DOINGS OF THE WEEK

Current Events of Interest Gathered From the World at Large.

General Resume of Important Events Presented In Condensed Form for Our Busy Readers.

Turks stopped the advance of Greek forces on Monastir, forcing them to Monte Cristo, on the north coast of the Dominican republic, has been attacked by rebels.

Lord Decies has been sued for bills he owed before he was married to Miss Vivien Gould.

way Employes is on strike for higher wages and shorter hours.

cated by the Helen Keller method in Reginald McKenna was prevented from making a speech at Holberne-caused by suffragettes. Turkey's appeal for mediation, apparently intending to let the Balkan al-lies complete their victory.

Before their flight from Statista, the Turks pillaged a monastery, cut a monk to pieces, impaled a 3-year-old child and massacred many inhabitants of the town.

A prominent military authority says taught to shoot straight, and what is which he received Sunday in a motor officer among those captured begged to car. be allowed to see King Ferdinand and when Adrianople is taken.

"Father" John Russell, founder of the Prohibition party, is dead at the home of his daughter in Detroit, Mich. He was born in Livingston county, New York, in 1822. He was twice at the head of the Order of Good Templars of the World. In 1872 he was the party's first candidate for vice

Hens about Tacoma have quit work entirely, and it is believed eggs will soon retail at 60 cents a dozen, or 5

Thanksgiving services are held in many frontier towns of Turkey when the Bulgarian army entered.

Bulgarians believe their victory over Turkey will make them a recognized power in European affairs.

to be completely routed and the way open for the Bulgarians direct to Conthorities have been transferred to a stronger jail.

An aggregate of 1,000,000 bushels of wheat has been bought on the Coast for shipment East. Thousands of initiative and refer-various postoffices. on strike. The union includes cooks, waiters and chambermaids.

PORTLAND MARKETS

Wheat - Track prices: Club, 78c; bluestem, 82c; forty-fold, 78@79c; red Russian, 76c; valley, 79c. Hay — Timothy, choice, $17@18; No. 1, $16; out and vetch, $12; aifalfa, $12; clover, $10; straw, $6@7:

Corn-Whole, $38; cracked, $39. Millstuffs-Bran, $22; shorts, $24; middlings, $30. Barley — Feed, $24@24.50 ton; brewing, $27@28; rolled, $26@27.50.

Oats-White, $25 ton; gray feed, $24.50; gray milling, $25.50.

rel; casabas, 75c@$1.50 dozen. Onions-Oregon, $1 per sack. Potatoes - Jobbing prices: Burbanks, 60@65c per hundred. Vegetables-Beans, 12c; cabbage, 1@11c; cauliflower, 40c@$1.25 dozen; celery, 25@75c; cucumbers, 50@60c; eggplant, $1.25@1.50 box; head lettuce, 90c dozen; peppers, 6@8c pound; radishes, 15@20c dozen.

42c dozen; Eastern, 27@32c. Butter - Oregon creamery, cubes, 35c pound; prints, 361@37c pound. Pork-Fancy, 10@10he pound.

Veal-Fancy, 1260123c pound. Poultry-Hens, 12@12&c; broilers 12@12ie; ducks, young, 12@13e; geese, 12c; turkeys, live, 17@18c dressed, 25c.

Hops-1912 crop, prime and choice, 18@20c pound.

Wool - Eastern Oregon, 14@18c pound; valley, 211@221c; mohair, choice, 32c. Cattle - Choice steers, $6.75@7; good, $6.25@6.65; medfum, $6@6.25; cows, $6@6.35; good cows, $5.50@5.75: $5.50@5.75; medium, $5@5.25; choice calves, $6.50@7; good heavy calves, $6@6.50; bulls, $3@5; stags, $4,75@5.25. Hogs-Light, $7.75@7.90; heavy,

INTERVENTION IS SOUGHT.

Porte Permits Powers to Send Warships to Guard Subjects.

London-Application has been made to the embassies in Constantinople for mediation by the powers and to end the hostilities and arrange a peace agreement.

The ambassadors prior to this had asked the Porte to grant permission to each of the great powers to send one

The powers have not been able to Prince Don Jaime, of Spain, who was born deaf and dumb, is to be eduthrough the Dardanelles by each of and Shell Rock are impassable. The farming tools, appliances and impleand the bombardment is becoming line next year. more vigorous. In other directions the allies are concluding their occupatown hall, in England, by the uproar tion of Turkish territory. The Greeks have taken Nicopolis and Prevesa, and European powers make no reply to have landed a division at Stavros, which is marching to attack Saloniki.

