INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT OF THE STATE

APPLE DAY PLANS MADE.

Hood River Entertains Lavishly the Chicago Man Says Agriculturists Are First Week of May.

Hood River-With the Commercial tle apple city is planning to entertain hundreds of guests which are expected and 400 persons all of whom were Two motor here during the first week of May, when the orchards are in full blossom. From present indications the blossoms the state." From present indications the block week will be in full bloom by the first week of May and there will be more of them than ever before. "Although the colonist season is it sank within invertible in the season is it sank within invertible in the increase." "Although the colonist season is it sank within invertible in the season is its sank within its sank meet the visitors at the station and circulated and had attracted a great give them excursions through the amount of attention, he did not be-orchards.

BEE EXHIBITS FOR FAIR.

Cash Prizes Will Be Givan for Best State Fair Exhibits.

letter. Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis-In a letter from Secretary Frank Meredith, of the State Board of Agriculture, in charge of the state fair exhibits, to Prof. H. F. Wilson, of the entomology department at the Oregon Agricultural college, a list of for the prizes have been secured.

The entries will close September 1, and the entry fees have been fixed at some of these options may be on lands m. September 2, and it has been decreed that all exhibits must have been look into the matter. produced in the apiary of the exhibitor during the year 1912.

hibits from within the state of Ore- take them up and the understanding only two exhibits. The honey must be delayed indefinitely. be pure nectar, sugar or syrup honey being barred, and the judges will open the packages to satisfy themselves on this point. Sections less than threefourths full will also be barred.

EUGENE-COOS LINE RUSHED.

Grade Work Westward Will Be Commenced This Week.

Eugene-Upon the arrival of four carloads of mules, Fuller & Company, sub-contractors on the Southern Pasettling of weather this spring. Pow-er graders will be put to work as soon especially in Eastern Oregon, but as possible.

Many Have Narrow Escapes and Livestock is Abandoned. St. Louis-Thousands of flood spectators witnessed the thrilling rescue OREGON GOAL OF MANY. of a family of seven, from a sinking houseboat in the swirling currents of the Mississippi River here. Coming Here to Live. A houseboat in which a man, his

Portland-"In the 13 cars on the wife and five children lived, was torn Club, Automobile Club and business train by which I came into Oregon," from its moorings by driftwood that organizations of the city exerting ev-ery effort to make the occasion the biggest of its kind that the Hood Riv-who has come to Portland to establish er Valley has ever witnessed, the lit- himself in business, at the Commer- en snags, stove in its bottom and be-

FLOODS LEAP LEVEES.

and 400 persons, all of whom were bound for Portland or other cities of Two motorboats rushed to the rescu the water was sweeping over the deck. "Although the colonist season is It sank within five minutes after the toward Oregon was on the increase, rise of 4.10 feet in 24 hours. This The board of directors of the Com-mercial Club have settled on definite plans. Letters have been written to the O.-W. R. & N., North Bank, and river boat line officials, asking their co-operation. It is planned to have special trains run from Portland. Members of the Automobile Club will merce the visitors at the station and big state had been widely Mr. Kimball said that had been widely inverted at the station and big state had been widely constructions at the station and big state had been widely merce the visitors at the station and big state had been widely constructions at the station and big state had been widely constructions at the station and big state had been widely constructions at the station and big state had been widely constructions at the station and big state had been widely constructions at the station and big state had been widely constructions at the station and big state had been widely constructions at the station and big state had been widely constructions in the floaded district at the floaded district at the station and big state had been widely constructions in the floaded district at the state base been by the floaded district at the state base been with the floaded district at the state base been and big state had been widely constructions in the floaded district at the state base been by the floaded district at the state base been by the floaded district at the state base been by the floaded district at the state base been by the state base been by the floaded district at the state base been by the state base been by the floaded by the flo lieve that it had had the effect of de-terring many immigrants from com-ing, unless it might have been a few Gairo and although the city proper can who are members or sympathizers of stand several feet more, anxiety is the unions. The agricultural class of felt for the levees above and below immigrants apparently ignored the the mouth of the Ohio. The Drinkwater levee on the Mississippi side has broken, despite the efforts of more than 1,000 men, and the water is sweeping over a three-mile stretch of levee and flooding the Land Agent's Suspicions Delay Operasoutheastern section of Missouri.

