CASCADE, BY 3 TO 1

County Division wins in Gresham Fair straw vote.

HEADQUARTERS ARE OPENED

Will be maintained until after election—Wilson, woman suffrage and anti-single tax win in straw vote.

Cascade county was a winner in the straw vote, 3 to 1, conducted by the Gresham Outlook, during the Multnomah Co. fair at Gresham last week. Out of about 500 votes, so far counted, county division secured 380. Woodrow Wilson, for president, won 2 to 1 over Taft and Roosevelt; women suffrage is ahead 2 to 1 and single tax was beaten overwhelmingly, according to a message over long distance phone to the Progress today.

Counting has not been finished, owing to a press of work in the Outlook office.

Following this, the dance of 14 numbers began at the Pavilion, music being furnished by a Portland orchestra, which accompanied the party. The Pavilion had been beautifully decorated with frat and high school colors, interspersed with Oregon grape and ferns, a committee of high school people having preceded the party here for that purpose. There is considerable interest in the outcome.

Order of Eastern Star begins with 40 members.

As soon as a dispensation arrives, application having already been made, an order of the Eastern Star, an auxiliary of the Masonic lodge, will be organized in Estacada.

Those back of the organization say the Eastern Star will have 100 members before a year is passed. It is likely the Portland Eastern Star officials will start the new lodge here.

DEMOCRATS HOLD RALLY

Walter M. Pierce talks for Wilson and Marshall.

GOOD CROWD IN ATTENDANCE

Single tax is rapped by Stevens—County democratic candidates present and two make speeches.

Before an audience which comfortably filled Boner's theater, Tuesday night, Walter M. Pierce, a democratic orator, spoke entertainingly for Wilson and Marshall and democratic principles. Accompanying him here were Clackamas county democratic candidates, including Sheriff Maas, Assessor Jacks, County Judge Beatie; M. E. Gaffney, candidate for legislature; and J. D. Stevens, speaker for the anti-single taxers.

W. A. Heylman, county committeeman presided and introduced the speakers. Sheriff Maas and Assessor Jacks spoke first and presented their claims for re-election in a creditable manner. Then came Mr. Pierce who eulogized Wilson, criticised republican tariff making and predicted democratic victory. Incidentally he rapped single tax and called it confiscation of lands.

J. D. Stevens followed with an attack on single tax and Mr. Pierce again addressed the audience asking it to vote against the millage bill thus keeping Oregon Agricultural college and the University at Eugene separate.

The hall was decorated with flags and pictures of the candidates. Mr. Heylman had Mr. Pierce and Judge Beatie as guests at his home.

STUDENTS SEE GRESHAM FAIR

About 70 accompany Prof. Guthrie, Friday—Wear Cascade county badges and boost division.

Practically all the members of the high school, as well as perhaps 30 of the pupils in the grades and several teachers went to Gresham last Friday to attend the fair which that hustling city closed Saturday. The attendance for the week was not up to expectations due partly to inclement weather the early part of the week, but it was a good show and Estacadans enjoyed it.

The Outlook took a straw vote on president, single tax, women suffrage and Cascade county and the presence of so many boosters for division, roused great interest in the proposed county. Besides, there was B. O. Boswell, who did strenuous work for the cause ably assisted by E. W. Bartlett, Claude Devore, H. M. James and others. They distributed literature and talked steadily for division. Mr. Boswell put in a good deal of his time throughout the fair helping the cause along and his work bore fruit.

The visitors generally were enthusiastic for Cascade county and Gresham and vicinity will undoubtedly give a good majority for division, according to those who have campaigned there.