> WILSON HURT IN AUTOMOBILE Hard Jolt Throws Him Against Roof,

Cutting Scalp. Princeton, N. J.-Governor Wilson wears a narrow strip of collodion and more important, to control his fire arm. car mishap on the way home from Red Band, N. J.

His automobile struck a mound in

The wound is not serious and the ask him not to allow the mosque of Democratic presidential nominee filled the Sultan Soliman to be destroyed his speaking engagements in Paterson and Passaic, N. J., closing the cam-Dr. J. M. Carnochan, the governor's

> "When I saw Governor Wilson I found he had received a laceration of the scalp about three inches in length. Otherwise he was in good condition, and seemed to be suffering no ill

FEATURES FOR APPLE SHOW.

All Comers Will Be Fed on Apple Pies Absolutely Free.

Spokane-The opening gun of the Fifth National Apple show will be one of the most unique events ever held in The main Turkish army is reported their big parade, in which the free main to the state steps toward the expectation of this hay and the petition practically all the butter for its own was referred to the college. At noon Monday, the huge kettle, 18 feet high, 10 feet in on this prime table necessity. neter, and weighing 3500 pounds. General Felix Diaz and associates drawn by 16 white horses, and 1000 condemned to death by Mexican au-Enakops, dressed as waiters, will constitute a bodyguard. On arriving at Germany appears to be the only of apples will be placed in the kettle European power inclined to take a and made into sauce to be used in hand in ending the Turkish war.

Racing Balloon Lands in Russia. president of the Kansas City Aero for a practical creamery enterprise. endum pamphlets sent out by the Oreclub, received a cablegram from gon state authorities lie unclaimed in John Watts, pilot of the balloon Dusseldorf, one the entrants in the inter-One thousand members of the Hotel national balloon race which started ward the formation of a stock com-Workers union of Buffalo, N. Y., are from Stuttgart, Germany, saying that pany to operate a fruit and vegetable

Navy Women to Organize. are away on other missions. There is to be a meeting of the women, enterprise. is to be a meeting of the women, mostly wives of active or retired naval officers, and the first formal steps toward forming the new organization will be taken. It is the hope of the gplant, $1.25@1.50 box; head let-let. The pamphlets this year were seed, sowed that seed again this year as compared to the $60.45 a page, as compared to the $60.45 a page, charged in 1910. Those who submitted matter were compelled to make a deposit of $70 a page to guarantee the cost, as provied by law. Candidates will soon receive their rebates.

Candidates Get Refund

> Czarcvitch Hurt By Fall. St. Petersburg-The first official attempted to spring into a boat. but nothing wrong was noticed until September 20, when a painful swelling of the groin and bleeding of the abdomen developed.

> > Major-General Is Dead.

Major-General is Dead.

Washington, D. C.—Major General has been little demand for seed as yet of 200,000 feet. The Crossett Tim-lete, perhaps in an unusual line.

Robert O'Reilly, ex-surgeon general of it is expected that the farmers will ber company controls an immense tim
"Yes, sir," the chauffeur replications of the market. Although there in the state. It has a daily capacity of men would have read him an a daily capacity of men would have read him an a daily capacity of men would have read him an a daily capacity of men would have read him an a daily capacity of men would have read him an a daily capacity of men would have read him an a daily capacity of men would have read him an a daily capacity of men would have read him an a daily capacity of men would have read him an a daily capacity of men would have read him an a daily capacity of men would have read him an additional has been little demand for seed as yet of 200,000 feet. The Crossett Tim-lete, perhaps in an unusual line.

AUTO ROAD NEARLY READY.

Cost of Portland-Hood River Boulevard Less Than Estimates.

Hood River-With the exception of warship through the Dardanelles, and roadway will run short distances over Turkey make an appeal directly to the allies without interference from the by S. Benson, the wealthy Portland lumberman. The Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employes is on strike for higher formula of "territorial disinterestedness," which is not acceptable to Austria or Germany. The powers are tria or G the powers. The besieging forces are county will extend the road from Castigtening their grip around Adrianople cade Locks to the Multnomah county so this feature of the show is expected

NEW MILL AT OTTER ROCKS.

