Your Horse Doesn't Know anything about the price of oats and other feed, but he certainly can tell the quality. If you don't think so try our oats and feed on him for a while. You'll not see him getting "off his feed" during the trial. You'll not have to dose him up with condition powders to make him eat. Just try it.

Estacada Lumber and Produce Co.

The Progress has been requested to say that a rumor which is being circulated regarding the price of tuition to the Estacada schools for non residents is in error and the tuition for non-residents will be $1 instead of $2.50 as was rumored.

Howell Bros. of Springwater, last week purchased a new J. I. Case grain separator with all modern equipments such as blow stacker, self feeder and weigher. Last fall they bought a new nine horse traction engine and they now have one of the best threshing outfits in the county.

Mrs. E. M. Lovelace last week purchased the resident property of her grandson, Smiley H. Lovelace, and the latter and his wife left Saturday for Tacoma, Wash. Mr. Lovelace will return to Estacada for a few days and then move with his family to Thompson, Nevada where he will work in the mines.

Estacada's new city dads took up their duties after a regular meeting Monday night. Many their sorrows, he few and their joys many. But little street improvements can be done owing to the financial condition of the town and they will have no harder proposition than the outgoing board who have had the same conditions to contend with.

Last Saturday evening a farewell party was given Miss Alva Adams who is leaving for eastern Oregon by Miss Eva Wash. The primary teachers of the Methodist Sunday School being guests. The evening was spent in celebrating the 4th in a miniature way. A delicious lunch was served cafeteria style. In attendance were Misses Alva Adams, Ellen Hicks, Laura Stormer, Gladys Carpenter and Grace Denney.

There was no ball game here Sunday as the Oregon City bunch failed to put in their appearance. Why they did not come still remains a mystery as not later than Saturday evening they informed the manager of the local team they would be here. There was a large crowd here to witness the slaughter of the innocents from the county capital and were very much disappointed at not seeing a game.

Perhaps sometime, somewhere the management of the Oregon City commercial club team will be kind enough to tell us why they did not come.

The course will consist of five numbers, the first to be given sometime during the month of October. The dates have not yet been sent out nor the order of the program given. The artists of the Britt Lyceum bureau of Omaha, Neb., who will appear here are highly recommended and have the endorsements of the critics of all the leading papers of this country and some of Europe. Those who will appear here are the Wood

Orchestral Trio with four seasons in Chautauqua work and three lecture course seasons; Harold Morton Kramer, novelist lecturer better known as "The Philosopher of Life" and sometimes called the "Cowboy Philosopher"; The Stelzi Quartette and Concert Co.; D. Ernest Randall, Cartoonist and Della Crowder Miller dramatic interpreter and impersonator. The five numbers cost $350. Season tickets will be sold $2.00 each for adults, students of Estacada schools $1.00 including reserved seats.

THE CELEBRATION

The dawn of the morning of July 4th was not very promising as the clouds hung low about the hills in a threatening manner and as the rain had continued to fall during the night, there was every indication that Estacada would have a wet fourth. But about nine o'clock old Sol came out and changed the appearances and the spirits of the people. The parade which started as near on schedule time as most parades do, was a credit to the committee who was in charge. C. C. Saling dressed as Uncle Sam lead the procession followed by the Kredit band of Portland and the following in the order given: automobile containing Mayor and Mrs. H. V. Adix, ex-mayor J. S. McCurdy and wife; A. B. Sparks' automobile containing Mrs. Sparks' president of the Civic Improvement Club, Rev. and Mrs. Browne and Rev. Simpson speaker of the day; school children; babies in carts and carriages and little girls and dolls; Esbelman's automobile containing little girls; automobile carrying officers of C. I. C.; float with Miss Gessie Gilhens as goddess of liberty and a number of little girls; fire department with cart and hook and ladder; squad of gentleman and lady riders representing Indians, cowboys, etc.; bicycles and riders; float McCurdy Lmb and Hwd. Co.; float Estacada State Bank; float Palace Meat Market; float Flower Girls; decorated buggy "Old Moss Back" Thos. Vocum originator and driver; Indians and Clowns. After the parade the speaker of the day, Rev. Simpson gave a very entertaining and interesting address and a short concert was given by the band after which dinner was served. The afternoon program consisted of dancing in the pavilion and races and contests for prizes. Dancing in the pavilion was the program in the evening, this commenced at 8:30 with a grand march in which about sixty couples participated.

