Oregon City Editor of Grange Bulletin Hits Division

MAKES UNTRUTHFUL CHARGE

Alleges P. R. L. & P. is Promotor of Cascade, Despite Fact Official of Company is Fighting Division.

Indignation and resentment in no uncertain terms have been expressed by members of the granges, since the receipt here of the Pacific Grange Bulletin, an editorial of which asserts that the P. R. L. & P. is the promotor of the Cascade county movement. The yarn, it is almost unnecessary to say, emanates from the editor C. E. Spence, an Oregon City resident. Also it is published at a time when it is impossible to call the editor to account in his own columns, for the Bulletin isn't issued again until after election.

Editor Spence working in conjunction with the coterie of county officials and a group of attorneys who have fattened off the county seat business for years, has launched this canard for the purpose of prejudicing those who are not familiar with the facts.

It is to Laugh

The ridiculousness of the charge is very apparent when it is known that T. W. Sullivan, an official of the P. R. L. & P. and a member of the campaign committee of Live Wires of Oregon City, is doing his utmost to defeat county division. J. E. Hedges, an attorney, a legal representative of the P. R. L. & P. in Oregon City, is another member of this committee fighting tooth and toe nail against Cascade county. T. B. McBain, head of the Willamette Paper and Pulp Co., a big corporation of Oregon City, is still another adviser of the solidarity of Clackamas county.

All this is known to Mr. Spence, but he nevertheless has sought to create a false impression, largely because he realizes that a fight is on at Portland between the P. R. L. & P. and the Northwestern Electric Co. of San Francisco over franchises.

People Subscribe Funds

People of East Clackamas, as well as members of the grange who have gone down in their pockets and put up the money to conduct this campaign, condemn emphatically the unfair and untruthful statement of the Bulletin. This movement was started in good faith and for reasons which Oregon City has never attempted to answer.

To begin now by misrepresentation, not to call it by the "shorter and uglier word" will not avail, although it is realized here that undue advantage has been taken among a prominent and fair minded element of Oregon's citizenship—the granges.

If the Bulletin's only objection to the creation of Cascade county, is the old bugaboo of corporation domination, the members of granges will detect the insincerity of the editor and recognize the justness of division and vote for it.

SOCIAL FUNCTIONS.

In honor of her nephew, Don Newman, Miss Maude Sturgeon and her mother, last Friday night, entertained a large company of friends at her home. Games were played, one of the features being a mock trial in which the guest of honor was a prisoner. Rev. W. R. F. Browne, judge, Malcomb Woodie, prosecuting attorney and Principal B. F. Ford, attorney for defendant. Newman was charged with disturbing the peace at 4 o'clock in the morning training for the football team. But in the trial another issue was brought in to prove bias on the part of the complaining witness Chester Womer. It developed there was rivalry over a girl and at the finish Judge Browne found both Newman and Womer guilty and sentenced them to fight a duel, blindfolded, towels as weapons. The trial created much amusement. Refreshments were served as a conclusion to a most enjoyable evening. Those present: Rev. and Mrs. Browne, Mr. and Mrs. Ford, Mrs. O.

E. Smith, and the Misses Abbie Stites, Gertrude Morrow, Kitty Reagan, Rachael Reed, Mary and Myrtle Woodie, Jessie Hanna, Gladys Carpenter, Gladys Townsend, Leila Howe, Elva Adams, Ellen Hicks, Fanning, Fleming, Graham, Lewis. Messrs. A. N. Johnson, Harrison, Graham, Morton, Evans, Sutherland, Womer, Dale, Shankland, Morgan, Havens, Kandle, Moore, Bartlett and Woodie.

The opening ball of the season under the auspices of the ladies of Estacada, took place Saturday at the Pavilion and was attended by a good crowd. A most enjoyable occasion it proved the floor being in excellent condition, the floor management, under the direction of Messrs. Adix, Bartlett, Reed, Bellis, Standish and Saling being especially efficient. The music by the Estacada orchestra pleased. The refreshment booth was in charge of Messames Reed, Adix, Sparks, Yonce, Lindsay, Currin, Ewing, who with Mrs. McCurdy and others were patronesses of the affair.

The Garfield Reading Circle met October 3, with Mrs. S. H. Graber. Good progress was made with the book now claiming attention. Over the topic the ladies were invited by the hostess to reply to a few queries which were set forth on a type-written page, every one present being furnished with a copy. Mrs. A. O. Whitcomb won special mention in the contest. Refreshments provided cheer and enjoyment. October 10 Miss Helen Standish entertained the Circle. An added feature of interest was the reference to current events by several of the ladies. The surprise of the afternoon was a strawberry shortcake served by the hostess. The next meeting, which will be held October 24, will be with Mrs. Bundy. The present volume will be concluded and plans made for succeeding readings.

Bible School has Election.

Champion Radish of U. S.

is Raised by Shankland

Looking more like a young suit case than what it really is, a radish weighing with the top 31 pounds and without top 29½ pounds, 31 inches in circumference and 22 inches long, was brought to The Progress by E. S. Shankland of Morrow this week. The vegetable is almost too good to be true, but it is the real goods all right. A big crowd examined it and it is still an object of curiosity at the Palace Meat Market where Fred Jorg has hung it up alongside a defunct calf. The world has to go some to beat Shankland on this.

FIRST FOOTBALL GAME

Estacada to Meet Vancouver High Here, Saturday.

GAME STARTS AT 2:30 O'CLOCK

Visitors Belong to Fastest High School Company—Locals Have Their Try-out Against a Strong Team.

In good condition and anxious to try out against their first opponents, the Estacada high school football team is ready for the game Saturday afternoon at 2:30 when they clash with the Vancouver, Wash., high. The latter team is one of the strongest in this territory and while the locals hardly expect to win, they are hopeful of holding the visitors to a low score. They play Washington Deaf Mute school, next.

Coach Ford believes his men are in good physical condition and fairly well equipped to do battle, inexperience being the only handicap. The game will likely determine the gameness of the locals. There should be a big turnout for the locals have to assume the expenses of bringing the team here. They have worked hard to fit themselves.

Maxmeyer's Stars Take

Estacada Down, 9 to 1

Without straining either his good right arm or his mentality beyond the breaking point, Richard Maxmeyer, an eccentric southpaw who has been hired and fired out of a half dozen teams in the league this last summer, blew in with an able bunch of assistants Sunday and put the damper on the locals, 8 or 9 or 10 to 1. Anyhow they licked us plenty and then some. It was easy picking, too, for our folks played some mighty weird ball. If there was anybody who didn't offend he can establish an alibi by applying to any of the fans who saw the game.

Earl Schultz, the one-time prospective bridegroom, was the boy who straitened out one of Max's scoops for a home run, a pippin over the left fence. That was our only run. We did sting Richard occasionally, but our pallid heroes immediately tried to hit 'er out, instead of whaling, with the result they whaled away at balls wild as a Kickapoo squaw. Doc Douglass basted Max for a triple, and then couldn't score, although he was first man up.

Fiddler Bronson was stung occasionally but it wasn't much use pitching his arm off anyway.
