A Taft man or a democrat over in the Molalla country suggests this as a Bull Moose song, sung to the tune of the national anthem:
My country, 'tis of Me,
Sweet land of Mostly Me,
Of me I yell
Land to which I am sent
Beyond all argument,
Choose Me for President
Or go to—well.

The mails are being flooded with leaflets arguing for the abolishment of capital punishment. The tenor of the argument is that hanging a man doesn't decrease murder and that the idea of capital punishment is a relic of barbarism and born in a spirit of revenge. A good many people would be more inclined to favor stopping the hangman, if society could be assured that a sentimental pardoning or parole board wouldn't turn the murderer loose in after years, when the memory of his horrible crime, had been dulled by time.

Prices of meat, already exceedingly high, have taken another upshoot, due, it is claimed, to a shortage of live stock over the country. A remedy is being suggested in the east to help bring down the price and that is for people to quit eating veal. In Argentine, there is a heavy fine for the slaughter of heifer calves and the result is that there is an abundance of beef at a reasonable price. Our game laws provide a heavy penalty for the killing of female deer and fawn and why wouldn't it be a good scheme to extend it to beef, so long, at least, as the high price of meats continues?

Gill on Single Tax.

To the editor:
Do we wish to adopt the single tax? I think not. We must vote on two measures Nov. 5th which, if adopted, will give us the single tax. They are the Graduated Single Tax, ballot Nos. 364 and 365 and the Clackamas county single tax bill, Nos. 376 and 377. In the official pamphlet and in the papers and magazines single tax is being discussed merely as a system of taxation. It seems to me we ought to look at the end aimed to be attained by the Single Taxers. Henry George, father of the single tax propaganda, says: "This simple method would satisfy every economic requirement; free labor and capital from the fetters that now oppress them (for all other taxes could be easily remitted) it would enormously increase the production of wealth; it would make distribution conform to the law of justice, dry up the springs of want and misery, elevate society from its lowest stratum; and give all their fair share in the blessings of advancing civilization."

What is this simple method? George says: "It is a very easy thing thus to sweep away all private ownership of land, and convert all occupiers into tenants of the state by appropriating rent." "It," says George, "is necessary only to tax land up to its full value," that is, rental value. The land owner "would be left the absolute and unqualified possessor of his deeds of title and conveyance."

Again he says: "The only true and just solution of the problem, the only end worth aiming at, is to make ALL the land the COMMON PROPERTY of ALL the people." Here then is the end aimed at by the single taxer. The Graduated single tax and the Clackamas county single tax bill would not bring these results but they are a big step that way. If we adopt them we will be asked to go still further toward the ultimate end of single tax. Single tax is not a tax reform. It is an attempt to reform or change the very foundation of society.

Do you wish to hold an empty title to your land and pay a rent to the state in place of a tax? If you do, vote for single tax. If you do not, vote against it.

CITY NEWS BRIEFS

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Tanner of Estacada, last Thursday, a daughter To Loan—$2,500 on good real estate security. W. A. Heylman.
Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McCurdy were at Portland Friday.
Chris Johnson returned, Monday from a trip to Portland, leaving at once for his home at George.

Mrs. H. C. Stokes will entertain the Garfield Dorcas Society at her home Sept. 19, at 2 P. M.
The recent rains have put the ground in condition, so that many of the farmers in the Eagle Creek section, are plowing.
William Strotz of Garfield was in town Saturday. He is contemplating a trip to Southern Oregon and may go from there to California.

Dr. H. V. Adix and family departed Friday for a week's vacation trip in Tillamook county. On the way they took in a day at the state fair at Salem.

W. A. Heylman has opened a law office here and will hereafter devote his time to his profession. He contemplates erecting a building later on.

Ed Boner, Kenneth Bartlett and J. A. Irvin one evening last week landed 95 trout near the power plant. The trout bite fitfully but once they begin, it is no trick to land them.

R. G. Palmateer and family made a trip into the mountains one day last week and secured 30 gallons of what is known as red huckleberries. Mrs. Palmateer says the fruit makes excellent jellies and pies, superior to the blue huckleberry.

The Estacada orchestra is to be enlarged. H. M. Cruse and Neil Bronson have agreed to devote their services toward assembling a good organization and all those who desire to join should present application to either of the above named.

Heenan Gibson of Eagle Creek was in town Saturday. He is an optimist regarding the recent rains and says they have put the ground in fine condition for plowing. Practically all the Eagle Creek farmers have harvested their grain and the yield is satisfactory.

Within a couple of weeks, Terrace addition will have electric lights as a result of a visit to Portland by W. F. Cary one of the owners of the addition. The extension has been approved and will start at Fourth and Zobrist thence to Fourth and Wade, north on Wade and through the addition.

