NEWS OF THE WEEK STRIKERS IN FULL CONTROL

Unequaled Since War.

Johannesburg --- The settlement of Constal Resume of Important Events the strike among the gold miners in the Rand district, which the government arranged with a committee of strikers, has proved ineffective. The mobs reassembled Saturday. service, the crews refusing to work. No newspapers were able to publish.

The suggestion that Governor Gen-was greeted with cheers.

ances not be adequately redressed.

several policemen were wounded.

The editors of the various newspapers conferred with the Federated

Except at the time of the Jameson war in 1899 this city has not experienced such a day of terrorism as Saturday. The mobs in the business section caused less fear than desperadoes

Battles Longest and Bloodiest of Whole Balkan Conflict.

Servian troops have victoriously en-military position after five days' fighting makes the admission that the Servian arms have not been so uniformly successful as was previously reported.

forced to retire. Thus Krivolak fell into the hands of the Bulgarians. It

Bulgarian right wing.

Describing the five days' operations between Vardar and Krivolak, it says homes of the wealthy.

The Federated Unions are flushed others.

A women's jury in San Francisco acquitted a woman charged with ex-

Threucheut the World.

Erie., Pa., celebrated the victory of there, hooting and jeering the troops. Commodore Perry on Lake Erie 100 years ago.

The Bulgarian army is believed to have cut off the line of retreat of Sercribed as "martyrs to a glorious via's forces.

Samuel Hill, famous road builder of of England.

A grand jury has begun probing in-

A caucus shows that the Democratic senators have a majority of one in favor of tariff reform.

A noted Tacoma politician has returned from the East, lauding President Wilson and his policies.

party is forming in South Arfica, as a result of the big miners' strike.

Mount Tamalpais, San Francisco's most noted resort of scenic beauty, is swept by a disastrous brush fire.

Chicago authorities declare that the at the mines. They might start loot- other foundries. producer gets only 52 per cent of the ing and killing if unloosed. Casualties resulting from the fight- SUMMER SCHOOL NEAR LAKE money paid by consumers for berries ing Saturday are now estimated at in that city. 110. Two officers, three soldiers and

The government won its first legal test case involving the constitutionality of the law regulating wireless telegraphy and telephony.

The First-Second National bank of the Typographical Union will publish Pittsburg was closed by order of bank a paper giving colorless reports of the examiners, and three other large events. banks have gone into the hands of receivers as a result.

General Amarando Riva, national chief of police, was shot and mortally wounded by General Asbert, governor of Havana province, whose private club was raided and a number of members arrested and fined for gambling.

Roosevelt demands that the nation SERVIANS ADMIT REVERSES visits to the place and have secured be prepared at all times for war.

The total death roll from heat in the East and Middle West has reached 350.

Fighting between Bulgarians and Servians is said to be bloodiest in Balhas addressed a note to Bulgaria, forkans history. mally breaking off diplomatic tions and announcing the recall of the John Cort has quit the theater business in Seattle and the Northwest and minister at Sofia. gone to New York.

in a Gettysburg hotel when some one used abusive words against Lincoln.

Sentiment in Wall street is becoming more cheerful.

Witness in lobbying investigation admits using names of various congressmen in operations to hoax Wall Street financiers

Owing largely to the activities of contends, however, that this Bulgarian Senator Jones, of Washington, no success was insignificant compared woman can buy intoxicating drinks in with the Servian successes against the the City of Washington.

Another semi-official communication says last week's battles were the long-A thunder storm swept the Gettysburg battlefield for nearly an hour, bringing relief from the sweltering heat to the civil war veterans.

tical Work. State Exhibit in 1915.

OREGON STATE NEWS IN GENERAL

Industrial and Educational Items of Interest To Oregonians

Salem-R. A. Booth, Eugene; C. L. Co Author with A. Conan Doyle of The Hound of the Baskervilles, & Additional troops guarded the Rand More than $800 has been saved the state by one piece of work in the Hawly, Polk county; W. L. Thomp-foundry of the Oregon Agricultural son, Pendleton, and O. M. Clark and club, the scene of serious encounters Saturday. A great mob assembled there, hooting and jeering the troops. A huge meeting was held to cele-brate the strikers' victory. The lead-practice, the students have made the charge of the Oregon exhibits at the THE MYSTERY OF ers invited the men to attend the fun-eral of those killed, whom they des-pipes to be placed in the tunnel for tion in San Francisco in 1915. They the extension of the heating plant, and were appointed by a committee named the manhole rings and covers. During the year the foundry has consisting of Governor West, Secreat the last session of the legislature, = the Northwest, called on King George, eral Gladstone's recall be demanded made fourteen runs, aggregating nine tary of State Olcott, State Treasurer A ballot of the Amalgamated So-tons of good castings. These were Kay, Speaker of the House McArthur used in the shops, in repair work, and and President of the Senate Malarkey,

