We Solicit Your Patronage

Do You Know?

That we want the trade of every reasonable fair minded man in this part of Clackamas County.

There are desirable and undesirable customers.

We want the desirable customer—one who is fair minded—who does not think we steal the goods we offer for sale—who realizes that a merchant who pays for his goods must have a profit on what he sells or otherwise his name would be Dennis. We know that we sell on a mighty small margin of profit. We pay cash for our stock and buy as cheaply as cash money can procure them and we sell in the same way. Give us a chance to supply your wants. If we cannot give you as much for your money as others then we will make no complaint. We try and buy strictly first class goods, such as will prove of good value to the purchaser.

Let us figure with you on your paint bill, give you prices on buggies and farm implements, make you a set of good serviceable harness, quote you on sash and doors and show you the American Field Fence. Our "Yaller" Front is not very imposing or attractive but we are not offering "Yaller Fronts." We call it the Yellow Front Emporium." You understand that is a joke.

Guy LaFollette's Father Dead

William T. LaFollette, whose death at Madison, Wis., occurred yesterday, was well and favorably known in Sioux City and South Dakota. His son, Guy LaFollette was for several years sports editor and city editor for The Tribune, — Sioux City, Ia., Tribune (May 1.) Guy E. LaFollette, up until Mar. 1st, was editor of the Progress when he went to Helena, Mont., to take the management of a daily paper. He has a host of friends here who will extend to him their sympathy.

Butter Makers Attention

The statutes regulating the manufacture and sale of butter provide for the branding of creamery butter, but not for the branding of dairy butter except that each roll or square must be plainly marked 16 ounces full weight or 32 ounces full weight. We find some dairy butter that is not so marked and we also find some that is short weight.

We would be glad to hold the manufacturer responsible for the misbranding and also for the short weight, but in the absence of any name and address on the butter so as to positively identify the manufacturer we cannot do so. The following ruling is therefore made:

All dairy butter offered or exposed for sale will be considered misbranded if it does not have plainly marked on each roll or square the words, "Dairy Butter," "16 ounces full weight," or "32 ounces full weight" and the name and address of the manufacturer. Any person offering or exposing for sale dairy butter not branded in compliance with this ruling will be prosecuted under the statutes provided for the branding of food products.

Estacada School Notes

The local high school will contest with Gresham High at Gresham on the 17th. And will also enter the County Meet to be held at Gladstone on the 24th.

The Alephic and Websterian Literary Societies will give a joint program on May 16th at 2 o'clock. All eighth pupils in this section of Clackamas County are invited.

Milton Evans, Malcolm Woodle, Lloyd Ewalt and Kenneth Bartlett and Mr. Ford left yesterday for the State Interscholastic Track and Field Meet at Eugene. The entire student body gave the boys a send off to their first State Meet.

The school garden is going in full blast now. 73 boys and girls of the grades have taken individual plots from which exhibits will be taken for the Estacada School Fair the latter part of June. And also the majority will take plots for the Eastern Clackamas School Fair to be held on Sept. 13th. In addition to these plots the freshmen and sophomores have charge of a general school garden. Watch 'em grow.

Following are the lists of prizes to be given to the winners in class A (6th, 7th and grades) and class B (4th and 5th grades.)

June Fair:
A—1st. and 2nd prize, automobile trip to Portland by J. W. Reed.
A—3rd. prize, $3.00 pair of shoes by Cary's Mercantile Co.
A—4th prize, 2 lb. box of bon bons by Bob Marshbank.
B—1st. and 2nd prizes, automobile trip to Portland by J. W. Reed.
B—3rd. prize, fountain pen (Century) by Estacada Pharmacy.
B—4th prize, ball mitt or 2 lb. box of bon bons by Ed Boner.
Watch for the fall list.

Ed Boner and Wm. Marsh presented the Progress family with a mess of fine fish last Saturday. This is the first opportunity we have had to pass opinion upon the quality of fish caught in the Clackamas and our verdict is—the best ever.

Christian Church Notes

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Christian Church held their regular monthly business meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Givens on Wednesday evening of this week. A social hour followed the business session.

The services throughout the day at the Christian church last Sunday were attended by the largest audiences of the season. The Bible School was the largest in its history and it is a certainty that the aim of too for this quarter will be realized. The evening service was especially well attended the church being comfortably filled. There will be the usual services next Lords Day, beginning with a rousing Bible School Service at 10 A. M., Preaching at 11 A. M. and 7:45 P. M. Morning theme, "Lifes Mission." Evening theme "Gethsemane."

