NEWS OF THE WEEK

Throughout the World.

A house committee proposes to build dynasty. mail cars for government use.

in a currency debate in the senate.

House newlyweds, have arrived in London.

A terrific snow storm, accompanied by a 60-mile gale, swept the New England states.

The president of the Missouri Pacific says low rates threaten the solvency of the railroads

Democratic leaders regard Wilson's

It is claimed the Coast artillery is short of men necessary to properly man the fortifications. Cincinnati was practically "dry' for several days, owing to the breaking of a 60-inch water main. An international campaign to preserve the game birds and animals of the world has been started at Berne, Portland, Or., gave a "municipal" band concert, charging 10 cents admission, and took in $66. The expense was $200. the house could not hold the crowds who bought tickets.

Vilhjalmar's Stefansson's Arctic ex-water against the lenses of the light or altogether. on Tillamook Rock, off the Oregon water, breaking one of the glasses.

Remnants of the Mexican federal garrison of Chihuahua together with letters, telephone calls or personal and many civilians, have reached Ojinga, across the Rio Grande from Presidio, Tex., after a desperate march of 185 miles through a region Washington College Seeks parched by heat and devastated by the

Dr. Anna Shaw has been re-elected before she could land.

Wash., won about $1000 in prizes at the Spokane Apple show.

tionl of the United States.

fore congress to reimburse rural mail carriers for extra work put upon them by the parcel post system near Tamaulipas oil fields, 40 miles a week will return to work, according from the Texas border, and several to union officials. Several more team-

19, has written Governor West, of the labor temple.

Oregon, saying she is anxious to come No action was taken at the union West and marry some sober, indus-

PORTLAND MARKETS

Wheat-Track prices: Club, 82c; bluestem, 92c; forty-fold, 83c; red Russian, 80c; valley, 82c. Oats-No. 1 white, $25 ton.

Corn-Whole, $37; cracked, $38 ton. Barley-Feed, $24 per ton; brewing, $25,50@26; rolled, $26. Millfeed-Bran, $20.50@21 per ton; shorts, $22.50@23; middlings, $29@30. Hay-No. 1 Eastern Oregon tim-thy, $16; mixed timothy, $12@14; alfalfa, $13@13.50; clover, $9@10; valley grain hay, $12@13. Onions - Oregon, $2.50 per sack;

$2 f. o. b. shipping points.

Vegetables — Cabbage, 1@1½c per pound; cauliflower, $2.50 crate; eggplant, 10@121c pound; head lettuce, $2.25 crate; peppers, 5@7c pound; sprouts, 11c; artichokes, $1.50@1.75 zen; celery, $3.50 crate; turnips, $1.25 sack; carrots, $1.10; parsnips,

$1.25: beets, $1.25. Green Fruit — Apples, 60c@$2.25 box; pears, $1@1.50; grapes, Mala-$7.50@8.50 keg; grapes, crates, $1.50@1.75; cranberries, $11 barrel. Potatoes—Oregon, $1@1.10 hundred; buying price, 70@90c at shipping points; sweet potatoes, $2 crate. Poultry - Hens, 131@14c; springs, 13@13ac; turkeys, live, 20c; dressed, 25c; ducks, 12@15c; geese, 12@124c.

Eggs-Oregon fresh ranch, candled, 45c dozen; storage, 30@35c. Butter - Oregon creamery, prints, extras, 37@38c; cubes, extras, 34c; cubes, firsts, 32c. Pork—Fancy, 10½c pound. Veal—Fancy, 14c pound.

Hops-1913 crop, prime and choice, unsettled; 1912 crop, nominal. Wool — Valley, 16@17c; Eastern Oregon, 11@16c; mohair, 1913 clip,

25@26c pound. Hides Salted hides, 13c per pound; salt kip, 13@14c; salted calf, 18c; green hides, 12c; dry hides, 23½c, dry calf, 25c; salted bulls, 9c; green

Cattle - Prime steers, $7.25@7.85; the lowest submitted by three great ent was S. A. Edmunds choice, $7@7.25; medium, $6.75@7; choice cows, $6@6.25; medium, $5.75 @6: heifers, $6@6.75; light, calves, $8@9; heavy, $7@7.75; bulls, $5@ 6.25; stags, $5.50@6.25. Hogs - Light, $7.25@8; heavy,

$6.50@7.25. ep - Wethers, $4@5; $3.25@4: lambs, $4@6.