Large Plant Indicates Some Future Railroad Building.

Newport-A new sawmill plant is to be located at Otter Rocks. The Courts To Decide Question of Labels riedly. promoters of it are Messrs. Crane, Case and Marsters, of Roseburg, al-though, it is reported other interests are financing the plant. The boilers, to 30,000 per day.

There is much speculation going around as to the object of putting in defendant placed on an exhibit of eggs The Turkish soldiers already are convinced of the inevitableness of the road and bolted him up against a such a plant at this particular point. a card saying, "Fresh Eggs, 35 cents is my cousin; I came out after her, you see. Don't get so worried, Em-While Otter Rocks is certainly a a Dozen," "whereas," says the com-charming place for a summer retreat, plaint, "the eggs were not fresh and and there is a demand for lumber for building cottages, yet this demand is limited, and a mill of this class would cut more lumber within a few days than would supply the needs for a of eggs, it is charged that the quality year to come. It is also too far from of the offerings is being persistently problem seems to be that it is being commissioner, is a misbranding under girl's dark eyes as she gazed located there with a view to railroad the pure food law. building in the near future, when it would be conveniently available for cutting railroad material

CREAMERY FIELD IS OPEN.

John Day Valley Residents Offer Business for Big Plant.

Prairie City - The people of the ping out to a distance of more than said to have arisen in Idaho hav. hundreds of blooded dairy cows and "apple pie fest" will be featured. A consumption, thus paying two freights those who are seeking locations for much damage has been done by the creameries, and a movement is on foot pest in other states. He also advises looking to the establishment of a fac- quarantining temporarily if deemed tory. There are already more than necessary. The executive has referred 300 dairy cows in the valley and the to the attorney general the question herds are increasing from year to of his authority to establish such a year. With the finest water power quarantine. imaginable, an abundance of the best pasturage for dairy cows and a home market for butter at good prices, there is no doubt that those interested will meet with success in the quest further extended but for the interven-Kansas City - George M. Meyers, will meet with success in the quest

Florence-Steps are being taken to-Watts had landed at Pskov, Russia, a cannery here. George Melvin Miller, short distance from St. Petersburg, of Eugene, who owns intereste here, and that both he and his aide were has offered to put up a water-front the Interior department to put that well. The cablegram received by building and give a five-year lease, law into effect, and only now has the Mr. Meyers read: "Both well and rent free, if the company will put in free. Watts." The men have probably been held by Russian authorities. the cannery for this length of time.

The soil and climate here are well suited to growing of berries and small but that charge has been investigated Newport, R. I.—An effort is to be made here to form an organization of Huckleberries and evergreen blackwives of naval officers that will be of berries abound here in a wild state, benefit to them during the absence of and, with the large amount of vegeta-their husbands at sea or while they bles which can be easily grown here, Rye Averages 40 Bushels. ### Apples, ordinary, 50c will be taken. It is the hope of the box; pears, $1.25@1.35; grapes, $1 @1.10; cranberries, $10.50 per bar.

Water forming the new dramgangation will be taken. It is the hope of the projectors that the movement will spread to other places where there are ported by farmers near Malin in this bunch will be absorbed in late. We will b spread to other places where there are ported by farmers near Malin in this bunch will be shipped in later by Mr. raval stations. bushels. Reports continue to come in ranchers. The demand for high-grade Candidates Get Refund.

Salem, Or.—A refund of $1775 will fields being reported as yielding 25 to this valley. "Smaller herds and to those who contributed unserthelew $70 and the law $70 and der the law $70 a page for space in the law $70 a page for space in the initiative and referendum pamph crease. He imported a peck of imfarming and fixed crops are the rule.

> country to berry culture. Since early half acre of ground to make pits to in the spring he has been shipping store them in. George Brazee, of the strawberries to the Portland market, same district, is in the midst of his statement as to the cause of the ill- his sales for a time running as high as digging, and says that his crop of Burhis sales for a time running as high as digging, and says that his crop to the Carevitch was given out by the attending physicians. It says that while the heir to the Russian that while the heir to the Russian which he received $4 a crate, or $16 in and about Redmond. Plans have the route to the limousine's chaufter than the route than the route to the limousine's chaufter than the route in all. This was the pick for three been completed for a large warehouse. ing the route to the limousine's chaufdays from one acre. He had a photo-The distance was too far and he fell, graph taken of four of the berries, which filled a half-foot rule.

