DOINGS OF THE WEEK

Current Events of Interest Gathered From the World at Large.

General Resume of Important Events Presented In Condensed Form for Our Busy Readers.

the interior, is dead.

A Turkish Pasha has refused a cab-

Mme. Nordica made a speech from her automobile in San Francisco, favoring votes for women for ornamental purposes at the famous grave complications, has agreed to watering place of Teplitz, Germany. watering place of Teplitz, Germany. The Portuguese parliament has been

An Alaska steamer arrived at Seattle with a flock of ptarmigan on board. The birds were blown to sea Tripoli. by a violent storm and took refuge

The government will offer for sale visions at auction in Seattle ten "buffalo" The overcoats which have been stored cials and the crew of a torpedo boat there for years. A minimum price of destroyer which surrendered at Tripoli. $25 each has been set for the garments, but they are expected to bring TURKEY IS SUING FOR PEACE

A Lewiston Junction man, convicted of receiving stolen wheat, got tired waiting for the guards who were to take him to the pen, and with his commitment in his pocket bought his own ticket and boarded the train for Walla Walla to serve his time.

The War department is to give spe cial attention to making coast defense

Albert Leon, a Russian Jew, was captured in New York as he was about to sail for South America. He is believed to be one of the most dangerous counterfeiters ever known, and the di Medua. The Turkish versions min-Pacific Coast is said to be flooded with bad $10 bills by him and his gang.

The Italian flag now floats over the forts of Tripoli.

Looters of bodies at Austin, Pa., are being shot on sight by the military Stores are being reopened for business at Austin, Pa.

Troops throughout the state of Mississippi are held in readiness to quell any strike disturbances. Striking railroad men at New Orleans attacked a force of strikebreakers and many were badly injured. Italy plans to bring the war with Turkey to a quick finish by an imposing show of strength in Africa. Bills of $30,000 for beer and cigars are a part of the campaign expenses of Senator Stephenson, of Wisconsin.

PORTLAND MARKETS.

Wheat—Export basis: Bluestem 83@84c; club, 79@80c; red Russian, valley, 79@80c; 40-fold, 80c. Millstuffs - Bran, $24.50@25 per ton; middlings, $32, shorts, $25.50@ rolled barley, $33,50@34.50. Corn-Whole, $33: cracked, $34 per Barley - New feed, $31@32 per ton; brewing, $37.

Oats-No. 1 white, $29.50 per ton Hay-No. 1 Eastern Oregon tim-othy, $16@17.50; No. 1 valley, $15@

15.50; alfalfa, $12.50; clover, $9; grain hay, $100010.50. Poultry-Hens, 14@141c; springs, 14@14ic; ducks, young, 15@16ic; geese, 11@12c; turkeys, 18@22c.

Butter - Oregon creamery, solid pack, 33c; prints, extra.

Eggs-Fresh Oregon ranch, candled, 3@34c per dozen.

Pork-Fancy, 10@11c per pound. Veal-Fancy, 1310014c per pound, Fresh Fruits-Peaches, 50@75c per box; plums, 50@75c per crate; prunes, 2@21c per pound; pears, $1@ 2 per box; grapes, 50c@$1.10 per box; apples, $1@2.50 box; huckleberries, 64@74c per pound; cranber-Potatoes Oregon, 11c per pound sweet potatoes, 210021c per pound. Onions-California, $1.50 per hun-

Vegetables - Artichokes, 75c per dozen; beans, 5@10c; cabbage, f@11c per pound; cauliflower, 75c@$1.25 per dozen; corn, 25@30c per dozen; cacumbers, $1601.25 per sack; eggplant, 5@8c pound; garlic, 10@12c pound; lettuce, 40@50c per dozen; hothouse lettuce, $1.25aa1.75 per box; peppers, 6006c per pound; radishes, 121c per toes, 5062.75c per box; carrots, $1.25 lough, which communicated with the place of multi-millionaires and com- basis. The National Lumber Manudozen; sprouts, 8c per pound; tomaper sack; turnips, $1; beets, $1.75.

pound, according to shrinkage; val- side, damaging her upper works. ley, 156117c; mohair, choice, 3561

Cattle - Choice steers, $5,35@5,45: good, $5@5.25; fair, $4.75@5; medium, $4.50@4.75; poor, $3.75@4.50; in which several shots were fired, choice cows, $4.30@4.70; fair, $4@ Frank Dougherty and Martin Glinn, 4.15; common, $2.50@3.50; extra alleged highwaymen, were captured bulls, $3.25@3.50; good, $2.75@3; land, Or., of $400 in gold. $2@2.50; $7.15@7.25; good, $7@7.15; com-mon, $4@5; choice stags, $4.50@ forced him to surrender his valu-rorizing the states of Morelos, Puebla since the strike was begun. 4.75; good, $4.25@4.50.

