Here is a rather neat story of the way in which a very shy (or proud) man made a "proposal." He bought a wedding-ring, sent it to the lady (whose finger he knew by heart), and with it enclosed a sheet of notepaper with the brief question: "Does it fit?" By return post he received the more laconic, though syllabically longer, re-oly: "Beautifully."

Formation of Friendship.

We cannot tell the precise moment when friendship is formed. As in filling a vessel drop by drop, there is at least a drop which makes it run over: so in a series of kindnesses there is at last one which makes the heart run over .- From Boswell's Life of Johnson.