LAND SHOW RIBBONS HERE.

Machinery Exhibits Expected to Be Instructive Feature.

Portland-Handsome red and blue work to be done at points where the silk ribbons, attractively printed in warship through the Dardanelles, and this request had been complied with. The only guarantee of safety for the native Christians and perhaps foreigners in Constantinople is to be found in the presence in the harbor of the Turkish capital of the warships of the great powers.

It is the general belief that Bulgaria will refuse to listen to anything aria will refuse to listen to anything of loose stone was cheaper than had ber of red ones for second prizes. Mr. in the way of intervention until the been anticipated. Murray Kay, who Hill is taking a great interest in the Bulgarian army is at the gates of conducted the work, declares that it Constantinople, and will insist that will not consume the whole of the encouragement.

Alterations on the exhibit building at East First and East Morrison The road district, in which are lo- streets are going forward rapidly and to prove instructive. Former estimates of probable attendance are being raised on account of the large himself down and came toward her number of inquiries coming to the with the unhasting swiftness of one in a training camp for motor trucks land show headquarters.

WHEN IS AN EGG FRESH?

in "Moulting" Season.

Portland-When is an egg fresh? The office of the state dairy and food two 80-horsepower each, a trimmer and commissioner raises the question and The chauffeur does not know Long Really, a splendid chauffeur, you edger and other equipment are now en will call upon the courts to decide. Island; we cannot seem to find any know." A prominent military authority says that while the Turkish soldier learns the goose step, the Bulgarian is wears a narrow strip of condition and the control of the proprietive forms of a commission house, has been pacity of the mill will be from 25,000 made the subject of a commission house, has been made the subject of a commission house, has been made the subject of a commission house, has been made the subject of a commission house, has been made the subject of a commission house, has been made the subject of a commission house, has been made the subject of a commission house, has been made the subject of a commission house, has been made the subject of a commission house, has been made the subject of a commission house, has been made the subject of a commission house, has been made the subject of a commission house, has been made the subject of a commission house, has been made the subject of a commission house, has been made the subject of a commission house, has been made the subject of a commission house, has been made the subject of a commission house, has been made the subject of a commission house. a charge of misbranding.

physician, who dressed the issued the following state-

HAY PEST IS REPORTED.

Agricultural College to Investigate and Take Action.

Salem-President Kerr, of the Oregon Agricultural college, has advised Governor West that A. L. Lovell, of the college, has been sent to Vale to John Day valley have long been ship- make an investigation of crop pests 125 miles the cream product of its izens of Vale recently petitioned the governor to take steps toward the ex-

President Kerr says if it is discovon this prime table necessity.

Such a business anomaly cannot ex
Mr. Lovell will devote all of the time

Patents Will Be Issued.

Washington, D. C .- After long contion of President Taft, patents are at last being issued to Siletz homesteaders in Oregon who come under the provisions of the Hawley act, passed nearly a year and a half ago.

President Taft, on appeals from Representative Hawley and National Committeeman Williams, instructed department become active. The last delay was occasioned by a report that speculators had options on many of these claims, and all were suspended were given by settlers and that those claiming to hold options had no basis'

Dairy Stock Shipped In.

Prairie City-F. W. Peet, president of the First National bank, of this place, has just shipped in 20 head of Redmond—Potato digging is in full home for dinner, is it?"

ast in the Redmond district, and the "Hush, Dick," she rebuked, hot col-Good Profit in Strawberries.

blast in the Redmond district, and the yield and quality is reported as being or sweeping her face. "You, you are cottage Grove—J. A. Prophet is excellent. Wolfer Bros., of Powell not well. And we are not engaged; proving beyond possible contradiction Buttes, report about 3200 sacks of the you forget. Just because people want tools, speechlessly outraged, and makthe adaptability of the Cottage Grove tubers, and say that it will take one- us to be-" Too proud to let her ing ready to start. Seated among the

Sawmill at Wauna Sold.

which filled a half-foot rule.

Portland—The modern sawmill plant of the Columbia Valley Lumber company. The mill the result of a serene self-surety that somehow accorded with his lithe, trained grace of movement. A judge $6.75@7.