A grand jury has begun proving in-to charges of graft in the St. Louis municipal assembly. the city of Engineers of the whole reef gave a vast majority in favor of ac-cepting the proposed settlement. The college. Thus fourteen departments of the college. Thus fourteen departments of the to charges of graft in the St. Louis assembly. council of the society adopted a reso- were served during the college year, will organize immediately, as it has lution providing for the calling of a including the dairy, agriculture, chem-strike a month hence should the griev-istry, experimental engineering, the cess of Oregon's undertaking will de-

"I have a cab waiting for you, sir. various shops, physical training and pend upon the work of the commission "Are you from the Elms?" in expending $175,000 appropriated by "Yes, sir. Miss Sherrick sent me the tickets.

nance.

It is 'reported that a revolutionary is forming in South Arfica, as a have already commanded the news-papers to cease publication until fur-prepares them to do good work, giving members of the commission believe it up the steep of the narrow street. ther notice. They count on the gov-them to become proficient in a short ing. ernment's fear of the natives, 200,000 them to become proficient in a short ing. The bill places in the hands of the until, at a word from our youthful ther notice. They count on the gov- them a foundation such as will enable will be ample for an adequate show- past the Star and Garter (the hostelry > salaries of employes, and the general As we stepped out a girl swung open induct of the state's affairs. the gate and stood confronting us. Members of the commission will re-ceive no salaries. Mr. Booth was se-ture, with the delicacy of the blonde lected to represent the Southern dis- coloring a beautiful face. There was appointment with him for one o'clock > > calamity.

"Yes, Miss Sherrick."

spector which ever invited the trust of the innocent, and also, to be frank, no inconsiderable proportion of the have noticed a similar confidence inspired by certain of the more fa-

the arm and led me back towards The Chronicles of Addington Peace use. He looked very white and ill. I still begged for an explanation, and at last he told me the truth. My Uncle, Colonel Bulstrode, had been found lying in the road stabbed to death with a spear. They had no Idea who the murderer might be. "They brought up the body to the ouse. Afterwards they let me see him. Even in death his face was convulsed with passion. Oh, it is dread ful, dreadful!'

Her reserve gave way all in a moment, and she burst into a fit of sobbing, hiding her face in her hands. It was some time before she regained her self-control and when she spoke again it was with difficulty and in de mother's two brothers, Colonel Bul- tached sentences.

strode and Mr. Anstruther Bulstrode. "It was about three o'clock," she Colonel Bulstrode, who had been in said. "Mr. Boyne came into the room the Indian Staff Corps, had retired where I was. He told me that my unsaid. "Mr. Boyne came into the room the year before my father's death, cle had spoken very bitterly to him in and taken this house. It was with their interview, and that there had him that I went to live. Richmond been a quarrel between them; but suited him, for he could spend the day Mr. Boyne's sorrow was sincere. I at his London club and yet be home am sure it was sincere. Afterwards he begged me not to believe any

"My uncle Anstruther was also an rumors I might hear about him. Then Anglo-Indian. He had been for many he went away. Afterwards, as I was years a planter in Ceylon. It was on the Colonel's advice that he took a walking down the drive with a pohouse near us when he came home liceman. Several of the servants were gathered at the front door watching and pointing. I don't know "I first met Mr. Boyne last Christmas, when we were skating on some how-but the suspicion came to meperhaps it was through what Cullen flooded meadows by the Thames. He is a lawyer, and, though he is doing had said. I ran down the stairs and well, is by no means a rich man. Un- ordered them to answer. At last they told me-he had been arrested-for fortunately, I am an heiress, Inspec-

the murder." We waited for a while, and then the little inspector rose, and, in his "Colonel Bulstrode expected me to courteous manner, offered her his nake what he called a first-rate marriage. Mr. Boyne and I had been enarm. She took it, looking at him gaged for two weeks, and at last we through her tears.