tion of Hawley Bill. When it became apparent that the Washington, D. C .- A new obstacle levee could not be saved the workmen twenty-three cash prizes amounting to about $110.00, to be offered at the coming State Fair for exhibits in api-under the Hawley bill. Chief of Spe-many lives. Farmers and their famculture. It is through the efforts of the State Beekeepers' association that space for the exhibits and the funds that he "thinks" he has found evi-hogs are floating toward the Gulf.

dence that options have been given on some Siletz lands and that "possibly" Drinkwater district all day Sunday. ten per cent of the first premium. affected by the Hawley bill. He has caught between the Bard's Point and The exhibits must be in place by 6 a. suggested the advisability of delaying Charleston floods and the passengers issuance of the patents while he can look into the matter. had to be taken off in boats. All traffic between Cairo and Charleston, young woman had him at a disad Sharp also reports that he does not Ky., has been annulled.

know whether those who are supposed Premiums will be restricted to ex- to have offered options are prepared to PATENTS HELD UP.

here is that land agents may have un-No premiums will be paid unless there is competition, and none will be awarded where the exhibits are not individually worthy. The judge will accepted. If the Interior department in no case give first prize to a second grade product, even though there are of patents under the Hawley bill may

FISH TO BE PLANTED.

Many Mountain Streams To Be Filled

With Brook Trout. With Brook Trout. Pendleton — State Fish and Game Commissioner Cranston has received a Letter from George W. Bowers, com-issioner of fisheries, department of commerce and labor, Washington, D. c., saying that in his opinion the spring-fed mountain streams and lakes of Oregon are adapted to the cultiva-tion of the brock trout (Salvelinus, the cultiva-bin areached a point 150 miles from ing. It was clear that had the ex-of the proof the proof the proof the cultiva-plorer delayed sending back notifica-good, that he can't be any good or his sound showed that on cultiva-plorer delayed sending back notifica-tion of the brock trout (Salvelinus, the plorer delayed sending back notifica-tion of the brock trout (Salvelinus, the plorer delayed sending back notifica-tion of the brock trout (Salvelinus, the plorer delayed sending back notifica-tion of the brock trout (Salvelinus, the plorer delayed sending back notifica-tion of the brock trout (Salvelinus, the plorer delayed sending back notifica-tion of the brock trout (Salvelinus, the plorer delayed sending back notifica-plorer delayed sending back notifica-good, that he can't be any good or his what they didn't say! I never realcific line to Coos Bay, began grading tion of the brook trout (Salvelinus tion of his progress until he actually operations westward from Eugene. fontinalis), and that the introduction reached the Pole, word from him could This company has had perhaps 200 of this species in such waters may be not have been received by the Terra undertaken with reasonable assurance Nova before she was compelled to of way all winter, clearing the land ready for the grading work with the settling of weather this spring. Pow-300 CHILDREN RETURN.

Twohy Bros., contractors, have come a little doubtful as to the wis- Lawrence Textile Workers Hold Cel-

SYNOPSIS.

Howard Jeffries, banker's Alicia in umstances, macy with social high character an He cannot make good. Howard calls his apartments in an intextacted cond tion to request a loan of £,000 to enable him to take up a business proposition Underwood tells him he is in debt up to his eyes. Howard drikks himself into a maudin condition, and goes to sleep on a diverse of the second draws a screen around the drunken size wood draws a screen around the drunken specer. Alicia enters. She demands a promise from Underwood that he will not take his life. He refuses unleas the will and takes her leave. Underwood dia wakens Howard. He hinds underwood the platel awakens Howard is met by Underwood's valet. Howard is turked over to the police. Capt. Clinton, n.torious for his brutal treatment of prisoners, puts Howard through the third degree, and finally gets an aloged corfeesion from the arassed man. Annie, Howard's innocence, and is will clear him. She calls on Jeffries, Sr.

CHAPTER XII .-- Continued.

He halted, looking as if he would like to escape, but there was no way All of egress. This determined-looking vantage.

