ESTACADA PROGRESS

Published Every Thursday Morning at ESTACADA, OREGON NINA B. ECKER, Editor and Manager

Thursday, November 27, 1913

You may talk about the eagles—the only bird of fame.

We couldn't have Cascade county, but we could have the football game.

The editor of this paper hunted around the office to find a rooster, who might crow over the victory over Oregon City in the football game, but failed to find one.

It is said that Oregon produced more corn during the year 1913 than ever before in the history of the state, and while a large part of the product went into the silo, a large acreage was allowed to mature and was harvested in the good old way.

Five million salmon, salmon trout and brook eggs are to be shipped into Clackamas county this month from the U. S. fish hatchery at White Salmon, Wash.

PIGS TO BE GIVEN SCHOOLS

Every city and country school in Oregon and Washington that wants a pig can have one with the compliments of the Portland Union Stock Yards.

It is expected that the pigs will be sold when they reach a marketable size. The stock yards will buy them back at the market price and the schools can use the money as they choose.

Steady officials expect the boys and girls of the various schools to compete for the distinction of making the most money out of their pork stock.

M. E. Church News