Hogs-Choice light hogs, $7.2562 80; good to choice, $7@7.25; fair, $6.75@7; common, $6@6.50.

Sheep - Choice yearling wethers, tables and other psychical manifestawool, $3.25@3.40; choice yearling wethers, east of mountains, $3,10@3.25; choice twos and threes, sociation of the United States, which informs the government that he sent the treasury department. The total $2.85@3.05; choice lambs, $4.25@ began here Tuesday. All such manian emissary into Portugal to learn money in circulation amounted to $3,-4.50; choice yearlings, $4.15@4.25; festations will be confined to evening what the royalists were doing. The Believes His Country Should Tripoli to Italy.

Rome-Convinced that the only pos sible way that Turkey could save its Affairs in the new Turkish cabinet. This is the explanation given out by his friends here. It is announced that his colleagues disagreed over the pro-gramme that Rechid Pasha submitted for a settlement with Italy.

Demonstrations in honor of King Victor Emmanuel as he proceeded from San Rossore to Naples for farewell to the troops embarking for Cornelius N. Bliss, ex-secretary of Tripoli indicate that the war continues popular.

Most of the bishops have directed inet seat because Turkey will not cede the clergy to urge their congregations to pray for the success of the Italian

It is understood here that the pow ers will make representations at Con-stantinople, notifying Turkey that Oregon dogwood trees will be used Itay, with a view to avoiding very

A circular note from the Turkish government asking the powers whether called in extra session to dispose of they consider that the time has arrived the Monarchist prisoners captured in to seek a basis for negotiations looking to peace between Turkey and The campaign managers for Senator Italy, and under what conditions, has Stephenson, of Wisconsin, say they considered $107,000 a very reasonable office at Berlin. The note contemexpense bill for the election of a sena- plates the cession of Tripoli to Italy under certain conditions.

The Italian torpedo boat destroyer Borea arrived at Malta escorting steamship with prisoners of war from

The British officials decided to re fuse the Italian vessel a supply of pro-

The prisoners included Turkish offi-

Italy to Increase Terms If War Is Prolonged.

London-Most of the correspondents are united in the opinion that Turkey is renewing her efforts to secure peace, but they differ as to the procedure to be followed-whether by ar bitration through an European con ference or by other means. from Rome are that if hostilities are prolonged Italy will insist upon a heavy indemnity.

Italian reports tell of the sinking imize the affair.

The Chronicle's Constantinople correspondent says that there is great activity on the part of the Italian warships throughout the archipelago and been greatly exaggerated. in the Ionian and Red seas. It is believed their intention is to block the Dardanelles.

tion throughout the Turkish dominions mother. of an energetic spirit in favor of a people pray constantly for peace.

ington to use his influence for peace. The ambassador will have an interview with Said Pasha. Russia is joining with the United States in this and Braganza, where the garrisons are concession to Italy.

who dynamited the "bridge of death," on the Interocean railroad near Axo- alist conspiracy. freight train that was following the ernment soldiers. passenger train, caused a wreck in which the fireman and a train boy were killed and 15 passengers injured. The passengers had been lined up alongside the train and stripped of their valuables when the freight train thundered around the curve and crashed into the rear of the passenger

Debate Equal Suffrage.

San Francisco — Dr. Charles F. Aked, former pastor of John D. Rockefeller's church in New York, and Colonel John P. Irish met in formal debate in Valencia theater Monday night to settle, publicly, once and for The audience, which had filled every ong before the debate began, followheavy-weight ringside.

Steamer is Beaten Back

San Francisco - The Pacific Mail steamer City of Panama, which sailed from San Francisco for Ancon on September 29, is slowly steaming back to vices reaching this city from the United States revenue cutter McCul-Panama off Point Lomond, were that - 1911 crop, 32@33½c; olds, the 70 passengers and crew are in no

Thieves Chased By Auto.