"I do not think," he said icily, "that there is any subject which can be of mutual interest-"

"Oh, yes, there is," she replied eagerly. She was quick to take advan-tage of this entering wedge into the man's mantle of cold reserve. "Fiesh and blood," she went on earnestly, "is of mutual interest. Your harbor in Bank's peninsula, N. Z. but has not brought back Captain Scott or or not. You've got to hear me. I am She in the members of his expedition. The commander of the Terra Nova brought for him, your son. He's in trouble. Don't desert him at a moment like this. Whatever he may have done to deserve your anger-don't-don't deal that happened. Could I have prehim such a blow. You cannot realize what it means in such a critical situation. Even if you only pretend to be his father, publicly withdraw from his support? Everybody will say he's no the newspapers did the rest. God! "A divo father wouldn't go back on him. You know what the world is. People will condemn him because you condemn him. They won't even give him a hearing. For God's sake, don't go back on him now!" Jeffries contemptuously. Mr. Jeffries turned and walked to-did not see his face, but by the ner-vous twitching of his hands behind he was railroaded to blackmail, and he spoke:

your lawyer, is the man. We want says that somehow he's never been the same since. I-I just loved him Judge Brewster." Mr. Jeffries shrugged his shoulders. because I was strong and he was "I repeat—my son's marriage with weak. I thought I could protect him. the daughter of a man who died in But now this terrible thing has happened, and I find I am powerless. It's too much for me. I can't fight this

She interrupted him. "That was hard luck-nothing but battle alone. Won't you help me, Mr. Jeffries?" she added pleadingly. "Won't you help me?" hard luck. You're not going to make me responsible for that, are you? The banker was thoughtful a min Why, I was only eight years old when ute, then suddenly he turned on her. "Will you consent to a divorce if I agree to help him?" vented it?" Recklessly she went "Well, blame it on me if you want to, but don't hold it up against Howard. She looked at him with dismay There was tragic tenseness in this me. He never would have known it dramatic situation-a father fighting for his son, a woman fighting for her what they didn't say! I never realized I was of so much importance. that." They printed it in scare-head lines. It "A convict's daughter!" said Mr ward the window, and stood there ga-answered hotly. "He kept the squarest

Annie threw up her head. Her pale face was full of determination, as she page. She was not listening to his sarcasm "Not even to say good-by?" she sobbed. "No," replied Mr. Jeffries firmly. "Not even to say good-by."

"But what will he say? What will he think?" she cried.

"He will see it is for the best," an wered the banker. "He himself will thank you for your action."

There was a long silence, broken only by the sound of the girl's sobbing. Finally she said:

"Very well, sir. I'll do as you say." She looked up. Her eyes were dry, the lines about her mouth set and determined. "Now," she said, "what are you going to do for him?"

The banker made a gesture of impatience, as if such considerations were not important.

"I don't know yet," he said, haught-"I shall think the matter over lly. arefully."

Annie was fast losing patience. She was willing to sacrifice herself and give up everything she held dear in life to save the man she loved, but the cold, deliberate, calculating attitude of this unnatural father exasperated her.

"But I want to know," she said, oldly. "I want to consider the matter carefully, too."

"You?' sneered Mr. Jeffries. "Yes, sir," she retorted. "I'm payng dearly for it-with my-with all I have. I want to know just what you're going to give him for it." He was lost in reflection for a moment, then he said, pompously: "I shall furnish the money for the employment of such legal talent as may be necessary. That's as far as I wish to go in the case. It must not be known-I cannot allow it to be known that I am helping him."

"Must not be known?" cried Annie, in astonishment. "You mean you won't stand by him? You'll only just pay for the lawyer?"

The banker nodded:

"That is all I can promise."

She laughed hysterically. "Why," she exclaimed, "I-I could do that myself if I-I tried hard enough."

"I can promise nothing more," replied Mr. Jeffries, coldly.

"But that is not enough," she protested. "I want you to come forward and publicly declare your belief in your son's innocence. I want you to put your arms around him and say to the world: 'My boy is innocent! I know it and I'm going to stand by him.' You won't do that?" Mr. Jeffries shook his head.

"It is impossible." The wife's pent-up gave way. The utter indifference of and face a trial for his life! Is that

The banker made no reply. Snapping her fingers, she went on: "Well, it isn't mine, Mr. Jeffries! I as often as I can, even if I have to justed her vell and with her handker-

"You needn't trouble yourself any chief dried her tear-stained face. Go more, Mr. Jeffries. We shan't need your help. Thank you very much for the interview. It was very kind of you to listen so patiently. Good after ing toward the door, she said:

won't consent to a divorce!

in the world,

jail

Lawrence, Mass - Coming from occasion of a great demonstration in celebration of what the mill workers considered a notable industrial vic-

Lighted Hats in Demand.

City of Mexico Alarmed.

Chicago-An active demand for "in-

State Commissioner Cranston had be-ebration to Greet Tots.

