OBSERVE COMMENCEMENT

Graduating exercises of Estacada High school much enjoyed—Program reflects great credit.

Before an audience which packed the M. E. church to the doors, the graduating exercises of the Estacada High school were held last Friday evening. The musical program was an especially pleasing feature. The participants graciously responded to encores. The instrumental features were a quartet, piano, violins and cello by Miss Kellar, Fred Horner, Mr. and Mrs. Aue; a trio Mr. and Mrs. Aue and Miss Kellar, the first number, a serenade by Widor, being delightfully piano solo by Miss Rachael Reed, showing wonderful command of the piano. The vocal features included a ladies quartet, Mrs. Devore and the Misses Nina Taylor, Myrtle Woodie and Rachael Reed and two solos by Fred Horner. His first number was Schumann's "Two Grenadiers."

Zelca Coope, a member of the graduating class delivered an oration on "A New View of the Farm" in which he presented the advantages of education in the agricultural schools. He pleaded for instruction of the young, rather than the retirement from the city of mature people who sought seclusion in the rural districts.

Prof. E. D. Ressler of the O. A. C. faculty, delivered an excellent extemporaneous talk on the purposes of farm life and the scientific development of resources. He urged upon the young the duty one owes to society to become a producer rather than a parasite and cited many instances.

J. W. Reed, chairman of the school board presented diplomas in a neat speech. Rev. W. R. F. Browne invoked Divine assistance and the program concluded with the benediction by Rev. A. A. Darling.

Edwards Boy Dies.

Four weeks to a day from the date when his sister expired, Robert Edwards, aged 14 son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Edwards, died at the family residence of typhoid pneumonia. The boy was taken sick shortly after the funeral of his sister and during his illness said he could not recover. The disease had practically run its course but his heart failed its functions. The funeral was held Sunday at 4 o'clock, a large crowd attending. Rev. W. Givens was in charge. There were many flowers. There survive, the parents, two brothers and a sister.

ESTACADA WINS IN NINTH

Stage grand basing rally and overall elm Keyston Woodens, after being apparently hopelessly beaten.

There was a young man named Brill who pitched for the K. Woolen Mill. But, near the close of the game, his soup-bone went lame. He was beat up just fit to kill.

Sailing along on downy beds of ease Mr. Brill of the Keyston Woolen Mill was rudely jarred Sunday afternoon, when our pallid heroes fell upon him in the lost two rounds and skinned him out of a victory, 7 to 6.

Up to the fatal eight, when his troubles began, he was all to the good, but he wobbled and his pals wobbled with him and the damage was done. Hans Von Schultz, our Heidelberg grad smote him the blow that put on the finishing touches. Hans' whack came when two were gone, the score 6 to 6 against us and two Estacadans on the sacks. He mashed one past second and Pitcher Catcher Cap Levinius and Dr. Simmons tricked athwart the platter, amid the sips of the populace.

Only two runs were earned, that of Townsend who doubled and Cap Levit who singled and were scored on hits. Next Sunday Estacada plays Springwater at Springwater. Everybody go, for our old lineup will be on hand. The score:

R. H. E.
Estacada - 0 0 0 0 0 3 4 - 7 4 12
K. W. Mill - 0 2 1 0 0 3 0 0 6 - 4 7
Batteries—Smith, Bronson and Bronson and Townsend; Brill and Dowling, Impire N. Bronson.

CITY NEWS BRIEFS

H. M. Looney of Clatskanie was in town Saturday.

Miss Mable McWillis is visiting Miss Bina Douglass of Eagle Creek.

Mrs. Blackley, a trained nurse, left yesterday with her sister for Portland.

At the Family theatre tonight and tomorrow night three fine films, "Ninety and Nine," "Blacksmiths Love" and a two subject reel, "Bilys Marriage" and "Flower Carnival."

The dance given by the Garfield County club last Saturday evening was well attended. Good music lent to the enjoyment.

The Estacada Amusement Co. will give another of its popular dances at the Pavilion. Saturday evening June 1.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Wooster have returned from Portland where they visited a week. Mr. Wooster has practically recovered from his recent illness.

Ed Boner and John Erwin went fishing near headwaters of Eagle Creek and landed 51 trout. They report the fish rising well to a fly.

F. E. Sealey, foreman of The Progress office, left for Portland, Monday, to be gone until July 1, in the interest of county division.

Beginning next Sunday the general delivery at the post office will close at 8:30 A. M. instead of 9 as heretofore on Sundays.

W. A. Jones took a party of fishermen into the mountains 35 miles from here, last week, the party returning Monday evening. About 30 trout were landed.

Father Martin of Portland, held Catholic services at the home of F. J. Harkenrider, last Sunday. Mass was celebrated, and many local Catholics attended.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. Church will give an ice cream social at the I. O. O. F. hall, Friday May 31. The society will meet with Mrs. Howard James, Wednesday May 29 at 2:30 o'clock.