San Francisco Chinese

San Francisco-If the radical wing of the revolutionary party in China succeeds in its plans to start an up-Coneral Resume of Important Events rising for the overthrow of President

Party lines were entirely forgotten a currency debate in the senate.

Mr. and Mrs. Sayre, the White louse newlyweds, have arrived in condon.

Two thousand members of the suspices the show was held.

Young China association, at a secret railroad, declares the corn on display bushels. The most successful yields tons indorsing the plans of the radical compared favorably with any displayed at any show in the country, and says the exhibit demonstrates that promise to send their reserve fund condon. then it should be needed.

revolutionary forces in China.

Officials of the Young China association, which financed and directed nomination for president in the next the war against the Manchus from this city, explained that the revolutionary party in China was divided into radicals and conservatives. The radicals favor immediate rebellion to overthrow President Yuan Shi Kai, whom they charge with seeking to set himself up as emperor. The radicals risitor are directed by Dr. Sun Yat Sen, made. former provisional president of China, who, though in Kobe, is in complete ouch with the situation

City's Work Arranged to Benefit Workingmen

Portland-For the benefit of laborers and others unable to secure work A theatrical manager at Oregon during the winter months, the city City, Or., held a "fake" baby lottery, commission has decided to change its Oregon Boosters Make heavy construction season in the water and sewer departments from Summer Vilhjalmar's Stefansson's Arctic ex-ploration vessel, the Karluk, is drift-ing helplesely in an ice pack some ing helplessly in an ice pack some-where in the Arctic, with 25 of the through between now and spring as possible, and work will be shut down A terrific storm Nov. 30 dashed during the summer, either partially

The -change is season has been coast, 132 feet above average high brought about by labor conditions which members of the commission say are bad. Mayor Albee says there is not a day that he does not receive many other rebel troops and officers calls from persons who cannot get work and have families to support.

New Smut-Defying Wheat

college experiment station is trying regular exposition halls. head of the North American Woman to grow wheat which will resist smut, Suffrage association.

Denver, Colo., is completely tied up by a heavy snowstorm and blizzard.

Mrs. Pankhurst arrived in England and was arrested on board the steamer and was arrested on board the steamer where the college was told at the college extension be attention were William Hanley, ble attention were William Hanley, ble attention were William Hanley, school here. G. Schaefer said that the Harney county ranchman, and D. M. Lowe, special representative of the wheat which resists smut, but which has a low yield and milling quality. It has been crossed with Washington wheat of high yield and milling quality. Hanley gave two lectures interesting the consideration were William Hanley, ble attention were William Hanley, so & Washington will be the only on & Washington which has a low yield and milling quality. It has been crossed with Washington wheat of high yield and milling quality. Hanley gave two lectures interesting the consideration of the property of Fruitgrowers of North Yakima, have the good qualities of both.

L. C. Crow, of Pullman, president in Oregon, of the State Farmers' union, said the A tremendous fall of snow extends organization in five years had saved naded the different exhibits, accomover the entire Rocky Mountain sec- farmers over $3,000,000, an average panying from booth to booth the Roof $1500 for the 2000 members. He tary Quartet, of Chicago, singing Ore-

Teamsters Resume Work.

Rebels and federals have big fight teamsters who have been on strike for hundred federals are reported killed. owners signed union contracts within A French woman giving her age as the past few days, it was reported at meeting for a general settlement of Rogue River closed by law on Novemtrious farmer, and will work in the the strike, and only employes of the fields the same as Fernch peasant team-owners who have signed agreements to pay the union scale and not discriminate against union men will be permitted to return to work.

Postal Strike Postponed. Leicester, England-The threatened strike at Christmas of the government's 100,000 postal and telegraph employes probably will be postponed as a result of the action of a conference in which 200 delegates, representing 22,000 members of the postal organizations, participated. gates pledged themselves to push their original demand for a 15 per cent increase of wages throughout the serv-The strike proposal was debated at length and the meeting finally decided to leave the decision to a vote.