"He is innocent, Mr. Peace," she decided to tell the Colonel. We knew there would be trouble, but there was said. nothing to be gained by continued

"I trust so, Miss Sherrick." They moved off up the walk, I fol-lowing behind them. We emerged from the shrubbery on to a broad The house, a sprawling old lawn. mansion of red brick, was before us. We crossed the grass, and, turning an angle of the house, came to the porch. from which a drive curled away upper garden, which lies at the furth-er side of the house. I wandered amongst the foliage of an avenue of about for some time in great misery. elms. The central hall was better fitted When I heard the stable clock chime for a museum than a habitation of comfort-loving folk. Bronze gods the half-hour, I started back to the house. It must have been decided and goddesses glimmered in the between them one way or the other. "I had reached the drive and was ners, dragons carved in teak glared mous doctors. So I was not surprised walking up to the front door when I upon the eastern arms and armor when Miss Sherrick walked up to saw Cullen, the butler, come running that lined the walls, the duller hus raid in 1896 and the outbreak of the planned in the years to come to hold all the work at some advantageous Dr. F. H. Hayward to Make Adpoint on the shores of the lake. This dress at Summer School. has an altitude of 4400 feet. University of Oregon, Eugene -Prominent educators of Oregon and at President Homan and Vice Presiwho were threatening to dynamite the dent Todd, of Willamette, have been least two other men of note in the edworking upon this summer school plan ucational world will take part on the for a year. They have made several program of an educational conference called for Friday and Saturday, July the assistance of the citizens there as well as that of the school authorities 25 and 26, as a part of the summer of Wallowa county and the educators school sessions of the University of of the border land of Idaho, Oregon Oregon. Besides a lecture on the cial status of the teacher in Great Britain, by Dr. F. H. Hayward, inland district.

Apple Association Grows.

Joseph, In Wallowa County, Chosen by University.

from July 14 to August 22, inclusive,

Joseph is selected because it is situated near Lake Wallowa and it is Unions' leaders, with the result that the Typographical Union will publish summer school at Lake Joseph, Or.,

Willamette University, Salem-The

Hood River-At a special meeting recently the stockholders of the White Salmon Valley Apple Growers' asso-ciation, comprised of the growers of seven men were stabbed in a fight statement, however, describing the Husum and Underwood in Southern Washington, just across the Columbia from Hood River, voted unanimously to affiliate with the North Pacific Distributors, their connection to be made through the Apple Growers' association, the amalgamated selling associations of this city.

that after holding a greatly superior force in check the Servians were A number of apple orchards of this smaller district will come into bearing this year, and the coommunity will ship out a large quantity of peaches.

> Pears Will Be Exhibited. Medford-At a meeting of the Commercial club a campaign was launched to make Jackson County Fair distinest, the bloodiest and the hardest fought of all the battles in the Balkan giushed each year by its exhibit of war. The Servians lost 15,000 killed pears. Medford people are of the and wounded, and the Bulgarians 20. opinion that no district in the world

Belgrade-The Servian government and Washington.

spector of schools of London, England, there will be papers by Superintendent Meek, of Boise, Idaho; Superintendent Alderman, of Portland; Superintendent Hug, of Eugene; Schafer, of University of Oregon; Professor Ressler, of Oregon Agricultural college, and many other edu-

> Presentation of the papers is intended to open the way to general discussion of the different problems presented.

Seaside - With the closing of a lease, presumably with A. Welch, electric power magnate of the Northwest, Seaside is assured of a sawmill, which will begin operation about October 1 next. The lease was made by Washington capitalists through J. E. Oates. Other names were withheld. The lease runs for 50 years.

Construction of the mill will start August 1. Considerable money has cators of the state.

Big Mill Goes to Seaside.

Julia

There was that about the little inguilty to their special disadvantage.

trict, Mr. Hawley the Willamette val- fear in her blue eyes, a fear that widley, Mr. Thompson Eastern Oregon, ened and fixed them; and a tremor and Messrs. Logan and Clark the Port- of the full red lips that told of a great "Inspector Addington Peace?" LONDON MAN WILL LECTURE commission the entire supervision of conductor, the cab drew up at the building or buildings, employes, wicket-gate in a fence of split oak.