Some time next month, Springwater is to have a Harvest Festival, which will include some excellent music. David Horner is in charge of the program which will include singing of harvest anthems by a trained chorus of twenty voices and instrumental music by violin, cello and organ. Other features are being planned.

Roger Cary returned from Hot Springs, his ranch about 40 miles from here, bringing with him a sample of apples grown on the place and a bear skin. The latter was presented to him by a Mr. Davis. The apples, which were beautiful specimens, were picked from trees planted years ago by a homesteader. The trees have had no care, yet they are loaded with fruit without blemish.

F. E. Seeley, formerly of The Progress, but now editor and joint publisher of the Buyers Guide of Salem was here Sunday with his family. Mr. Seeley has put the publication in the subscription class and has come out for the Bull Moose party, the first paper in the state to make this stand, he asserts. The paper is improving rapidly under Seeley's management.

J. E. Burnett of Eagle Creek was in town Tuesday. Mr. Burnett has sold his commission house at 92 Front street Portland, but has reorganized under the firm name of Burnett & Son and will open on September 16 at 113 Front street. The firm will do a general commission business in farm produce. Shipping tags may be had of the O. W. P. agent here.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Lichthorn went to Portland twice last week to consult with their attorney regarding the damage suit which has been brought against W. W. McCredie for injuries to Albert Lichthorn, a lad run over by an automobile some time ago, but now convalescing. The case will not come up for trial for perhaps six weeks and promises to be vigorously fought. At one time, it is alleged, the McCredies offered settlement, but declined later on to consider it.

The M. E. Ladies Aid will meet with Mrs. Hughes, next Wednesday after dinner.

Justice Givens has entered judgement against Marshal Ames for $10 in favor of George Yenke.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Bronson, Mr. and Mrs. Burbonai, Mrs. Yonce and son have returned from the hop fields at Aurora.
Chief Engineer A. E. Murlin and a crew of six of the U. S. Geological survey are making their headquarters at Estacada, while working on the Cazaadero sheet and finishing up the Boring sheet. They will be here for some time.

At the M. E. church Sunday morning Mrs. C. W. Devore will sing Lassen's "In Heavenly Love abiding." Evening service will begin at 7.30, the last service before conference to which Rev. Mr. Browne will depart Monday. Subject "The Goodspeeds and Farewells of Life."

E. C. Hackett of Oregon City and E. Dedman of Clackamas, candidates respectively for sheriff and recorder on the republican ticket, were in Estacada yesterday canvassing the voters. Mr. Denman has been placed on the ticket by the county central committee, in place of L. E. Williams, nominated at the primary, but disqualified to run because he has left the country. Both profess themselves much encouraged by their canvass.

Glenn English left last week for Grangeville, Idaho to engage in the cattle business with a cousin.

Sheriff Maas yesterday served a writ of review upon Justice Givens yesterday in the matter of the judgement against A. G. Ames for $10 in favor of George Yenke. The circuit court will examine the papers October 7.

Manager Ed Boner has arranged with the People's Amusement company for four reels to be given every week, Saturdays and Sundays at Boner's theater. The pictures are the latest shown at Portland.

Miss Mae Stevens is visiting Mrs. W. A. Heylman.

Geo. C. Brownell will speak on Woman Suffrage, Sept. 22 at 2 o'clock at the M. E. Church.

What will likely be the last baseball game of the season, will take place next Sunday when Estacada plays the Brooklyn Greys, a fast Portland team which beat the locals twice last year. A strong lineup will be arranged by Manager Neil Bronson.

Estacada may secure its eight street lights as a result of Mayor Reed's conference with the F. R. L. & P. The company agreed to put them in if the city would install the fixtures which will cost about $25. Bills of $102 were allowed at council meeting. The amended live stock ordinance, now extends the time to 8 o'clock in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Murray and son "Mulligan" left today for a week stay at Seaside.

The Progress is indebted to E. C. Suter, a prominent ranchman and fruit grower of Eagle Creek, for a box of fine Bartlett Pears which he brought to Estacada, Saturday. Mr. Suter sold quite a lot of this excellent fruit. The pears are large, well colored and without blemish and testify eloquently to the productiveness of the soil at his place. He sprayed his trees only once this season, his orchard being remarkably free of parasites.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Standish, Helen Standish, Phil Standish and Milton Evans returned Saturday from the camp at Three Links, where they remained two weeks. It rained every day and the success of the men in landing a deer, may be guessed by the fact that Phil Standish, as soon as he reached town, patronized the Palace Meat market liberally. They did catch quite a number of trout, though.

William Smith of Springwater is one of the farmers of Clackamas county who is fortunate in having a pretty fair prune crop this year. Last spring the cold rains throughout the state, during the pollinating of the fruit, did a lot of damage, in many sections there being a total failure. Mr. Smith's orchard of two acres, however, will produce more than half a crop of fine prunes this year. The Springwater farmers have most of their grain under cover so there will be little loss on account of the recent downpour.