Sheep — Yearlings, $4.25@4.90; wethers, $3.60@4.65; ewes, $2.75@ ident Cleveland, died here of uraemic poisoning.

The United States army, personal have no trouble in disposing of it a ber area in Oregon. The holdings of this company back of Wauna aggretian and intimate friend of President Cleveland, died here of uraemic poisoning.

The united States army, personal have no trouble in disposing of it a ber area in Oregon. The holdings of this company back of Wauna aggretian and intimate friend of President Cleveland, died here of uraemic poisoning.

The indiscretion of the spoken of the light gate nearly 2,000,000,000 feet of saw that occurred last weather that occurred last weather the control of the spoken of the light gate nearly 2,000,000,000 feet of saw that occurred last weather the control of the spoken of the spoken of the light gate nearly 2,000,000,000,000 feet of saw that occurred last weather the control of the spoken of the spoken of the light gate nearly 2,000,000,000,000 feet of saw that occurred last weather the control of the spoken of the light gate nearly 2,000,000,000,000 feet of saw the control of the spoken of the light gate nearly 2,000,000,000,000 feet of saw the control of the spoken of the light gate nearly 2,000,000,000,000 feet of saw the control of the spoken of the light gate nearly 2,000,000,000,000 feet of saw the control of the spoken of the light gate nearly 2,000,000,000,000 feet of saw the control of the spoken of the light gate nearly 2,000,000,000,000 feet of saw the control of the spoken of the light gate nearly 2,000,000,000,000 feet of saw the control of the spoken of the light gate nearly 2,000,000,000,000 feet of saw the control of the spoken of the light gate nearly 2,000,000,000 feet of saw the control of the spoken of the light gate nearly 2,000,000,000 feet of saw the control of the spoken of the light gate nearly 2,000,000,000 feet of saw the control of the spoken of the spoken of the light gate nearly 2,000,000,000 feet of saw the control of the spoken o

INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT OF THE STATE TIME FILTYTING BY ELEANOR M. INGRAM AUTHOR OF THE GAME AND THE CANDLE, ILLUSTRATIONS BY RAY WALTERS

The roaring reports of the motor fell into abrupt silence, as the driver brought his car to a halt.

"You signaled?" he called across the In the blending glare of the search-the gray machine, where a dark figure lights from the two machines, the had sat until now in quiescent mutegray one arriving and the limousine drawn to the roadside, the young girl stood, her hand still extended in the who now leaned across his wheel. "Oh, please," she appealed again. On either side stretched away the taking steps for the protection of ing the erection near Portland of a gigantic nitrate plant, to cost many millions.

taking steps for the protection of more than six miles in length, forms a exhibit building, and he will be in condaway now ready for use. Within personal charge, directing installation by exhibitors.

The condition of the protection of more than six miles in length, forms a carbitation personal charge, directing installation by exhibitors.

The condition of the protection of more than six miles in length, forms a carbitation personal charge, directing installation by exhibitors.

The condition of the protection of more than six miles in length, forms a carbitation personal charge, directing installation by exhibitors.

The condition of the protection of more than six miles in length, forms a carbitation personal charge, directing installation by exhibitors.

The condition of the protection of more than six miles in length, forms a carbitation personal charge, directing installation by exhibitors.

The condition of the protection of more than six miles in length, forms a carbitation personal charge, directing installation by exhibitors.

The condition of the protection of more than six miles in length, forms a carbitation personal charge, directing installation by exhibitors.

The condition of the protection of more than six miles in length, forms a carbitation personal charge, directing installation by exhibitors.

The condition of the protection of more than six miles in length, forms a carbotal dark, sound-length personal charge, directing installation by exhibitors.

The condition of the protection of the protection of the condition of the carbotal dark personal charge, directing installation wind sighed past, stirring the girl's delicate gown as its folds lay unheeded in the dust, fluttering her fur ning-board, as the young assistant lined cloak and shaking two or three came up, grinning all over his malign childish curls from the bondage of dark face her velvet hood. The driver swung > trained to the unexpected. "I beg pardon-can I be of some use?" he asked.

"We are lost," she confessed hurnome soon. I have been a guest at a ing a conjuring feat. house somewhere here, and started to return to New York this afternoon. place. And now we have lost a tire. was afraid-'

She broke off abruptly, as her con panion descended from the limousine. "We only want to know the way; is my cousin; I came out after her, ily—we'll go straight on as soon as Anderson changes the tire." He huddled his words slightly and light was too flushed; otherwise there the output a possibility.

