CARY'S Mercantile Company.

CARY-ECKER

At the parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Vancouver, Wash., at 12 o'clock, Aug. 6, 1913, occurred the marriage of William F. Cary and Miss Val Ecker, both of Estacada. Rev. J. M. Cause of the First Methodist Episcopal Church performed the marriage ceremony.

The wedding party consisted of the bride's mother, Mrs. Ecker; Mrs. M. H. Boyle, sister of the bride and M. H. Boyle and son Walden. The ring service was used and after congratulations and best wishes the party, which went to Vancouver by auto, again took the car for Portland. After luncheon the bride and groom left for

Newport on the seashore to spend a few days, after which they will take a trip through California or the east, their plans not yet being fully decided upon.

Mr. Cary needs no introduction to the people of this vicinity, as he has resided at Estacada for a number of years and has been identified with the growth and prosperity of the place as one of its best business men. He is one of the firm of the Cary's Mercantile Co., besides having considerable real estate interests. He is a man of good principal, fair in all his dealings and well worthy of the young lady whom he has chosen to share his joys and sorrows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ecker, was born in Nebraska and has only been a resident of this place for a few months, coming here from Winside, Nebr., where she graduated from the High school and afterwards attended Morningside College, at Morningside, Iowa. She has been a worthy assistant in the Progress office since coming here. Naturally of a cheerful and genial disposition, loyal and true, she makes friends wherever she goes. We might add more but modesty and relationship forbids.

The Progress joins with the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Cary in wishing them a long, pleasant and prosperous life.

Mrs. LaMoine Livingstone at the Family theater August 13.

NOT GUILTY

G. A. Stone, the young man from Barton, charged with cruelty to dumb animals, was found not guilty by Judge Givens Saturday. A Mr. Hass, who some weeks ago was fined for abusing a horse, and a young man by the name of Frank Wilson, who is in the employ of Hass attempted to prove that young Stone was responsible for the injury inflicted on the animal. They also appeared to be prejudiced against the defendant and very eager to place the blame on Stone, who is a clean-cut intelligent looking young fellow. About a dozen of the prominent men of Barton and vicinity voluntarily offered evidence to show that Stone was a number one hand with horses and some of the men testified that they had let him have their horses for a week at a time, the horses always being returned in good condition. After both sides had submitted their testimony, the judge gave his verdict, dispensing with the usual arguments of the attorneys. E. D. Bartlett defended Mr. Stone and Humane Officer Wade of Portland represented the prosecution.

UNION MEAT CO. 3 BRADFORDS 2

The first of a series of games for the amateur base ball championship of Portland was played on the Estacada lot Sunday between the Union

Meat Co.'s team and the Bradford Clothing Company resulting in a victory by the former after nine innings of rattling good ball. The contest was a hurler's battle from start to finish, with Campion having a shade the better of the argument, allowing but two hits, the first in the sixth inning by Marshal and the other a home run by Morgan in the eighth. The Bradford other run was made in the second round, a runner going to first by being hit by a pitched ball and scored on a three base over throw of second by the catch. The Meats got all three of their scores in the seventh, the first two up was safe on errors, Campion hit safe scoring one. A double steal sent another across the plate and the third on a passed ball, both Campion and Williams pitched themselves out of holes in the 4th and 6th innings Williams allowed but three hits and struck out 9. Campion allowed 2 hits and struck out 10. Ikey Cohen, wearing an Estacada uniform played a good game at short for the Meat men.

The base ball teams of Eagle Creek and Sandy played a game after the Union Meat- Bradford struggle had ended, Eagle Creek winning 16 to 2. The Creek battery consisted of Hal Chase Smith on the flinging end and the receiving was done by a member of the Logan club. Other familiar forms seen in the E. C. lineup were, Sagar and Ed and Roy Douglas.