FATAL ACCIDENT

M. H. Taylor a farmer residing near Currsville received injuries last Friday by falling from a load of hay which caused his death a few hours later. Mr. Taylor was binding the load of hay on the rack, using the pole and rope. The pole was fastened at the front of the wagon and he was throwing his weight on the pole at the rear when it broke off causing him to fall to the hard floor on the barn headforemost. He received a severe fracture of the skull which caused instant paralysis of the right side. Mr. Taylor never regained consciousness. Dr. Adix was summoned immediately and worked over the injured man but to no avail. He was placed upon a car hoping to get him to a hospital in Portland in time for an operation but death was the victor. The remains were taken to an undertaking parlor and prepared for burial. The deceased was about sixty years of age and had lived at Currsville for about three years. He is survived by a widow and four children who have the sympathy of the community.

THE LAFRANCE CASE

J. A. LaFrance, wife and family were brought to Portland last week where the two former must answer to the charge of defrauding Insurance companies out of $15,000. Mr. LaFrance since his return has boasted about the way he fooled the detectives, whom he knew were trailing him. It is quite evident that he has talked too much for his own good. He stoutly denies that his wife was in anyway implicated in the matter and that she did not know that he was still alive until after the insurance money had been collected by her. Attorney C. W. Devore of this place who was instrumental in collecting the money from the insurance companies, was called to Portland last week and retained as attorney for Mrs. LaFrance. It is the opinion of some that there will be others implicated in the affair before it is through.

The identification of the dead man found on the banks of the Clackamas still remains unsolved. A headstone on which is inscribed the name of J. A. LaFrance, place of birth and age, marks the grave of the unknown in Lone Oak cemetery.

THE MOOSE MOOD

A herd of "Moose" from the woods near Portland invaded our city Sunday afternoon and went direct to the ball park where they represented themselves as being a base ball team, composed of stars of first magnitude. The gracefulness of the members, no doubt, was their reason for adopting the name "Moose." Outside of the battery, Odell and Johnson, they were about the worst bunch it has ever been our misfortune to see perform. Not only were they unable to field or throw a ball but several of them demonstrated by their inability to play the inside game that should you bore into their heads nothing would come out but bone shavings. Pitcher Odell certainly cannot be called a quitter for with his team mates practically worthless to him he continued to pitch ball to the end and in many cases, covered the bases rather than take the chances of having the base on add another error to their already large list. Catcher Jamison the bull moose of the herd was the only one of the bunch who could solve the offerings of our own Neal Bronson to any extent and that very late in the game when he sent a screamer over Simou's head for two sacks and sent another in the same direction, which was gracefully "glommed" by "Sim." Altogether they got 5 hits. The home team played more like professionals than amateurs. C. Douglass at short, shone brightly handling a number of difficult chances with apparent ease. Parks who cavorted around the 3rd corner after the 4th frame also covered his position well. Our heroes got a total of 8 hits, two each by C. Douglass, Bittner and Simons and one each by Smith and Shultz.

The score:
Innings 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 R H E
Moose 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 5 16
Estacada 3 2 0 0 2 1 2 x 10 8 4

Notes
Lee Bronson was struck on the knee by a foul tip in the 3rd and had to retire from the game. Boylan finished catching the game.

Big Jamison the Moose receiver was up twice in pinches, two men on and two out but was unable to come through with a hit.

Eagle Creek was well represented at the game and they had reason to feel proud of their fellow townsman "Doc" Douglass.

And now they call him Hal Chase Smith. The big athlete can certainly play the initial sack.

Portland has a "Big Sisterhood," an unique society, which invites the interest and co-operation of mothers and daughters and other members of families throughout the state of Oregon. This society is quite informal in its organization its aim being to give friendly aid and counsel to girls who are alone in Portland or who for any reason are in need of a "Big Sister." The work of the society is not offered as a charity, but is just the friendliness of one woman for another, or a "Big Sister" for a "Little Sister." So many girls going to the city from the country or small towns have fallen into misfortune through the want of a friend, or in some cases have been utterly lost to their home people, that these Portland women have associated themselves to extend the friendly hand to girls and women who need any kind of help whatever.
