Mr. John Denison is the present manager.

Mr. George White arrived the first of the week and is busy improving the new home, formerly known as the Rivers place. A team and wagon and a horse and buggy came also. Miss White who came out a month ago, has been "holding the fort" with the assistance of her lady friends from Portland. She brought out with her 300 chickens which she hatched with incubators, and had kept on a city lot by means of the Filo system. The oldest were hatched in March and one or more are laying. Country girls, "Can you beat it?"

Mr. Bingham, who made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Howlett for some time, returned recently to his home in the old country. He is a subject of King George.

The "very beneficial rains" of a few days ago, reported by one of Portland's daily papers to have saved the late potatoes, etc. from partial failure in Multnomah and Clackamas counties scarcely reached this part at all but the weather is ideal for harvest and woodmen.

Miss Emma Forrester is spending a week with Mrs. Cahill. They were calling on friends in and near Estacada Monday.

Isaac Frster, who was thrown from a horse and severely hurt Sunday July 23, is improving and will not lose the use of one eye as it was feared he would.

Mrs. Howlett is able to get about again after a severe illness.

Upper Dam To Be Built At Once

President Josselyn Says Men Will be Moved from River Mill Power Site to New Work

Through Line May Be Object

Says Line May be Extended Over Mountains—Extension to S. P. Work Probable

On the authority of President Josselyn of the P. R. L. & P. Co., in an interview given in Saturday's Telegram, the upper dam above Cazadero will be where the workmen from the River Mill site will be transferred to on the completion of that work October 1st.

It is said that the upper site will be of the hollow concrete type, same as the River Mill site but the details of the work have not been completed. It will not be finished before January 1st, 1913, if it is done by then. Mr. Josselyn, in the report, says the backwater of this dam will extend up the river a distance of seven miles from the site and will furnish power enough for a manufacturing city. It is also asserted, on the same authority, that what we here term the Southern Pacific work up the Clackamas has been taken over by the P. R. L. & P. Co. and that while Mr. Josselyn did not want to be quoted as saying the road now being built up to that plant as a wagon road was in reality a railroad, the account gave him credit with saying he would not be surprised if ultimately would be made use of by some of the big eastern roads for a through line. This is an opinion expressed by all persons locally and we have no doubt that the future will prove the correctness of such an opinion.

The Progress has outlined an imaginative future—prosperous conditions for Estacada—on several previous occasions and as the plans of the big corporations, who are looking years in the future, are being unfolded we have no occasion to change this opinion. We have advised our people to invest in land, to build houses for rent, to engage in business enterprises of which Estacada right now affords an opportunity in certain lines of merchandising and in manufacturing. We said take advantage of these opportunities yourselves and do not wait for others to come in and reap the benefit, for they surely will come. We do not mean by this that we do not wish strangers to come or to receive the benefit. We mean that as the people who have roughed it in the early stages of development ought to receive as their reward a part of the profits. We are on the map and many eyes are turned our way. The probability is we will all make some mistakes about our investments. It is better to do that, in our judgment than, to sit around whittling sticks and telling interesting stories ten years from now of what you could have done.

Home For Girls

Miss Laura Jones, a solicitor for the Mande B. Booth home for working girls located at No. 12 E. 7th St. Portland, was soliciting in Estacada on Friday. The home cost $8000.00 and $3500.00 was paid cash. They are endeavoring to raise the balance by public subscription. Girls can be accommodated with board and room here for three dollars per week. She was successful in her efforts here and thanks the contributors for their generosity.

Arrest Deer Hunters Who Use Dogs

Persistent reports from all over the state have reached the office of Game Warden William S. Finley, to the effect that the laws prohibiting the hunting of deer with hounds are being violated. At the present time, deputies are hastening to the various grounds where deer are known to gather, with explicit instructions to arrest such violators and prosecute them to the full extent of the law. Mr. Finley states that he will overlook no opportunity to punish deer hunters who use hounds or other dogs for the pursuit of deer, as the extinction of this animal is assured unless strenuous measures are adopted immediately.

Work Fast Nearing Completion

The River Mill power site will be completed on time, notwithstanding the accidental fire which burned the cable towers put the construction company to expense and inconvenience. The way managers of large construction work accomplish this is well illustrated in this case. The work is under contract to be completed Oct. 1st.

While the fire still burned orders were given for the lumber for new towers. The foremen were instructed to put to work on their reconstruction every available man regardless of the expense. Men were at once started to build other temporary means of getting the concrete from the mixers to the place where it was used. This required troughs to run the mixed concrete in, and car tracks, as well as the use of wagons. But the work kept on. Now the work is going forward as if no such accident had happened. "To be finished by October 1st" is the only slogan they seem to know.

Packing Plant For Estacada

W. Ellison, of Cleone, Ore., has been in this vicinity for the past two weeks looking up the advisability of establishing a branch of his green prune packing establishment here. He has determined that it would pay to do so and has leased from the railroad company a piece of land 100x100 feet back of the wood working plant for a term of five years for the packing plant. The building will be at present 30x50 feet and will be erected at once. Mr. Ellison informs us that it is no new business with him. He has been in the business of shipping prunes to all points in the East by refrigerator cars for a number of years. He says that when he went to Cleone there were several dryers there and they have gone out of business since. He says he will buy the orchards in bulk or the fruit in small or large quantities delivered at the packing plant. During the season here he expects to ship three car load a day. He will employ here from 30 to 50 packers, so he informs us. His "ad" appears in another portion of this paper.

Liquor License Causes Trouble

The City Council seemingly are in a muddle to know where they are at. The people by their votes said they desire to have liquor license. The newly elected Council when they came in found the liquor license ordinance a very cumbersome instrument. In their haste to remedy it they simply amended the old ordinance, which simply added to its cumbersomeness. It will afford good scrapping ground as long as it remains a part of the records, in our judgement and give it as our opinion that it would look much better in a bonfire with a new one in it's stead.

A license was granted at a meeting last week to Wm. Kuhrasch and on the authority of a councilman they did not know if it was granted under the $1,500 ordinance as amended or the old ordinance, which requires $2,000 and the requirements of its provisions were, at the time it was passed, considered prohibitive, which in reality it was.

Mr. Kuhrasch has been busy arranging his place to open up for business. The license question has been the cause of a lot of trouble in our city and is yet likely to be so.

All kinds of lumber and building material. Planing mill, Hamlin & Darling.

J. R. Cassady painted a sign for O. R. Jacobs' plumbing establishment this week.

Mrs. Al. Close, of Vancouver, Wash., is spending this week with her father R. A. Wilcox in Springwater.

Fat cattle wanted; the fatter the better.—See Fred Jorg.

Mrs. C. T. McPherson, with her two little daughters, and Miss Ryan of Portland were guests of Estacada friends from Tuesday to Thursday of this week.

Anyone wanting photographs from negatives taken at Estacada by Richards & Co. please address 1747 E. 21st St., Portland, Ore.

Buy it now. Now is the time to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed before the summer is over. This remedy has no superior, for sale by all good dealers.

Chas. Dubois has broken ground for his Estacada residence. Asa Hawkins has the contract for digging out the basement and is busily engaged at it. Mr. Dubois expects to erect a fine residence for a home.

L. E. Belfils informs us that the booklets for the Estacada and Garfield "booster" are in press and will soon be ready. He has started to make collections from the subscribers so that the same may be on hand when the advertising matter is ready.

Window screens made to order. Hamlin & Darling, planing mill.

President Jellison of the Estacada State Bank with his wife, his daughters, and grand-daughter were Estacada visitors on Wednesday. They came by auto and find it a delightful trip from Portland.