Woman War Nurse Dies.

Santa Barbara, Cal.-Mrs. Mina Finger, said to have been the only woman in the United States entitled to a pension for personal services dur- finish track to the tidewater by the ing the Mexican war, died here Saturday. She was 78 years old. Mrs. Finger ministered to the sick and injured of the Noti tunnel makes necessary to during the Mexican war, in which her husband fought as a United States soldier. The government awarded a medal to Mrs. Finger in 1876.

Auto Judgment Is $15,000.

Monmouth-The last of the Polk county potato crop has been dug. Shipments to Portland markets from Oakland, Cal.—The heaviest damage this city have been heavy, commencever awarded as the result of an autoing about 12 days ago. In nearly all mobile accident in California was cases the prices obtained are satisfacgiven to Mrs. Francesca Birglia by a tory to the growers, and although the jury in Judge Harris' department of acreage and the yield were smaller the Alameda County Superior court. this season than last, the profits are The verdict was $15,000 in a suit for greater. $25,000 directed against Charles H. The quantity and prices indicate Spear, whose automobile ran down and that potatoes will not be stored away to such an extent for feeding to cattle killed Mrs. Birglia's husband.

Daniels Reports Saving. Washington, D. C .- An additional saving on the purchase of material for the new battleship Pennsylvania was announced by Secretary Daniels in connection with the award of a contract for the purchase of four stern tub shafts, which has been placed with an independent Baltimore company, of the Troutdale city government with The bid was little over half of that of only five votes to spare. Her oppon-

Income Tax to Be Collected.

Adoo says the income tax will be col-

Uphold Rebel Cause Oregon's Com Show Opens Visitors' Eyes

like wildfire throughout the section. Coincident with the news of the Young China association's action has come the disclosure of a section has Demand Square Deal

La Grande - Farmers from many three state. parts of Oregon, Southern Idaho and of the National Educational and Cooperative Union of America convened their fourth annual convention here. Former Mayor Hall welcomed the visitors and speeches in response were The session was featured by a national officer.

In the evening the La Grande Comwill be recognized by the greatest polby a national officer.

In the evening the La Grande Commerial club was host at a reception, after which there was an address on "Marketing" by Professor McPherson, of Oregon Agricultural college.

Three hundred members were in attachment of the conduction of the conduc celebrating the day.

Rogue River Fish Pack

Wedderburn-The fishing season on ber 20, but few fish were caught dur-ing the month. The fall run of fish that of former years when the late R.

nearly 6000 cases of canned salmon and 187 tierces of mild cured fish during the past season. The law opening

Rogue river to commercial fishing went into effect June 4, this being the first commercial fishing done in 1910. Under the new law, the season gene to the Siuslaw, giving rise to the ish some of the concrete abutments first of the year, as had been hoped

Polk Potatoes All Dug.

and hogs as was the case last winter.

Troutdale Gets Woman Mayor.

of the Troutdale city government with

Without all before the rivers rise.

send out a steamshovel.

commences next year on April 15.

D. Hume operated the cannery here.

Eastern Washington who are members body to the meeting place headed by tendance, with state officials from square deal, and he will get it.

Big Showing at Chicago

Chicago-Oregon made good Saturwas soon dispelled by the Amalgamat- Minneapolis. The lumbermen have Representatives of nine commercial Western Pine Manufacturers' associaclubs, development leagues and com- tion.

its order closing the Plummer gate- her All day long the aisle near the exhibit of the Oregon State Immigra- have counsel to bring argument tion commission was crowded with against the closing.

14 illustrated lectures in the Great such steps being taken. Resolutions Walla Walla, Wash.—That the State Northern railway lecture hall and the were adopted and forwarded to the commission setting out that great Two men who attracted considerawheat of high yield and milling qual- Hanley gave two lectures, interesting serious with Eastern Oregon millmen, ity, and it is hoped the hybrid will the visitors with personal stories of as the difference in rates with the how homesteaders are "making good" gate closed is material.

