

SUPPLEMENT TO THE ESTACADA PROGRESS

Local News

Melvin Shankland and Mr. Woodward painters for the P. R. L. & P. are painting the pavillion this week.

Misses Katherine Booth and Lucile Danforth both of Portland spent the day at Estacada with the Boswells at Orchard Home.

Mrs. B. S. Joselyne and a party of twenty ladies of Portland came out to Estacada Tuesday in President Joselyn's private car "Portland" and took lunch at the Hotel Estacada.

Joseph Cahill of Eagle Creek, who was severely injured by being jammed between a car and wood dock at Barton some time ago has recovered sufficiently to be able to get around with the aid of a pair of crutches.

There was a man near Troutdale purchased enough clover seed, so he thought, to seed down ten acres. He sowed and behold when the clover as he supposed, came up he had a lovely stand of radishes. You can purchase radishes at four bunches for five but don't ask what kind of a stand of clover he has.

In regard to the weight of the Plymouth Rock bird killed at Orchard home by the Boswells, last week here we come with another stronger than ever and I want it understood Mrs. B. O. Boswell is the chicken raiser on the ranch. Well the pullets which were hatched out the 2nd of January are now laying, can you beat it. If anyone doubts it Mrs. Boswell will be glad to entertain a committee while they investigate and would I believe treat them to some very nice cake and sweet cider or a beautiful bunch of flowers. Come and see and convince yourselves.

B. O. Boswell.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Cary returned last week from their honeymoon trip through southern California and Mexico and went to keeping house in their home here. Mr. Cary says that they did not venture far into the interior of Mexico but they saw a garrison which was in possession of a handful of soldiers of the regular army and it is his opinion that one of Uncle Sam's boys armed with a six gun would put the entire garrison to route.
