A party of surveyors were running a line at Barton, on Tuesday, and in the absence of surveying instruments were using a gun to sight over. A young man who was carrying the gun, not knowing that it was loaded, raised the hammer and snapped it and the man in front of him received a wound in the shoulder. Word was sent to Estacada for a doctor. It proved not to be a serious, but a flesh wound only.

VIOLA

The citizens of Viola have had a good many current events in the past week. Mr. Smith LaCroy was taken seriously ill at his home. The fore part of the week he was removed by relatives to a Portland Hospital.

Mr. Martin, a resident of Silver Lake, is visiting his niece, Mrs. John Mattoon.

The Farmer's Creamery, in which most all of the citizens of this locality are more or less interested, sold almost ten tons of butter last month.

Mr. Will Hicinbothom is constructing a porch for Mr. Randolph's house.

Mr. Thomas Baird Lovelace, a school teacher of the school of Viola, left Saturday to attend a teacher's convention in Oregon City.

A little party was given at the home of Miss Mary Henthorn, Thursday November 16th, in honor of her birthday. About twenty of her little friends were present. Refreshments were served and they took their departure at 10:00 p. m. Many pretty presents were received, for which Miss Mary thanks you, one and all.

EAGLE CREEK

The new station, Cedarbrook, between Alsbaugh and Eagle Creek, will be quite a convenience for some people.

The Fuchs' brothers are getting the lumber on the ground for a new house. They are enterprising boys and we wish them prosperity and happiness in their new home.

Mrs. J. W. Douglass will move to Estacada in the near future, where her son Carl is attending school.

The general health of our community is excellent although some are afflicted with colds.

Eagle Creek has a new telephone line which is owned by the Progressive Telephone Co. The members are: Johnson, Franklin, Taylor, J. W. Cahill, George White, G. Schupback, J. T. Shults, G. W. Hoxie, John Stidle. Only three phones are in operation viz. Cahill's, Schupback's, and White's. Messrs Taylor and Johnson are property owners here but reside in Portland, Central office is Estacada, of course.

Were you listening for the wedding bells? Who next?

Yes, our roads are not so good as they were in places, but when we consider the loads of wood, potatoes, grain, etc., that are being hauled to Eagle Creek, Cedarbrook and Alsbaugh, we do not wonder at the change.

Patronize your home merchants.

Would you consider a trade or exchange for any of your land? We have had a number of parties from Portland and elsewhere who have wanted to purchase land in this country, but wish to take out all or part of same in trade for Portland property, houses etc. Notify us at once if you will consider trade for any of your land.—Standish Brothers.