In the evening the Oregonians sere-

Sprigs of mistletoe and fir were dis-tributed to the women and envelopes of 20,000 acres west of the Deschutes will know its duty and do it accord-the open and pointed toward twenty-"Take him away—back to Berlin Indianapolis- Two thousand union containing small grains to the men. river and adjacent to the present state ingly.

Is Not Up to Average. $50,000 for survey work, the national ing the month. The fall run of fish did not come up to expectations nor to Now it appears that the department of the interior has notified The Dalles Power Project that it has set aside The Macleay Estate company put up $15,000 for co-operative surveys and investigation of the Celilo water projects on the Columbia.

> have another branch from the North-west. The whole of the included triangle is purchased.

Cords Short Is Report. Salem-Deputy Sealer of Weights for. A landslide at the western portal and Measures Buchtel has been notified that in various parts of the state cords of wood containing less than 128 cubic feet, the number required by law, are being sold, and has instructed the county sealers to make investigations. The complaints say that the shortage consists in the wood being sawed about four inches shorter than that peaceful relations will be broken the usual stick. While the department can not compel the sawing of wood into certain lengths it can compel that a cord contain 128 cubic feet.

Cream Rates Protested. Cream company has filed a complaint with the State Railroad commission were were with the State Railroad commission were were were the center, and the chancellor at last. The tax was ten cents a month on understood the significance of the signifi against the American Express company, alleging that its rates for send-Troutdale—Oregon and the West Oregon are excessive. Eight other on another woman mayor when Mrs. Portland creameries also have signed tell me the results. I will then are a detour and took a position on the Troutdale-Oregon and the West Clara Latourelle Larsson, daughter of a petition which has been filed with the late Joseph Latourelle, one of the the commission protesting against the pioneers of Oregon, was elected head rates.

Pendleton Gets Thanks.

Pendleton Expressing her thanks

Thanks.

Pendleton Expressing her thanks

Pendleton Expressing her thanks

Th Washington, D. C.—Secretary Mc- for the Pendleton Indian bathrobe sent animals caught during recesses from doo says the income tax will be col- her as a wedding present, a letter was tonsorial duties and Ralph Lucas, a

Island Kingdom was the only one that

SYNOPSIS.

Square Deal

three state.

Members of the union marched in abody to the meeting place headed by the La Grande band.

Arthur Swift, state president of the national organization, presided. Mr. Burkholder, of Coquille, in his address said: "The farmers' union will be felt as a great power in the commercial world as well as in the political world and will be recognized by the greatest politicians of the country."

President Crowe, of the Washington organization, spoke, and was followed by L. M. Rhodes, of Tennessee, who has alter the farmer wants is a square deal, and he will get it.

Seek Open Gateway for Oregon's Timber

La Grande—Eastern Oregon lumbermen at a meeting here took steps to prevent permanent closing of the Plummer gateway in Idaho, whereby Eastern Oregon would lose Milwaukee road connections to points east of Minneapolis. The lumbermen have organized a sub-organization of the Western Pine Manufacturers' association.

The Interstate Commerce commission recently suspended until February its order closing the Plummer gateway, and the Eastern Oregon men will have counsel to bring argument against the closing.

CHAPTER XXI.—Continued.

This Sunday was the first real day in the standard of the principal of the plummer gateway, and the Eastern Oregon men will have counsel to bring argument against the closing.

CHAPTER XXI.-Continued.

visitors. The Oregon boosters gave The meeting held here resulted in of rest that Napoleon had enjoyed for a long time. He found perfect peace in the company of his mother and wife. Nobody knew he had returned. The surprise that swept over the members of the staff when he appeared in congress Monday morning was great.

> As Napoleon arose the great hall became instantly silent. He bowed "Honorable President and Representatives, before all else I want to thing, my dear princess." thank you for your kind reception." A loud "hurrah!" stopped him for a fied, as I have already given orders After Government Aid have been so many changes since I on the "my." went away that I can hardly express tionl of the United States.

Civil and military authorities in Germany have a serious clash over a triffling matter in the town of Zabern.