By B. FLETCHER ROBINSON

Miss Sherrick, "and when he died he left as my guardians and trustees my in plenty of time for dinner.

"I understand, Miss Sherrick."

postponement. Mr. Boyne made an

"The morning seemed as if it were never to end. As the hour approached I could wait in my room no longer.

I slipped out of a side door into the

this spring.

tor Peace.

today.

Copyright by W. G. CHAPPIAN

THE JADE SPEAR

"Are you Inspector Peace, Sir?"

er's boy, and he stood on the platform with a solemn, if cheruble, counte-his head as he felt in his pocket for of Richmond station regarding us

The little inspector nodded

He looked what he was, a garden-

Senator Hitchcock withdrew in disgust from the Democratic caucus because that body refused to put a graduated income tax on tobacco production.

Fifty cents a head was charged visitors to inspect the steamship Imperator on her first trip to New York, and the money, over $15,000, is being used for charity.

It is believed the Democratic caucus will defeat the tariff bill amendment prohibiting the importation of goods made wholly or in part by children under 14 years of age.

PORTLAND MARKETS

Wheat-Track prices: Club, 91@ 92c; bluestem, 95@96c; red Russian, 90c; valley, 93c.

Oats-No. 1 white, $29@30 per ton; stained and off grade, less. Corn - Whole, $28.50; cracked, $29.50 per ton. Barley-Feed, $23@23.50 per ton.

Eastern Oregon timothy, Hay choice, $18@19 per ton; alfalfa, $13 @14.

Onions-Red and yellow, $1.10@ 1.25 per sack.

Vegetables - Artichokes, 75c per beans, 4@6c pound; cabbage, 11@2c; cauliflower, $2 per crate; cucumbers, 90c per box; eggplant, 25c pound; head lettuce, 35@40c dozen; peas, 3@ 5c pound; peppers, 171@20c pound; radishes, 10@12c dozen; spinach, 75c box.

Green fruit - Apples, new, $1.25 box; old, nominal; strawberries $1.10@1.25 crate; cherries, 4@10c pound; apricots, $1.25@1.50 box; cantaloupes, $1.75@2.25 crate; peaches, 65c@$1.25 per box; plums, $1.50; raspberries, $1.25@1.50 per crate; loganberries, $1.25@1.50; blackberries, $1.75@2.

Poultry-Hens, 131(a)14c per pound; springs, 19@20c; turkeys, live, 16@ 20c; dressed, choice, 24@25c; ducks, 10@11c; geese, young, 121c.

Eggs - Oregon ranch, case count, 24@25c; candled, 26@28c.

per pound; prints, 32c. Pork-Fancy, 101@11c per pound. Veal-Fancy, 14c per pound. Hops-1912 erop, 13@15e pound; 1913 contracts, 15c.

per pound; valley, 18@19c per pound; mohair, choice 1913 clip, 31c.

Grain Bags-91@91c, Portland. Cattle-Choice steers, $7.75@8.25; good, $7.25@7.75; medium, $7@7.25; calves, $8@9; good heavy calves, tion at which 1200 delegates were $6,50@7.50: bulls, $4@6.

and the Bulgarians 20,-000. The Bulgarian losses were in- produces a pear that can equal in qualcreased by the bad organization of their Red Cross service and lack of ley, and they believe that this fact their Red Cross service and lack of communications and transports.

volak, where a desperate battle has en for the pear exhibit by the associabeen raging for three days.

Wilsons Worship Simply.

Cornish, N. H .-- In a quaint little church, a century old, where wor-shipped half a hundred country folk, President Wilson and his entire family listened to a sermon Sunday on the relation between the leader and the led.

No reference was made to the Presipendence of people in the ordiinter-de nary walks of life with those in high moisture in the ground, the month authority. Mrs. Wilson, Miss Eleanor, Dr. in an automobile with the President, quality as well as quantity. and in a little car behind were Miss Jessie Wilson and Francis Dowes Sayre, her fiancee.

Page's Salary Is Continued.

