Quite a large crowd of boosters for the home boys were in attendance at the foot ball game last Saturday afternoon between Portland Academy and the Estacada high school boys. Our boys did some fine work but were outclassed with their opponents, as the visitors were large husky fellows who had had much experience in the game. There were the usual delays on account of some player getting hurt, but fortunately no bad injury was sustained on either side. One of the Portland boys received a sprained ankle and "Bob" Morton was "knocked out" a couple of times, but a little thing like that caused no immediate alarm and the game went on merrily. The contest closed with a score of 30 to nothing in favor of the Portland lads.

CIVIC IMPROVEMENT CLUB

There was too much business on hand at the Civic club meeting yesterday afternoon, to manage comfortably. Miss Price was here and gave a talk on the public library question which is being brought before the people and which is to be settled at the November election.

After the library address several committees reported and some new committees appointed. It was the wish of the club to have permanent quarters and the Reed building, which has been used for the Rummage sale through the courtesy of Mr. Reed, has been rented and will hereafter be used as a home for the club. A thorough renovating of the room will take place, a stove and other furniture provided and the room made as comfortable as possible. The club has been accepting the hospitality of the Cary Mercantile Co. for a meeting place and feel deeply grateful for the courtesies extended.

A series of dances are to be given by the club for the purpose of raising funds for lighting the streets. The first will be a Halloween ball. Posters will soon announce particulars. The committee to make arrangements for this dance is, Mesdames Wm. Kurasch, Dave Eschleman, Al Lindsay, Fred Jorg and W. F. Cary.

The question of joining the state federation of Women's clubs came up and was laid on the table until the next meeting.

Estacada will have a Halloween dance at the pavilion.

Wm. F. Cary has moved into his own residence in Terrace Addition.

Saturday was a busy day in Estacada and the business men report trade good.

This office printed bills for a big dance at Eagle Creek Saturday evening, October 25.

The Kimmel new residence is beginning to show up nicely on the hill in the east part of town.

The Progress editor now occupies the Cary house on Broadway, south of the Estacada Furniture Co. building.

There will be a football game at Estacada Saturday, Oct. 18 at 2:30 P. M., between the Hillsboro High and Estacada High.

L. Hale of Currinsville brought a stalk of corn to this office Saturday which shows what can be raised in the corn line in Oregon.

The Civic Improvement club's Rummage sale was opened Saturday and was well patronized. Remember the days, Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.

On account of not getting enough applicants to enter the singing contest at the Family theatre, the contest, which was to have been given Saturday night, was called off.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church will meet on Wednesday, Oct. 15th, at 2:30 p. m., at the home of the president, Mrs. William Kaake. All members are especially requested to be present.

The Estacada high school football boys and students had a great frolic Friday night in what they termed a rally.