San Francisco - After an exciting chase of four blocks in an automobile, spayed heifers, $4.40@4.60; by the police early Monday, after they heifers, $4.25@4.40; choice had robbed Conrad Messner of Portchoice calves, was confronted by two masked men

Delegates Bar Spooks.

St. Louis-Spirit rappings, dancing tions are barred in the annual meetings of the National Spiritualists' as-government from disgrace was to cede Tripoli to Italy, Rechid Pasha refused to accept the portfolio of Foreign Restore Portugese King.

ROYALISTS ARE BUSY

Republican Troops Surrounded and Government Admits Situation Becoming Grave.

ing to put Manuel back on the throne, early Saturday morning surrounded Parliament is expected to meet and cut off the retreat of Republican early in November and finish its busitroops near Vinhaes, 17 miles west of ness before Christmas.

battle between the opposing forces is be Finance minister in the Borden expected. Both sides have been rein- cabinet. forced during the last few hours, it is | Premier Hazen, of New Brunswick republic outside the capital is very ter of mines for Ontario; Andrew town 45 miles east of the Braga, and that Captain Couciere will have 30,-000 men behind him when he invests

LAURIER FORCES RESIGN.

New Canadian Minister Takes Charge of Administration.

Ottawa, Ont .- The last meeting of the Laurier governent was held Friday. The resignations of the ministers will be tendered to Earl Grey Sat-urday and R. L. Borden will be invited to form a government. He may have his slate ready and begin at once as Sir Wilfrid Laurier did in 1906. Lisbon, Portugal-Royalists, fight- Bye-elections will be held as soon as Bragasza, according to a report which has reached this city.

Details are lacking, but a fierce tional Trust company of Ontario, will nderstood. A. S. Goodeve, M. P., of British Col;

There have been no disturbances in umbia; Senator Loughred, of Alberta; Lisbon during the last day or two. Dr. Roche, M. P., of Manitoba.; Rob-The Portuguese government no longer ert Rogers, Manitoba's minister of apocalyptical splendors, denies, however, the situation in the public works; Fred Cochrane, minis-

EX-KING MANUEL, OF PORTUGAL, WHOM ROYALISTS ARE TRYING TO RE-INSTATE.

uel was in Spain, presumably ardanelles.

Reports are current that Said Pasha be without foundation, as information certain to have portfolios. will resign and Kaimil Pasha become came direct from London that Manuel grand vizier. There is every indica- is still at Richmond with the queer Dispatches from Madrid, Spain, say holy war, but in Constantinople the that Portuguese Royalists concentrated at Puebla de Sanabria, province of According to the correspondent, the American ambassador, W. W. Rock-least of Braganza, Portugal, have Italian warships are bombarding Benhill, has been instructed from Wash- formed into three columns under the command of Captain Couciere, Senor Camacho Canavarro and Homen Cristo. Their first objectives are Chaves reported to have pronounced in favor landing parties. Part of the fleet is to sail on the morrow, Heard the voices of men through the Turkey has sent another note to the of the monarchy and courtmartialed a powers asking for intervention and few officers who held contrary opinoffering to grant every reasonable ions. The monarchists now say the entire population in North Portugal ommon cause with them.

The government is maintaining a Mexico City—The band of Zapatists close scrutiny of Oporto, which is ho dynamited the "bridge of death," looked upon as the hotbed of the Roychiapam, in Puebla recently, held up spirited fighting between the Republiand robbed the passenger train from can troops and Monarchists took place Attencingo and by refusing to permit Saturday, in which many of Manuel's the trainmen to go back and flag a partisans were fired upon by the gov

6,000 Carry Manuel's Flag.

Badajos, Spain (on the Portuguese frontier) - The Portuguese government admits that Royalist disturbances are in progress in Northern Portugal, near the Spanish frontier. It is asserted that 6,000 men are following the white and blue flag of the deposed King Manuel. It is also said the Royalists engaged and defeat-

Seattle - The battleship Oregon, navy yard six years undergoing reconthe same entuhsiasm as is found at a Her new fire control system, wireless the young men for several days. apparatus and other equipment, that was unheard-of when she made her notable trip around the Horn, will be given a thorough try-out.