New York-Walter H. Page, Amer- pany, beyond Wendling, when operadozen; asparagus, Oregon, 50c@$1; ican ambassador in London, is still on tions are resumed after the Fourth of His salary as ambassador is $17,500 a dry season, is the reason for the pany will be diverted to nearby mills. Innocence that she could have made. year. When the post was first offered change. Four hundred and fifty men to Page he demurred because of his were included in the vacation order. lack of wealth. The firm, it is reported, decided to continue Page at his former salary on leave of absence.

Turn Gun on Federals.

Douglas, Ariz. - The bombardment of Guaymas was at its height July 4. reported refugees arriving here from the front. For the first time the insurgents' state troops brought into play three cannon captured from the federals, shelling the gulf town and Butter-City creamery, cubes, 30c the two federal gunboats lying in the The Tampico, in return, bomharbor. barded the insurgent positions in Empalme, where shells tore into the American Clubhouse. No Americans were injured. Soon the Tampico was Wool-Eastern Oregon, 101@161c forced to change anchorage.

Gladstone's Act Resented.

Pretoria, Transvaal-The recall of the governor general of the Union of South Africa, Viscount Gladstone, is choice cows, $6.50@7.25; good, demanded by the Federated Trades $6.25@6.50; medium, $6@6.25; choice Unions. At a meeting of the Federa-present, it was unanimously resolved town limits of Willamette failed of the committee from the Commercial was a garden bench, and there we uld be made known to the country It was reported that the Greeks at large through a permanent exhibit. from Doiran are advancing toward Ki- This year $250 in prizes will be givtion, and it is probable that other prizes will be offered for the sweepstakes exhibit.

Burns Has Heavy Rains.

Burns-This part of Oregon has been visited by the finest rain ever experienced at this time of the year. Beginning June 19 there was rain every day of the month. The total fall for dent by the Rev. J. E. Schneider, the the month was over 21 inches. July pastor, yet the theme he took was the is the great crop-maturing month in this latitude, and, with such generous should be a record-breaker. Ranges and the meadows were never better Cary T. Grayson, U. S. N., and a se- than at present, and the crop of upland cret service man, went to the church hay will be the best in many years in

Logging Road to Burn Oil. Eugene - Oil-burning locomotives

will be used exclusively on the logging lines of the Booth-Kelly Lumber com-

Charles T. Early, managing director him?" she said. the payroll of Doubleday, Page & Co., July lay-off. A tank to store 40,000 nounces that the big 180,000-capacity name?" World's Work. The salary of $35,000 engines will be changed over from the ed at Dee last week will be recona year which he receives from the firm is said to have made it possible for of the wood-burner, even when protect-be driven by electricity, as was the old im to accept the ambassadorship, ed with screens, to set fires during the plant.

Early,

June Rain Record Broken.

Baker-More rain fell in Baker during June than in any previous June since the establishment of the local station of the weather bureau 23 years ago. According to Observer Mize, Jupiter Pluvius contributed 2.72 inches of water in the 30 days, while the record before was 2.59 inches, made

Klamath Timber May Be Sold. Klamath Falls-The sale of another large timber tract within the Klamath E. Dunston, chief forester of the Indian service, who is here in connection with the matter. These sales are made from timber belonging to the Indians as a community, and not individual allotments.

Town Extension "Killed."

been paid to Olson Bros. for a supply of logs already cut. Olson Bros. have guaranteed to supply the mill with logs during the life of the lease. The mill site adjoins the Seaside electric power plant, adjoining the site of an old mill which has been out of use for some years.

The deal assures Seaside of an industrial population throughout the year.

Women Exchange Cooking,

Hood River-number of families of the Upper Hood River valley have adopted a unique plan for conducting their household work on a co-operative basis this summer.

In this district domestics are scarce and the households, all within a short distance of one another, will assemble alternately at one of the homes, where the meals will be prepared. During the past two weeks the residents of the China Hill district of the valley have been taking their meals at the home of Homer A. Rogers, a Portland real estate man, who passes the summers on his ranch here.

Big Mill to Be Rebuilt.

smaller mills in the valley.'

of the Oregon Lumber company, an- "I had not heard. What is his his arms and shouting. Cullen is so walking up the stairs to her room, as

"Mr. Boyne.

Unitim

"The man who found the body." When he was some twenty yards off. "Yes. The man I intend to marry." away towards the front door as M I liked that sentence. It was The orders of the lumber com- stronger than any protestations of his trying to avoid me. called to him.

in an odd fashion.

black and ugly work."

ner frightened me.