Warren Barr, who recently sold his ten acres a mile from town to a Mr. Dickson of Portland, left Monday for Denver. He may spend the summer there, if not, he will return to Estacada.

"Mr. Bob" a comedy in two acts will be presented at the Family Theatre, Saturday evening by the junior class of the High school. The cast is well selected and the play will be given with credit.

George Epperson of Cascade precinct was here Tuesday. Mr. Epperson comes from a precinct where county division is much discussed. He believes the project will carry and is enthusiastically for it.

J. W. Reed, Raney Crawford and Edwin Bates, delegates to the state Odd Fellows convention and Mrs. E. B. Saling and Mrs. W. M. Yonce, delegates to the Rebekahs, left Monday for Pendleton. They are expected home today or tomorrow.

Alderman and Mrs. Al Lindsey returned Sunday from Timber, Ore. where Mr. Lindsey went recently to take the foremanship of a saw-mill. Conditions at the mill were unsatisfactory and Mr. Lindsey decided to return home. Their many friends are glad to have them back.

Neil Bronson narrowly escaped serious if not fatal injury last week at River Mill, where he is working. A huge bolt driven with a sledge, suddenly projected from its bed and striking Neil in the forehead, cut a deep gash and knocked him unconscious. A physician attended him and although he is recovering rapidly, he suffers dizzy spells at intervals.

Pupils of the eighth grade took the teachers examination this week, and an examination of the papers by Superintendent Gary and Supervisor Anderson, showed they all passed. It is said to be a record in the county. There are ten in the class. One of the members failed on athletic, the only misdeed of the entire examination.

Peter Emil Claussen, nephew of Peter Claussen, who died in Estacada last winter, leaving an estate worth perhaps $4,000 arrived from New Zealand Monday and visited the ranch in George Afterward he had a conference with Administrator William Mattoon and Estator C. W. Devore and the estate will soon be settled. This is Mr. Claussen's first trip to the United States and he is much interested.

Estacada is given some extended advertising in a neat booklet issued by the P. R. L. & P. Co. "How to see Portland by Trolley." The book is a vest-pocket size and has 32 pages with an attractive cover in colors. It is being given wide circulation, especially among visitors to Portland. A cut of the Hotel Estacada is among the illustrations. The book is the work of W. T. Buchanan of the publicity department.

Memorial services in which both the Methodist and Christian churches join, will be held at the Christian church next Sunday evening. Veterans of the civil war will attend. Rev. W. R. E. Browne pastor of the M. E. church, will preach. Chords of both churches will furnish special music.

F. M. Gill has returned from the State Grange meeting at Roseburg, where he was a delegate. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Closser of Springwater also attended. The grange took strong grounds against the single tax idea. C. E. Spence was re-elected state master and H. A. Darnall lecturer; Mrs. Mary L. Howard, secretary. Mr. Spence and Mrs. Howard are Clackamas county people.

R. W. Cary returned from a week's trip to Shepherd's Springs. Superintendent T. J. Gary arrived today and will be the guest of Prof. James.

James Smith and Ennis Townsend returned from Sandy where they went to look up a location.

A rush of job work and the absence of a printer two days makes The Progress late this week.

Social Functions.

Members of the junior class of the Estacada High school, were guests at a progressive dinner party given in their honor by Mesdames, J. P. Woodie, J. W. Reed, F. J. Harkenrider, R. M. Standish and H. V. Adix, Tuesday evening. The affair was in five courses served 45 minutes apart. The young people, eneporoned by Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Devore, began the dinner at the Woodie home, thence went to the Reed residence, thence to the Harkenrider home, thence to the home of R. M. Standish and finally to Mrs. Adix residence, where after games were played, the last course was served. A flashlight picture by Dr. Adix, concluded a delightful event. Those present: Misses Doris Lovell, Nina Taylor, Myrtle Woodie, Rachael Reed and Lena Harkenrider; Messrs Zelca Coop, Milton Evans, M. Woodie, H. Fellows and H. Morgan.

C. L. Allen was 74 years old last Thursday and celebrating the event he invited the members of his family and grandchildren to a fine dinner which was served by Mrs. Allen. Twelve plates were laid and an enjoyable day and evening spent. The sons and daughters brought presents for the hosts. Only two of the children were absent, S. D. Allen of Missoula Mont and Miss Anna Allen, who is teaching at Elwood.

The grade teachers of the Estacada school surprised Prof. and Mrs. H. M. James Monday evening, when they appeared at their home carrying lunches and announced they proposed to spend the evening with them. They were made welcome. It had been the original intention to hold a picnic at the park, but rain prevented. Bridge whist was enjoyed, concluded by refreshments. Those present were Mrs. Altman, Mrs. Graham and the Misses Hewitt, Moehne and Erickson.