An appropriation is being urged before congress to reimburse rural mail

"Compatriots, I greet you all!" At the time the so-called "Columbia A sigh of satisfaction swept over shine. The uniformed aeromen stood Southern bill" was introduced in the the hall when Napoleon, after this at attention by their machines and salast legislature, the secretary of the short speech, sat down. An air of uninterior said, in effect, that the gov- certainty prevailed; they had expect- they passed in old military style be ernment policy would be to match ed so much from him and had re tween the two rows of aerodro state appropriations for such projects, ceived nothing definite. The speaker dollar for dollar. In the Deschutes investigation, where the state put up

CHAPTER XXII.

Princess Rositta Shows Her Colors. The answers of the international peace committee and congress of the United Republics of America were one bird. identical in wording, and were duly cabled to all the rebelling monarchs. Neither the peace committee nor congress gave a thought to consenting to the wishes of the decree of the Eu Rogue river since it was closed in ern Pacific company has just paid ropean rulers, and it is quite likely that the prompt refusal to accede $5000 to Mrs. Annie McClaren for their demands was not unexpected, for 2,31 acres of land at the Western lim-New Line May Be Delayed.

its of Eugene, in order that a "Y" hands contentedly when he read the may be laid to connect the main line of the Southern Pacific with the tracks call the Princess Schomburg Lithow were in Suemeg.

Werdenstein's message found Ro apparatus to the 'graph and bowed to the smiling count.

"Ah, good morning, count!" "Good morning, princess." "The Americans refuse our de mands," said the count bluntly. "Ah, indeed!"

"Can you come to me?" She thought for a moment. "Is your answer ready?"

"An ultimatum? Is that what you mean?" "An ultimatum that says distinctly after a lapse of twenty-four hours and that Europe will act as she sees fit,' even teeth. "I am going to see his majesty now and will communicate with the pow- they had separated from each other Salem—The Portland Pure Milk and ers. Replies should reach me by toswer.

one of the powers should refuse it ed on the eleven machines comprising Saloon" was particularly incensed pany, alleging that its rates for send one of the powers should refuse it ed on the eleven machines comprising saloon was particularly increased in great over the O.-W. R. & N. be-should be considered as an enemy, in the princess' fleet and blue on the ten when he had to pay the first $1.70. tween Portland and other places in league with the Americas. Tomorrow opposite. range to meet you."

The count consented, then discon- battle began. nected his instrument. He went to The princess could not resist the im-Oakland Skunks Plentiful.

Oakland Skunks are so plentiful in talls of the count's plans and shook they dodged and turned, each trying this vicinity that catching them has his head doubtfully. In the end he to gain in elevation. Finally, with a much worse.

Answers consenting to the terms of the enemy was a captive.

sent a flat refusal. indifferently. "Then we will do with-out England, that is all."

vised her to have her men in readiness. "Is the ultimatum on its way?" was her eager question. "It is ready to be sent, already in de Korona continued: cipher." "Then send it and in an hour an aerodromone will call for you. I want come to Suemeg to see my fleet," Rositta shut off the current before the count could answer. His but since it was imperative that he see her he had to submit to her plan. When the aeroman called for him the ultimatum was on its way and he was ready to go to Suemeg. Just before he left, however, he sat down to his desk and wrote a letter, then hurriedly folded it and, sealing it in an envelope, rang the bell for his aide de camp. The Captain von Hochamberg entered and saluted gravely. "I have a very important mission for you, captain. Take the first train a few curt orders and the aero you. You must be at the German con- stood a magnificent throne. sulate in Liverpool by 8:00 a. m. tomorrow. If you receive no further or. ment, while two men went to invite ders then you are to follow the instructions that you will find in this They found him soberly pacing the the captain and dismissed him.

"That makes me feel easier.' He beautiful than ever.

greeting Rositta. The man who had made her what she was had lost his lency come to Suemeg, for I have a ing more for her, so he could be dis- the whole world." carded or destroyed.

exhibit the fleet I possess, and to show ther words he said in his strong, penyou what we have accomplished and etrating voice: what we can do." The latter words carried a peculiar accent to the chan- me. Tell me your petition standing.

cellor's ears.