The only feasible solution of the being fresh. This, contends the food cumstance. There was no anger in being fresh. This, contends the food cumstance. unquestionable in spite of any cir- low-worker did not please him

COPYRIGHT 1910 BY BOBBS-MERRILL CO.

CHAPTER I. lift of the hearer's eyebrows. "How long does it take you to change a tire?" "About half an hour; it's night, of course." An odd, choking gurgle sounded from the gray machine, where a dark figure ness. "Half an hour!" echoed the gray machine's driver, and faced toward gesture which had stopped the man the chuckle. "Rupert, it isn't in your contract, but do you want to come over and change this tire?"

"I'll do it for you, Darling," was the The bewildered chauffeur mechanleally reached for a box on the run

"Oh, quicker! What's the matter, on Sunday. Hustle, please." There never had been anything done to that sedate limousine quite as this was done. Even the preoccupied "If you could set us right, I girl looked on in fascination at a rapshould be grateful. I-we must get idity of unwasted movement suggest-

"By George!" exclaimed her escort. "A splendid man you've got there!

The driver smiled with a gleam of irony, but disregarded the comment. "Would you like to get into your car?" he asked the girl. "You will be able to start very soon." "I. see that," she acknowledged gratefully. "Thank you; I would rather wait here." "Is your chauffeur trustworthy?" "Oh, yes; he has been in my uncle's employ spoke too rapidly, the round, good-humored face he turned to the white There was a pause, filled by the There was a pause, filled by the soft monotone of insults drifting from was nothing unusual in his appear-ance. And his caste was evident and talked while he worked and his fel-A car turned over and killed its driver "Wrench, baby hippo! Oh, look behind you where you put it-you need dark, were a sobering tonic. After a while he spoke to the man beside him, nervously embarrassed by a situation he was beginning to appreciate. "This is a racing car?" "It was." "Isn't it now?" "If I were going to race it day after o-morrow, I wouldn't be risking it over a country road to-night. A racing machine is petted like a race horse until it is wanted."

ing him to the seat.

He closed the door

No one heeded him

otor started.

the road.

I'm busy."

"Not-"

Rupert?"

aboard."

waiting.

"Take your mistress home," he bade the chauffeur. "Crank for him,

"Why, why-" stammered the limou

"By-by, don't break any records,"

Rupert called after the chauffeur. Hold yourself in, do. If you shed any more tires, telegraph for me, and if I'm within a day's run I'll come put Silence closed in again, as the red them on for you and save you time.

tail light vanished around a bend

The gray car's driver nodded curtly to the stupefied youth in the middle of night, you'd better get in the ma-chine," he suggested. "My name's

Lestrange-I suppose yours

"Unless you want to stay here all

"Dick Ffrench. But, see here, you

"You're not fit to go with your

"Fit," completed Lestrange definitely. "Can you hang on somewhere,

"I can." Rupert assured, with an inflection of his own. "Get your friend

Lestrange was already in his seat,

"What's that for?" asked the dazed guest, as, on taking his place, a strap was slipped around his waist, secur-

"So you won't fall out," soothed the grinning Rupert. "You ain't well, you know. Not that I'd care if you did, but somebody might blame Darling."

speed to an extent that was a revela tion in motoring to Ffrench. The keen air, the giddy rush through the

The car leaved forward, gathering

I'd like a drive with you, but mean well, but I'm going with my sine's other passenger, turning as the

"And then?" "It takes its chances. If you are conected with the Ffrenches who manufacture the Mercury car, you should k. bw something of automobile racing yourself. I noticed your limousine was of that make."

"Yes, that is my uncle's company. I and made a nasty muss. I-I didn't fancy it."

A wheel slipped off a stone, giving the car a swerving lurch which was as instantly corrected-with a second lurch-by its pilot. The effect was not tranquilizing; the shock swept the last confusion from Ffrench's brain.

"Where are you taking me?" he "Where do you want to go? I will set you down at the next village we come to; you can stay there to-night or you can get a trolley to the city, The question remained unanswere Several times Ffrench glanced, rather diffidently, at his companion's clear, firm profile, and looked away again without speaking. "I went out to get my cousin to-day, and my host gave me a couple of highballs," he volunteered, at last. don't know what you thought-" Lestrange twisted his car around a belated farm wagon. "How old are you?" he inquired

"Twenty-three." "I'm nearly twenty-seven. That's what I thought." The simpler mind considered this for a space.