Babes Come to Pasadena. this port in a damaged condition. Ad- an end. No longer is the finger of Wool-Eastern Oregon, 9@16c per that a big sea struck the vessel broad- in private homes. Fifteen of the 16 the stock on hand at the mills. hospital arrivals are girls. Local doctors who have been working over-time say there is some fear of an over pro-

200 Rebels Put In Jail.

Mexico City. - General Ambrosio lapa, Guerrero, captured 200 Zapaand Guerrero for months. law is being discussed for Chiapas where two governments exist with separate capitals.

Spaniard Finds No Trouble. good to choice lambs, $4@4.15; culls, meetings, the daytime being given en-$2.50@3. meetings, the daytime being given en-tirely to business. meetings, the daytime being given en-reigned. 913,634.

grave, although asserting that reports Broder, M. P., of Dundas, Ont.; concerning royalist rampages have George E. Foster, ex-finance minister; Judge Doherty, of St. Annes, Mon It was reported that ex-King Man- treal; T. Chase Casgrain and F. D. on his Monk, of Montreal, are practically

ITALIANS OCCUPY TRIPOLI.

Portions of Fleet Proceed to Bom bard Other Turkish Ports.

London-The Chronicle's Constantighazi and Derna and that the former is vigorously returning the fire.

The Italian flag floats over Sultania fort at Tripoli which is occupied by anchored in the harbor and the other

According to a Constantinople re-Benghazi and Derna.

Rumors of a naval engagement in Turkish waters, of an attack against Mytilene and of the blowing up of the Italian battleship Conte di Caviour at Tripoli have not been confirmed from any quarter.

A report is current from Constantinople that while Germany favors the adoption of the Italian ultimatum as the basis of peace negotiations, Great Britain proposes that Tripoli shall be-come a privileged tributary Turkish under joint Turkish-Italian administration, thus retaining the su zerainty of the Sultan.

Youths Dead on Shasta.

Sisson, Cal.-At the bottom of the narrow box canyon on the east slope of Mount Shasta, the bodies of Harry Mapes and Herbert Barr, two 19-yearwhich has been at the Puget Sound old boys, who were lost in a snow storm a week ago, were found Friday all, the virtue and general worth of struction, will leave here October 24 by Matt Kolen, a veteran mountain amendment No. 8 for equal suffrage. fleet for annual inspection. While at ies were found was a hunters' camp nook and corner of the big theater Los Angeles the famous old battleship, established by the two victims shortly will undergo exhaustive tests to ascer- before they were lost in the storm. ed every thrust and parry with about tain her effectiveness for war duty. More than 100 men were searching for Lumber Business Better.

Tacoma-Reports from lumber manufacturers in 24 states received at the office of Manager Leonard Bronson, of the National Lumber Manufacturers Pasadena, Cal. - The much-adver- association, indicate that the lumber tised lack of births in Pasadena is at output is but 31 per cent greater than the shipments, which, according to Manager Bronson, means the lumber scorn to be pointed at this abiding- industry is returning to its proper mon millionaires. During the last 48 | facturers' association three months hours there were recorded 16 births at ago began to gather statistics concernthe Pasadena hospital, besides a dozen ing the lumber cut, the shipments and End of Strike is Forecast.

Los Angeles-"The strike will be within 30 days; trains are behind time, engines need repairs, and no competent men can be had to fill our places," was the statement issued Figueora, in a bloodless battle at Chi- here by the strikers' publicity committee of the Harriman employes. Superintendent Platt, of the southern pancingo. He believes he has thus division of the system said conditions effectively broken the strength of Za-were satisfactory and that more men

Per Capita Cash $34.35.

Washington, D. C.-Each citizen of the United States, under an equal di-vision, would have $34.35, the per capita circulation on October 2, ac-Madrid-The governor of Pontevedra | cording to the circulation statement of

The Courtship of Miles Standish

With Illustrations by Howard Chandler Christy and mist of the evening.

the redoubtable Captain martial pages of Caesar.

Soon he entered his door, and found

Long have you been on your errand, swer, and fears not the issue to me all that has happened."

Then John Alden spake, and related

From beginning to end, minutely, just

How he had seen Priscilla, and how he had sped in his courtship.