The Iron Mountain trains were CONTINUES QUEST OF POLE.

British Ship Returns, But Explore Remains for Winter.

Wellington, N. Z .- Captain Robert F. Scott's vessel Terra Nova, which carried the British expedition to the Antarctic, has arrived at Akaros, a instead the following brief message from Scott:

"I am in the Antarctic for another tunnel at Noti Pass, and this week this particular variety of trout. The completed the transportation of ten wagon loads of compressor machinery, that the tunnel men may use air drills.

west of Noti Pass are being filed everv few days.

Bumper Crop Expected.

Hood River - Although the Hood

River valley will have a much larger crop of strawberries this year than last, according to estimates of growers and buyers who are already beginning to contract for the crops, the production next year will probably be the valley's greatest output of this fruit. Reports from every part of the valley indicate that a great many plants are being set. Especial ly will a great many new tracts be set in the Upper valley. The fruit there is later, but is of excellent quality.

Land Now Undervalued.

Salem-Declaring that failure uniformly to assess property of the Al-bert C. Hopkins estate in Klamath and Josephine counties has reduced the value of the estate from over $1,000 -000, which it is stated it should be rightly appraised, to $840,581.30, State Treasurer Kay has taken up with County Judge Worden, of Klamath county, the question of a reap praisement on a uniform valuation. The estate is the subject of contro versy because Hopkins is deceased and the state is collecting inheritance tax.

Building for Raising Bugs.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis-An insectary has just been built in the college orchard at O. A. C., for the purpose of studying the life history of a large number of insect pests infesting the orchards, truck gardens, and flower beds of Oregon, with a view to finding the most effective methods of combating them. A long list of experiments have been planned by the entomology department for the coming season

Work on Big Dam Started.

Astoria-The Bidwell-Hayden com pany, to whom was given the contract for building the big dam for the 100,-mission, asking that steps be taken to 000,000 gallon reservoir at the headworks of Astoria's water system, have large operate a rock crusher. The actual construction work will be commenced some modification is advisable. as soon as the camp is completed.

Bridge Over the Grand Ronde.

bright throughout this section. Tem La Grande - Steel for the new peratures have been low for several bridge spanning the Grand Ronde rivweeks. Grain has continued to make er at Riverside park is expected any a good growth, while fruit buds have day. The bridge will be 15 feet in been kept back until there is no dan- treaty establishing a French proteclength and will have a walk on either ger of late frosts. No fall grain was torate over Morocco was signed by the side six feet wide. frozen out. Sultan.

of further experimenting w results thus far obtained have not homes in New York, Philadelphia and been up to his expectations. Mr. Cranother cities, 300 children of textile ston says, however, that since receivoperatives who participated in the reing the above reply to his inquiry he cent strike have returned to Lawrence. Their arrival was made the is making preparations to stock suitable streams with this species.

Nehalem Jetty Favored. Washington, D. C .- Based on the favorable report of the army engineers, the senate committee on comnerce will incorporate into the river and harbor bill an appropriation of As the $100,000 to begin the construction of where Joseph J. Ettor and Arturo the jetties at the entrance of Nehalem Giovennitti, former leaders of the strike, are held awaiting trials on Bay, a project to cost in the aggregate $632,350. The scheme is that the govcharges of being accessories to murder, the marchers burst into deafening ernment pay one-half the cost, the Port of Nehalem the other half. The cheers, ceasing only long enough to sing "The Marseillaise." report is now before the commerce ommittee and will form the basis of favorable action by that committee.

Another New Demonstration Farm.

candescent hats," the first of which ble. Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis-A new location for another the convention of dressmakers, has ly, he said: Central Oregon experiment station is caused a leading electrical company to being selected by President W. J. Kerr, of the Oregon Agricultural col-lege, Prof. H. D. Scudder, of the of the hat. One new design is being from small dry batteries in the crown my department, and Senator C. exposed in the windows. It contains L. Hawley, of the board of regents, tiny orange bulbs about the size and who have gone to look over available shape of small tangerines and con-nected with green wires looped with sites. For the establishment and equipment of the new station a fund orange and other blossoms in decora-$10,000 has been subscribed by the tive fashion. O.-W. R. & N., Oregon Trunk, and private individuals of Portland.

Rail Line to Tap Newport.

