Following are measures upon which Referendum has been ordered by petition of the people and are to be voted upon next Tuesday, Nov. 4:

- State University Repair Fund.
- University of Oregon New Building Appropriation.
- Sterilization Act.
- Workmen's Compensation Act.
- Clackamas County School Superintendent Act.
- Clackamas County Public Library Act.

Oregon City is now in the throes of a Sunday closing fight.

The Weekly Oregonian from now until Jan. 1, 1915 for only 75c at this office.

The Oregonian says, "Butter from far away Siberia has just arrived on the market. But did it come unattended?"

If you favor a County Public Library with branch libraries to be supported by a county levy of not more than 45 cents on fifteen hundred dollars of assessment, vote YES at the special election next Tuesday.

The Civic Improvement club of Estacada is very much interested in the County Public Library Act, which is to be voted upon next Tuesday, as the club has been agitating the question of a public library for Estacada. If it carries Estacada will be the seat of one of the largest branches.

Dr. J. A. Van Brackle, Clackamas county health officer, who is having all kinds of trouble to hold the office because he is an Osteopath, says: "If the medical doctors think they can oust me from the office they are going to have a mighty hard fight on their hands." It is the first case of the kind in the United States and the plucky osteopath says he will fight it through the Supreme Court.

The Workmen's Compensation Act, was framed by a commission representing the Grange, the employers and the workers. The law provides automatic compensation for injured workmen and their widows and children in case of death, and is designed to do away with actions at law against employers for damages in cases where workmen are injured or killed. The fund from which compensation is to be paid, is made up from the following sources: Three-fourths to be paid by the employer, one-eighth by the workmen and one-eighth by the state.

It is said that the Oregon State University is the most poorly supported of any other state University. While some argue that the country boys and girls who attend, in most cases go to the cities for employment, is not a very strong argument, for if we did not have the University people would go to states to reside where their children could not only get the high school advantages, but a college education as well. If the state does not maintain its University the school goes backward. For this reason the appropriation bills for the University of Oregon should be supported.

The County Superintendent Act provides that the county school superintendent of Clackamas county shall spend at least four days of each week in the supervision of rural schools, that the office be allowed additional clerk hire and that the salary be fixed at $1600. The County Educational Board agreed with the members of the Legislature that one supervisor, would be dispensed with if the bill became a law. Under this agreement the county would save several hundred dollars each year. In our judgement this bill should become a law as the salary is very low as compared with other counties. Clackamas county is fourth in the number of children of school age, fifth in number of teachers but is twenty-fifth in superintendent's salary.

GARFIELD
 Mr. Hewitt of Portland spent a few hours on his ranch last Sunday. A good number enjoyed the meeting and program at the Grange Saturday, Oct. 25th. The Rev. Mr. Rees of Estacada was taken in as a member.

Miss Roberta Reid of Portland spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Reid.

Jerome Schultz and Harry Reid enjoyed William Faversham's production of Julius Caesar.

The new home of Ralph Lemon is very near completion.

The ranchers are beginning to "beat it for the tall timbers" in hopes of getting a stray buck.

Cheer up! Two new settlers have moved in among us. While there are signs of life, there is hope.

ALSPAUGH
 J. W. Dowty was a Portland visitor Saturday.

Fred Ely of Portland was visiting with J. W. Dowty and family last week.

Chas. Sparks and wife were Estacada visitors Saturday.

Edgar Heiple has been sawing wood throughout the neighborhood.

Miss Alta Sarver went to Portland this week to secure a position there.

The Modern Priscilla were very delightfully entertained by Mrs. Mary Heiple Saturday.

Ed Still and sons have been shipping a carload of apples to Portland.

Edgar Heiple and Veterinary White of Portland went hunting last week and killed a number of China pheasants.

A number of people attended the dance at Eagle Creek Saturday night.

Newspaper Law
 The supreme court of United States recently made a ruling which in substance makes the subscriber who takes his paper out of the postoffice and refuses to pay the subscription, guilty of felony and liable to arrest as any other who defrauds, says the Olympia Independent.

The following is a synopsis of the U. S. supreme court decision regarding delinquent subscriptions and is published as a matter of information for all those who are subscribers to newspapers:

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to renew their subscription.
2. Subscribers ordering the discontinuance of their periodical the publisher may continue to send it until all arrearages are paid.
3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodical from the postoffice, they are responsible until they settle their bill and order their paper discontinued.
4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher and any papers are sent to the former address, subscribers are responsible.
5. Courts have decided that refusing periodicals from the office or moving and leaving them uncalled for is prima facie evidence of intention to defraud.
6. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice at the end of time if they do not want to continue taking it, otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice with payment is sent to the publisher.

CROWNED HIMSELF.
 An Impromptu Ceremony in Which King George IV. Figured.
 That was a curious sort of impromptu coronation in which his majesty King William IV. of England figured. Things did not go very well with Earl Grey's government after the second reading of the first reformed bill had been carried by a majority of one in 1831, and one Friday in April they suddenly got the king to go down and prorogue parliament in person. Somebody went off to the Tower to fetch the crown, and with a search party of attendants his majesty drove down to the home of beds. What happened there is described in Greville's memoirs.

The king ought not properly to have worn the crown, never having been crowned, but when he was in the robes room he said to Lord Hastings: "Lord Hastings, I wear the crown. Where is it?" It was brought to him, and when Lord Hastings was going to put it on his head he said, "Nobody shall put the crown on my head but myself." He put it on and then turned to Lord Grey and said, "Now, my lord, the coronation is over."

The crown did not fit very well, we are told, but the prerogative was successfully effected.—London Chronicle.

Tuesday a fellow by the name of Armstrong, who is straw boss on the bridge crew working on the Eagle Creek bridge, nearly met with a serious accident. He was on the bridge signaling to the conductor of a car which was going over, when a piece of iron struck him, but for the quick assistance of a train man, he would have received greater injuries.

The Best Light At The Lowest Cost

ELECTRIC LIGHT is the most suitable for homes, offices, shops and other places needing lights. Electricity can be used in any quantity, large or small, thereby furnishing any required amount of light. Furthermore, electric lamps can be located in any place, thus affording any desired distribution of light.

No other lamps possess those qualifications, therefore it is not surprising that electric lamps are rapidly replacing all others in modern establishments.