Only smoothing a little, and softening

But when he came at length to the words Priscilla had spoken,

woods are between us;

and demolished a city.

the wondrous adventure,

as it happened;

down her refusal.

(Copyright, The Bobbs-Merrill Company)

John Alden Sitting alone, and absorbed in the Into the open air John Alden, perplexed and bewildered, shed like a man insane, and wan dered alone by the sea-side; aced up and down the sands, and bared his head to the east wind, Cooling his heated brow, and the fire and fever within him. wly as out of the heavens, with

of John the Apostle,

So, with its cloudy walls of chrysolite, jasper, and sapphire. Sank the broad red sun, and over its turrets uplifted Glimmered the golden reed of the angel who measured the city. "Welcome, O wind of the East!" h exclaimed in his wild exultation. Welcome, O wind of the East, from the caves of the misty Atlantic! Blowing o'er fields of dulse, and measureless meadows of sea-

Blowing o'er rocky wastes, and the grottos and gardens of ocean! Lay thy cold, moist hand on my burning forehead, and wrap me Close in thy garments of mist, to al lay the fever within me!"

Like an awakened conscience, the sea was moaning and tossing, Beating remorseful and loud the mu table sands of the sea-shore. Fierce in his soul was the struggle and tumult of passions contend-Love triumphant and crowned, and friendship wounded and bleeding, Passionate cries of desire, and importunate pleadings of duty!

"Is it my fault," he said, "that the maiden has chosen between us? Is it my fault that he falled,-my fault that I am the victor?" Then within him there thundered a voice, like the voice of the

"It hath displeased the Lord!"-and he thought of David's transgres-Bathsheba's beautiful face, and his friend in the front of the battle! Shame and confusion of guilt, and abasement and self-condemnation, Overwhelmed him at once; and he cried in the deepest contrition: "It hath displeased the Lord! It is the temptation of Satan!'

Then uplifting his head, he looked at the sea, and beheld there Dimly the shadowy form of the May flower riding at anchor, Rocked on the rising tide, and ready mist, the rattle of cordage Thrown on the deck, the shouts of the mate, and the sailors' "Aye, aye,

Clear and distinct, but not loud, in the dripping air of the twilight. Still for a moment he stood, and listened, and stared at the vessel, Then went hurriedly on, as one who, seeing a phantom. Stops, then quickens his pace, follows the beckoning shadow, Yes, it is plain to me now," he mur mured; "the hand of the Lord is Leading me out of the land of darkness, the bondage of error, Through the sea, that shall lift the walls of its waters around me. Hiding me, cutting me off, from the cruel thoughts that pursue me Back will I go o'er the ocean, this dreary land will abandon, Her whom I may not love, and him whom my heart has offended. Better to be in my grave in the greet old churchyard in England, Close by my mother's side, and among Buckled the Belt 'Round His Waist.

ing in shame and dishonor! Sacred and safe and unseen, in the dark of the narrow chamber With me my secret shall die, like i buried jewel that glimmers

Bright on the hand that is dust, in the chambers of silence and dark-Yes, as the marriage ring of the great espousal hereafter!"

Thus as he spake, he turned, in the strength of his strong resolution. Leaving behind him the shore, and hurried along in the twilight Through the congenial gloom of the forest silent and somber. Till he beheld the lights in the seven houses of Plymouth. Shining like seven stars in the dusk Meanwhile the choleric Captain strode wrathful away to the coun

Found it already assembled, impatiently waiting his coming; Men in the middle of life, austere and grave in deportment, Only one of them old, the hill that was nearest to heaven, vered with snow, but erect, the excellent Elder of Plymouth. God had sifted three kingdoms to find the wheat for this planting, Then had sifted the wheat, as the living seed of a nation;

say the chronicles old, and such is the faith of the people! Near them was standing an Indian, in attitude stern and deflant, Naked down to the waist, and grim and feroclous in aspect: While on the table before them was lying unopened a Bible, Ponderous, bound in leather, brass studied, printed in Holland,

Fighting some great campaign in Hainaut or Brabant or Flanders. And beside it outstretched the skin of a rattlesnake glittered. Filled, like a quiver, with arrows; signal and challenge of warfare, he said with a cheery demeanor, Brought by the Indian, and speaking with arrowy tongues of deflance

Not far off is the house, although the This Miles Standish beheld, as he entered, and heard them debating What were an answer befitting the But you have lingered so long, that while you were going and coming hostile message and menace, have fought ten battles and sacked Talking of this and of that, contriving, suggesting, objecting; come, sit down, and in order relate

One voice only for peace, and that the voice of the Elder, Judging it wise and well that some at least were converted, Rather than any were slain, for this was but Christian behavior! Then outspoke Miles Standish, the stalwart Captain of Plymouth, Muttering deep in his throat, for his voice was husky with anger: "What! do you mean to make war with milk and the water of roses! Is it to shoot red squirrels you have

Winding His Sinuous Way.