Two games of base ball were played between Estacada and the Brooklyn Grays of Portland. The first game was started at 11 o'clock and was won by Estacada 6 to 1. The opposing pitchers were for Estacada Roy Douglass, for the Grays, B. Powers. Douglas let his opponents down with but 3 hits while the Gray's pitcher was found safely 10 times. Each pitcher struck out ten batters and walked three. Ed Douglas had a perfect batting record in this game, walking once and getting 3 hits.

In the afternoon contest Husky lurled for the Brooklynites and Maxmeyer for Estacada, the management holding the regular pitcher Neal Bronson in reserve for Sundays game with Oregon City. This was some ball game from the top of the gong until Halie Smith broke it up in the thirteenth by poling one over the right center fence good for the circuit. This was the second offence of Smith's during the game having done a similar act in the fifth but in circling the bases he overreached while passing first and was called out.

The prizes for the different departments of the parade were awarded as follows: Best decorated horse and buggy, Thos. Vocum; most unique float, McCurdy Lmb and Hwd. Co.; best decorated automobile, Dr. H. V. Adix; best appearing lady rider, Miss Wagner; best decorated bicycle and rider, Morley Browne; best rough rider, Paul Morrow; best decorated baby and buggy, Lillian Stubbs; most attractive little girl and doll buggy, Lillian Dales.

While working in his garden one day last week, a man at Oregon City dug up about a quart of brass and gold coins and several sets of ear rings of Oriental design. The jewelry is supposed to have been buried there several years ago by a man who had robbed a rich spantiard's residence in California.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS HOLD PICNIC

The members of Ivanhoe lodge No. 1 K. of P. of Portland and their families held a picnic in the park at this place Sunday. About 500 were in attendance. The afternoon was spent in contesting for prizes in all manner of sports. A voting contest for the biggest grouch was hotly contested and created much amusement. Had Estacada been permitted to enter a dozen or two contestants for the grouch prize the visitors would not have had a look in. The Knights and their Ladies returned to Portland at 5 o'clock feeling that they had spent an enjoyable day.

The W. C. T. U. will hold a social meeting at the home of Mrs. Woodie, Friday afternoon July 11 at 2:30. A cordial welcome to all

CHAUTAQUA

Two automobile loads of Estacadaites besides a number who journeyed via trolley attended the chautauqua and base ball game at Gladstone Wednesday. Rev. Robert J. Patterson the talented Irishman of Belfast, Ireland, was the principal attraction on the chautauqua program. Mr. Patterson is founder of the "Catch My Pal" movement, a temperance organization started in his country a few years ago.

In the base ball game lucky Clackamas won from the Logan team 8 to 6. Bronson and Heitzman were the batteries for the Logan aggregation and they covered themselves with glory and Willamette Valley gumbo. Neal allowed but 5 hits, walked 1, hit 1 and struck out 10. Doc Douglass the usual reliable short stop of the Estacada team and the Logan first sacker were responsible for the defeat of their team as Logan had the game tucked snugly away up to the ninth when errors by Doc and the first sacker hooked up with a single after two men were out gave the Clackamas bunch the game. Big Maxmeyer of Portland hurled the first 4 frames for Clackamas, when on account of a wet ball he lost control and was relieved by Burder. Max got peeved at theumps and was sent to the club house. Oregon City Commercial Club won the day before from the Price Bros. team.

Professors Ford and James of Estacada who are attending chautauqua were pulling hard for the Logan team. Those who made the trip from Estacada by auto were J. W. Reed, Wm. Underwood, C. W. Devore, J. F. Lovelace, Neal Bronson, Bert Byers, R. G. Marchbank, J. V. and Warren Barr, I. A. Bonney and M. H. Boyle.

Regular meeting of Mountain Chapter No. 108, Tuesday evening July 15th at 8:00 P. M. The Past Grand Worthy Matron Mrs. Margaret V. Haytes will be in attendance to install officers. Visiting members welcome.