Salem - Supplementary articles of American embassy in Mexico City re- clitation." incorporation, which were filed with ported the insurrecto movement in Siletz road, provide for the construction of a railroad from Independence Mexico City. The activity of Zapata uation in this cruel speech. For a mo-forces in Puebla and Vera Cruz leads ment she forgot the Importance of fact and married him?" to Newport. In the original articles the company proposed to build a railroad from the upper dam on the el movement is being directed to the retorted: Luckiamute river to Simpson. Under taking of the city of Vera Cruz to prodirect connection with Yaquina bay on which the insurrectos may receive the West Side. their arms and ammunition.

Hawley to Help Commission.

Salem-In reply to a recent tele-San Francisco-The Philippine Islands and the state of South Dakota were added to the list of site-holders pass through congress a bill prohibit- on the grounds of the 1915 exposition. lines Governor Vessey, of South Dakota, ng the ownership of steamship taken out a donkey engine and two by railroads. Representative Hawley with exposition commissioners from boilers to be used in connection writes that he will so vote unless his state, took precedence in the cerewith their operations. The firm will good and sufficient evidence shall prove monies and immediately after the South Dakota flag had been planted on the reservation selected for their state Pendleton Crops Hopes High.

building, the Philippine commission-Pendleton-Crop prospects continue ers, received a deed to their lot.

Sites at Fair Selected.

Treaty Signed by Sultan.

Paris-A dispatch to the Matin from its Fez correspondent says that a

OII :

his back, she saw that her words had nantly she went on: "If my father's not been without effect. She waited shingle had been up in Wall street in silence for him to say something. and he'd made 50 dishonest millions Presently he turned around, and she you'd forget it next morning, and you'd saw that his face had changed. The welcome me with open arms. But he look of haughty pride had gone. was unfortunate. Why, Billy Delmore had touched the chords of the fawas the best man in the world. He'd ther's heart. Gravely he said: give away the last dollar he had to "Of course you realize that you, a friend. I wish to God he was alive above all others, are responsible for now! He'd help to save your son. I his present position." wouldn't have to come here to ask

She was about to demur, but she checked herself. What did she care Mr. Jeffries shifted uneasily on his what they thought of her? She was feet and looked away. fighting to save her husband, not to "You don't seem to understand." he make the Jeffries family think better said impatiently. "I've completely cut of her. Quickly she answered: him off from the family. It's as if he "Well, all right-I'm responsiblewere dead.'

but don't punish him because of me." She approached nearer and laid her Mr. Jeffries looked at her. hand gently on the banker's arm. Who was this young woman who "Don't say that Mr leffries It's championed so warmly his own son? wicked to say that about your own She was his wife, of course. But wives She was his wife, of course. But wives of a certain kind are quick to desert he's been so good to me. Ah, if you their husbands when they are in trouonly knew how hard he's tried to get There must be some good in the work I'm sure you'd change your opin was displayed here several days ago at girl, after all, he thought. Hesitating- ion of him. Lately he's been drinking a little because he was disappointed

"I could have forgiven him every- in not getting anything to do. get out several designs, all operated thing, everything but-" he tried so hard. He walked the "But me," she said promptly. "I streets night and day. Once he even know it. Don't you suppose I feel it, took a position as guard on the elevated road. Just think of it, Mr. Jeff too, and don't you suppose it hurts?" Mr. Jeffries stiffened up. This wom-an was evidently trying to excite his we reduced-but he caught cold and sympathics. The hard, proud expres- had to give it up. I wanted to go to sion came back into his face, as he an- work and help him out. I always swered curtly:

"Forgive me for speaking plainly, him, but he wouldn't let me, You but my son's marriage with such a don't know what a good heart he's Washington, D. C .- Dispatches to woman as you has made it impossible got. He's been weak and foolish, but the department of State from the to even consider the question of recon- you know he's only a boy." She watched his face to see if her With all her efforts at self-control, words were having any effect, but Mr

the secretary of state by the Valley & Puebla and Vera Cruz as gaining and Annie would have been more than Jeffries showed no sign of releating. said there was considerable alarm in human had she not resented the insin- Sarcastically, he said:

"And you took advantage of the some observers to believe that a reb- preserving amicable relations, and she For a moment she made no reply. She felt the reproach was not unmer-"Such a woman as me? That's pret- ited, but why should they blame her the new plan this will give Portland a vide a rebel-controlled port through ty plain-. But you'll have to speak for seeking happiness? Was she not even more plainly. What do you mean entitled to it as much as any other when you say such a woman as me? woman? She had not married How- And That Ended. Recriminating Sena-What have I done?" ard for his social position or his Mr. Jeffrica looked out of the win- money. In fact, she had been worze dow without answering, and she went off since her marriage than she was before. She married him because she "I worked in a factory when I was loved him, and because she thought nine years old, and I've earned my she could redeem him, and she was one day about Conkling, Hancock and living ever since. There's no disgrace ready to go through any amount of several other distinguished people. in that, is there? There's nothing suffering to prove her disinterested His remarks were particularly severe. against me personally-nothing dis- devotion. Quietly, she said:

raceful, I mean. I know I'm not edu-cated. I'm not a lady in your sense of the word, but I've led a decent life. I love him. It's my only ex-or not-I love him. It's my only ex-galls, and he took a good deal of hide There isn't a breath of scandal against cuse. I thought I could take care of off the brilliant Kansan. In one parame-not a breath. But what's the him. He needed some one to look aft- graph Blackburn said: "And this good of talking about me? Never mind er him, he's too easily influenced. You man has the temerity to assail Han-

I'm not asking for anything, know his character is not so strong cock-Hancock the Superb-who was What are you going to do for him? as it might be. He told me that his giving of his life's blood on the He must have the best lawyer that fellow students at college used to hyp- heights of Gettysburg while the senamoney can procure-none of those notize him and make him do all kinds tor from Kansas was skulking along barroom orators. Judge Brewster, of things to amuse the other boys. He behind a regiment of Kansas jay- in arm .- Saturday Evening Post.

"Yes, if it must be. I will consent to a divorce-to save him!'

said the banker coldly.

firmly.

this aristocratic father aroused her indignation to such a pitch that she "You will leave the country and go became reckless of the consequences. abroad to live?" continued the banker They wanted her to desert him, just coldly.

"A divorce?" she stammered. "Why,

I never thought of such a thing as

"It's the only way to save him,'

"The only way," said Mr. Jeffries

"Do you consent?" he asked.

"The only way?" she faltered.

She listened as in a dream. That as they deserted him, but she wouldn't. She would show them the she would be confronted by such an kind of woman she was. alternative as this had never entered "So!" she cried in an outburst of her mind. She wondered why the mingled anger and grief. "So his famworld was so cruel and heartless. Yet fly must desert him and his wife if the sacrifice must be made to save must leave him! The poor boy must Howard she was ready to make it. stand absolutely alone "You will leave America and never return-is that understood?" repeated the idea?" the banker. "Yes, sir," she replied falteringly, Mr. Jeffries paced nervously up and down the room. For the first time he seemed to take an interest in the leave America! And I'll see him just interview. Patronizingly he said: "You will receive a yearly allow sit in the Tombs prison all day. ance through my lawyer. for his defense. I'll find some one. I'll Annie tossed up her chin defiantly. She would show the aristocrat that go to Judge Brewster again and if he still refuses, I'll go to some one else she could be as proud as he was. There must be some good, big-hearted "Thanks," she exclaimed. "I don't lawyer in this great city who'll take accept charity. I'm used to earning up his case." my own living. Trembling with emotion, she read-

"Oh, very well," replied the banker But quickly. "That's as you please. But I have your promise-you will not attempt to see him again?"

"What! Not see him once more? To say good-by?" she exclaimed. A broken sob half checked her utterance. "Surely you can't mean that, Mr. Jeffries.' The banker shrugged his shoulders earned my living before I married

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

noon, sir."

Foes Only During Debate

hawkers, trying those jayhawkers in robbing hen roosts."

and everybody thought there would be trouble, inasmuch as Ingalls was high spirited and Blackburn unafraid.

burn and Ingalls met, face to face, in the corridor in front of the marble room. A dozen spectators looked for CATBARO.

Ingalls stopped, looked squarely into Blackburn's eyes and Blackburn glared back

"Joe," said Ingalis, putting out his hand, "isn't this cruel war over?" "It is," said Blackburn, taking the offered hand, and they went off arm tors Speedily Forget Their Differences. The late John J. Ingalls, senator from Kansas, let loose in the senate the capacity of judge advocate for There was more of the same kind,

After the senate adjourned Black

Before the astonished banker could "I don't want the newspapers filled stop her, she had thrown back the with sensational articles about the tapestry and disappeared through the heartrending farewell interview be door. tween Howard Jeffries, Jr., and his tory. More† than 20,000 operatives thronged the streets, half of them participating in a monster parade. procession passed the