Words so tender and cruel: "Why ! your howitzer planted There on the roof of the church, or don't you speak for yourself, is it to shoot red devils? Up leaped the Captain of Plymouth Truly the only tongue that is understood by a savage

the other Apostles:

on the Captain.

ture.

the tongues of fire they spake

thus continued discoursing:

by right it pertaineth.

cause that is righteous.

Leave this matter to me, for to me

Sweet is the smell of powder; and Then from the rattlesnake's skip

Jerking the Indian arrows, he filled

Full to the very jaws, and handed it

Saying, in thundering tones: "Here

take it! this is your answer!'

Silently out of the room then glided

Bearing the serpent's skin, and seem-

Winding his sinuous way in the dark

A Cincinnati drummer happened to be put at a table at Columbus with a number of legislators, and the courtly other greatly bored the commercial traveler. It was: "Will the gentleman from Hardin do this?" and "the gen invariably spoke to each other as the gentleman from whatever county they

For 10 or 15 minutes the drum;

Then he suddenly crushed the states men by singing out in stentorian tone to the waiter: "Will the gentleman

That ended the "gentleman from"

from Ethiopia please pass the butter!

way in which they addressed leman from Franklin do that?"

appened to hall from.

bore it in silence.

ing himself like a serpent, to the depths of the forest.

it with powder and bullets

back to the savage,

the glistening savage.

with a sudden, contemptuous ges

thus I answer the challenge!

and stamped on the floor, till his Must be the tongue of fire that speaks armor Clanged on the wall, where it hung from the mouth of the cannon! Thereupon answered and said the exwith a sound of sinister omen. cellent Elder of Plymouth, All his pent-up wrath burst forth in somewhat amazed and alarmed at sudden explosion. this irreverent language:

Even as a hand-grenade, that scat 'Not so thought Saint Paul, nor yet ters destruction around it. Wildly he shouted, and loud: "John Not from the cannon's mouth were Alden! you have betrayed me! Me, Miles Standish, your friend! have supplanted, defrauded, betrayed But unheeded fell this mild rebuke

Who had advanced to the table, and through the heart of Wat Tyler; Who shall prevent me from running my own through the heart of a War is a terrible trade; but in the traitor? Yours is the greater treason, for yours is a treason to friendship! You, who lived under my roof, whom cherished and loved as

You, who have fed at my board, and drunk at my cup, to whose keephave intrusted my honor, my cret .-You, too, Brutus! ah, woe to the name of friendship hereafter! Brutus was Caesar's friend, and you were mine, but henceforward Let there be nothing between us save war, and implacable hatred!'

thoughts the most sacred and se-

So spake the Captain of Plymouth, as he strode about in the cham Chafing and choking with rage; like cords were the veins on his tem-

But in the midst of his anger a man appeared at the doorway, Bringing in uttermost haste a mes sage of urgent importance, Rumors of danger and war and hostile incursions of Indians!

without further question or par Took from the nall on the wall his sword with its scabbard of iron Buckled the belt round his waist, and, frowning flercely, departed. Alden was left alone. He heard the Straightway the Captain paused, and, clank of the scabbard Growing fainter and fainter, and dying away in the distance Then he arose from his seat, and looked forth into the darkness, Felt the cool air blow on his cheek, that was hot with the insult. Lifted his eyes to the heavens, and, folding his hands as in childhood, Prayed in the silence of night to the Father who seeth in secret.

business.—Rehoboth Sunday Herald. "I suppose those garden seeds sent saved you quite a little money." said the affable statesman.

"No," replied Mr. Growcher, "1 hadn't the heart to waste 'em and the result is that I'm in debt for garden implements."