"Some men are born awake, some awake themselves, and some are shaken into awakening," paraphrased Lestrange, in addition. "If I were von. I'd wake up; it comes easier and it's sure to arrive anyhow. There is the village ahead—shall I stop?" "It looks terribly dull," was the doleful verdict.

"Then come with me," flashed the ther unexpectedly; for a fractional instant his eyes left the road and turned to his companion's face. "Did you ever see race practice at dawn? Come try a night in a training camp. "You'd bother with me?"

A head bobbed up by Ffrench's knee, where Rupert was clinging in ome inexplicable fashion. "Once I rode eight miles out there by the hood, head downward holding tertainment. Ffrench stared at the reeling perch indicated, and gasped.

"What for?" he asked. The driver looked over at him and "So we could keep on to our con-"No; you can reach there by ten their eyes laughed together. Now, for course, Did you guess I colock. I will speak to your chauf- the first time the girl noticed that running, of course. Did you guess I across the shoulders of both men's was curing a headache?" jerseys ran in silver letters the name "But you might have been killed!" exclaimed Ffrench. "I am very grateful, indeed," she Even by the semi-light of the lamps lowering his voice, and moving near said bravely and graciously. "I wish there was visible the mechanician's er her. "Since we're engaged, why I could say more, or say it better. The droll twist of lip and brow." "I'd drive to hell with Lestrange," he explained sweetly, and settled back Ffrench drew a long breath. After a moment he again looked at the driver. "I'll come," he accepted. "And, thank you.' It was Lestrange who smiled this ime, with a sudden and enchanting warmth of mirth. "We'll try to amuse you," he prom

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

"A Perfect Saw."

"To say nothing and sam wood" seems to be one of the most sagacious ing his eyes with her own, whose phrases passed down by our, hardworking forebears. Like most sayings which have emanated from manual labor, this is blunt, homely, and, to the loquaciously inclined, painfully accurate Show me a man bent jack-"Your cousin is going to stay with knife fashion over a sawhorse, with a short log under his buck, and I will point out a man who is minding his own business with admirable zeal. If he speaks, he ceases to saw. "Yes, sir," the chauffeur replied. into irrepressible mirth under the fine he saws he is necessarily mute. Hence this shrewd phrase, which is, punning

"The Journey Will Be Short Now."

straight before her, only pity and help | a memory course. You ought to be passing spools to a lady with a sew-"I can tell your chauffeur the road," ing machine. Did you ever see a mo- in a pin," he imparted, by way of enthe driver of the gray car quietly said. tor car before? There, pump her up. "Have you far to go?" do." He rose, drew out his watch and "Have you far to go?"

do." He rose, drew out his watch and glanced at it. "Five minutes; I'll ooking at him. "My uncle is there. have to beat that day after tomorrow."

Is that far?"

"Do, like a good fellow," the other man interposed. "Awfully obliged. of a famous foreign automobile. You're not angry, Emily," he added. lowering his voice, and moving near said bravely and graciously. "I wish should you get frightened simply be- journey will be short, now. cause I proposed we get married to-night instead of waiting for a big the frightened shrinking of her glance, in his place. dea, you know. It isn't my fault An- sine and then toward the man who derson got lost instead of getting us was to enter there with her. And the or sweeping her face. "You, you are turned. "May I put you in your car?" uiver, she broke the sen-scarcely possible that he had not, he made no sign. By the acetylene light the gray machine. "Understand it?" he queried, con of men would have read him an ath-

The indiscretion of the ancken that! No, I am not afraid."

driver of the gray machine saw "We have done very little," he re The chauffeur was gathering his rugs and cushions, under the light of the luxurious car, the girl deliberately drew off her glove and held out her small uncovered hand to the driver of

"Thank you," she said again, meetdarkness contrasted oddly with the blonde curls clustered under her hood. "You are not afraid to drive into the city alone?" he asked.

"Alone! Why, my cousin-" She flung back her head; amazement, question, relief struggled over her sensitive face, and finally melted amusement of his regard. "You are clever-and kind, to do aside, a perfect saw.-Atlantic Month-