'Our policy has been," said Mr. Peace marked it, too, for he smilled, "to spend our money as close watching her with his head to one to home as possible. A great many side in his solemn fashion. of the orders will be filled by the "You cannot think he is g

"You cannot think he is guilty," she said quietly. "You are too clever for that, Inspector Peace." "My dear young lady, at two o'clock Hood River Scenery Lauded. Hood River-B. R. Baumgardt, of I heard that a Colonel Bulstrode, of Los Angeles, an astronomer and lec- the Elms, Richmond, had been stabturer, who has traveled in most of the bed to death in a road near his ceeded in all the other months only five times. Mount Hood from the north side, de- by five times. It is now it was going for a doctor.' surpassed in any part of the world. half-past three. As you will observe, "I did not wait to he 'I do not think the Hudson River my work has not yet commenced." scenery can be compared with that of your wonderful gorge," he said, nor wished you to hear my story before

'do I believe the noted crags of the you saw-the police up at the house. Indian reservation is proposed by C. Rhine can equal in grandeur your tow- I should like to tell you all I know." ering cliffs and natural minarets."

Tillamook to Have Fair.

was called for the purpose of organiz- and the winding walk brought us to ing the Tillamook County Fair asso- an open space in the laurels and

THERE WAS FEAR IN HER BLUE EYES, A FEAR THAT WIDENED AND FIXED THEM.

him, and laid her hand on his arm, jout of the Wilderness-as we call jof ivory and jade contrasted with the with a confident appeal in her eyes. the shrubberies where we now are— brilliant turquoise of old Pekin vases. "Do you know they have arrested and so across the lawn towards me. It was here, among these spoils of He was in an excited state, waving the east, that Miss Sherrick left us, stout and respectable that I could fair a figure of beauty in distress as only conclude that he had gone mad. a man might see.

As she disappeared, a tall, thin felhe caught sight of me, and slunk low in plain clothes steped out of a door on our right and saluted the inspector

"What is the matter, Cullen?' I (CHRONICLES TO BE CONTINUED.)

Alphabet for China.

"He slackened his pace, and finally Chinese scholars who are dissatisstopped, with his eyes staring at me fied with the ideographic characters in which their language has always been "You come in with me, miss,' he written have set out to form an alpha stammered. 'It's no mischief of your bet, which they hope to see gradually making. Eh, eh, but it's ugly workadopted by their countrymen.

"'What do you mean, Cullen?' According to a writer in the New York World, Chow Hi Chu, secretary said as holdly as I could, for his manof the Chinese legation at Rome, assisted by Messrs. Wan and Chou, sub-"'The colonel has come by an acsecretaries, and by Signor Rivetta, procident, miss, down by the wicket-gate. fessor of Japanese and Chinese at the "I did not wait to hear more. I Oriental institute of Naples, is at work was very fond of my guardian, Mr. on the project. The latter gives this "I sent the boy to meet you. I Pence. He had a hot temper, but to description of the alphabet that has me he had ever been kind and consid- resulted from their labors:

erate. As I started, however, Cullen "To represent exactly all the sounds came panting up and tried to turn me of the Chinese language, we had to back, waving his hands. Lunatic or draw upon almost all existing alphanot, I did not mean to let him fright- bets. The alphabet we have composed you find us a place where we shall en me. So I avoided him, and set off consists of 42 characters, of which 23 running across the grass to the Wil- are vowels and 19 are consonants. Of tendance of dairymen at the court-house here last week, when a meeting the wicket gate. A couple of turns we have just come. I had almost Greek, four from the Russian, five reached it when I met Mr. Boyne. I from the Latin and one from the Chiwas surprised, for I thought he had nese. Of the nine others, two are Willamette-The plan to extend the ciation. Chairman Will Spalding, one rhododendrons. On the further side already gone home. Beyond him I what we call 'modified' or 'prolonged. could see the gate, with two of our and seven are reversed.

$6.500@7.50; buils, $4@6.Hogs—Light, $8.75@9.05; heavs$7.25@7.95.$7.25@7.95.$7.25@7.95.$3@4.50; lambs, $5@6.75 able." said the little inspector.

Tillamook-There was a good at- not be disturbed?"

"Can

"That will, doubtless, be very valu-

