HOUSE OF MYSTERY" OCCUPIED BY LONE MAN TWENTY-ONE YEARS.

Amazing Condition Revealed-Gold. Silver, Stocks and Bonds Burled In Years of Dust Accumulation-Loyal to Wife's Memory.

New York.—Samuel H. Haslett, the hermit of Brooklyn, is dying in his "House of Mystery," No. 138 Remsen street, and the circumstance has opened for the first time in 25 years the mansion he occupied alone and revealed an amazing condition of filth and dilapidation. The magnificently furnished house was two inches thick with dust, and $10,000 in currency that littered the floor was swept into corners, or lay under thick dust in the hallways. There were two bushels of unopened mail overflowing from a unique brass jardiniere, and letters and parcels vere tossed and heaped in place, and then never disturbed. There were boxes and kegs of gold and silver coins, and there were thousands of richly bound books that had never been opened, heaped in various rooms in the dismal dwelling.
