H. Joyner was in Estacada to attend Masonic lodge Tuesday night and Wednesday went to Portland. Mr. Joyner is a construction contractor and has been away from home most of the time for the past few years, but now thinks he will settle down on his farm, which if the Progress editor has been informed rightly, is a pretty good place to stay.

The Fred Jorg home was a scene of a merry Thanksgiving party Thursday, and some of the guests remained most of this week. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Astle, Mr. and Mrs. Benison and son, Miss Benison, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Renlant and family, Ralph Finch, William Nutt and Mrs. T. J. Hashberger, father and mother of Mrs. Jorg and brother, L. L. Hashberger, all of Portland.

THANKSGIVING DANCE A BRILLIANT SUCCESS

One of the most brilliant and successful dances ever held at Estacada, was the Thanksgiving dance Thursday evening, given under the auspices of the members of the C. I. C. The pavilion presented a most attractive appearance, being artistically decorated with green leaves and yellow chrysanthemums. The grand march, led by Mrs. C. F. Frazier and son Paul, started the evening's program at 9 o'clock and dancing was kept up until 3 o'clock in the morning. Favours were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dunoon of Portland, in the prize waltz contest. After the prize waltz, supper was served in the C. I. C. hall and here too, the color scheme of yellow and green was carried out. The long tables with snow white linen, beautiful center pieces and silver, presented a most charming appearance and the Thanksgiving menu of turkey, cranberry sauce, vegetables, apple pie, and many other good things, were especially tempting.

B. O. Boswell acted as floor manager at the pavilion, which insured good order. The music was first-class and the dance as a whole was considered one of the most elaborate and brilliant successes of the season.

The proceeds of the dance amounted to nearly $150.00 and notwithstanding the heavy expense, will net the C. I. C. ladies $57.00 which will be placed in the city light fund.

BASKET BALL BEGINS

With the closing of the football season, that has been the source of so much pleasure and recreation, the basket ball season is about to start. Arrangements for hall and other details are made and Estacada will see as good games played in her town as can be seen in any part of the state. The Estacada Commercial Club team has a well filled schedule for the winter season with some of the fastest teams in the state and is expecting engagements with the Commercial Club teams of Oregon City, Silverton and others known to be fast.

Neat orange yellow with navy blue 'E' uniforms are being ordered and the appearance will be striking.

The games will keep up the spirit for which Estacada is known all over the state.

DIRECTORS' MEETING

At a special meeting of the board of directors of the Estacada State Bank, held yesterday, Mr. Irwin D. Wright was elected as cashier and director of the bank to succeed Mr. Louis E. Belfils.

The new change means the retirement of Mr. Belfils, but he will assist in the affairs of the bank until about the first of the year or until Mr. Wright thoroughly becomes acquainted with the people and conditions in this community. Mr. Belfils has not made any plans as to his future but more than likely his family will remain here until late in the spring.

As we go to press we hear of the death of Carl Anderson of Elwood. He was found dead in a barn at East Portland.

The basketball season opens tomorrow, Friday night, with a game between the Portland Academy and the Estacada High School teams. The game will be played at the pavilion. See posters.

Sunday was Miss Myrtle and Ray Woodie's birthday and to fittingly celebrate the anniversary, a number of friends and relatives were invited for dinner at the J. P. Woodie home. Among the guests were Roy Woodie and family, Miss Mattie Lewis, Claude Woodie, U. S. Morgan and wife and Harry Morgan.

The city of Estacada presents quite a Christmas appearance already. The Cary Mercantile Co. store has handsome windows and a large stock of Christmas goods. Also at the Estacada Pharmacy Old Santa has arrived and Miss Sturgeon has a nice line of goods. The other stores are well supplied, so that people should buy at home. Do your shopping early.