The chancellor only bowed; then and embarrassing and every one stood

The princess led him at once into said in a shrill voice: one aerodromones that were stationed on the plateau, glittering in the sun-

The princess led the way to the machine that was decorated with the princely crown, and pulling a silver whistle from her pocket she blew it. The well-trained men jumped into their nachines and sat at attention, She blew shrill blasts on her whistle and the fleet shot up into the air as The Count Santos Duprel was at the wheel and Rositta commanded the replied Rositta with a firm click of her fleet. The second line of machines and the first line followed her. After recently decided to tax all publicly a mile or so both lines turned toward Only names of firms were exempt. understood the significance of the ma- each letter. neuver when red pennants were hoist-

Tell You, Woman, to Stand Before

> The aerodromone "Princess" made club so loud that it attracted atten right wing of the line; then the sham his majesty and had a gloomy recep- pulse to show her prowess. Santos from the back and the next moment chorized the count to send it out.

"I congratulate you, princess," said the count to the intoxicated Rositta.

The "Princess" carried the captive machine back to Suemeg with case. The other machines returned, one fter the other, all enthusiastic and liscussing the tactics of air warfare. After the inspection dinner was served, in which the whole squadron took part. Werdenstein greeted several of them as old acquaintances and friends of those good days when the armies held their own and when he was planning to conquer the American continent. The times had changed. Now the air men ruled-at the command of a beautiful, bold woman whose only motive seemed to be

These gloomy forebodings were warranted sooner than he expected. Only appetizers and soup had been served when Count de Korona stood up and addressed the gathering:

"The pleasure of greeting the worldfamous chancellor, the tron-handed man of the German Empire, has been The count shrugged his shoulders given me. It is a great honor for us to have you at our feast, and we, the conquerors of the air, greet you, who are considered the representative of Calling Rosttta on the 'graph, be ad-Rositta smiled sweetly at the chancellor, who was watching the speaker in amazement. After a short pause.

"We greet you as such, as a representative, and l. in my comrades' names, ask your excellency to be with us in heart and drink to the elected queen of the air, who is distined to be queen of the world. Long live our eloved Queen Rositta. The huzzas that thundered through the hall told the chancellor plainly that this was no pleasantry. His suspicions had not been without foundation. He naled and when the tumult died away he stood up, calm and determined and without a word left the hall.

This action made Rositta furious. but she did not show her indignation. "The chancellor seems to have lost his appetite," was all she said.

After the dinner was over, she gave to Hamburg and thence to England. proceeded into another hall beautifully This letter contains a sealed order for and regally decorated. At the far end Rositta retired to her own apart-sealed letter as quickly as possible. distance between the entrance gate Otherwise return it intact. Here is an and the first hangar. order for money and a pass. Secrecy He followed them. Rositta sat on is important!" He shook hands with the throne with a glittering cirynith crown on her head. She was more

the chancellor to the thronerod sighed and started for the elevator The Count von Werdenstein was led that took him to the waiting aerodro- before her. He showed no surprise. His face was calm and his whole atti-An hour later he was in Suemeg, tude expressed disinterest. "I have requested that your excel-value in her eyes. He could do noth- message that I want brought before The count looked at her steadily, "I have called your honor here, to and without waiting to hear her fur-

"I tell you, woman, to stand before Then I may listen to it. Do not for "I am quite curious to see every- get that I represent the Emperor of

Had these words not been spoken in oment. Then he continued: "There to my men." She placed an emphasis such deadly earnestness some of the audience would have found the scene ridiculous. As it was, it was grave

ARE NOT SLAVES OF FASHION

In China a Man Can Dress as He Pleases Without Attracting Attention. The fashions in Suchien, Kiangsu province, have a variety of such extent that every man can dress according to his individual choice and still be in correct taste and without attracting special attention from anybody else. In other words, the styles this year are of personal ideals, according to a correspondent of the British China

Daily Herald. He says that every man wears what is right in his own eyes, and there are few if any, to ridicule. A panama hat goes fauntily down the street closely followed by a fur-covered brim hat; felt hats of scarlet and verdigris green come along with grays and browns that do the hatter credit for unique invention. These, with the Eskimo top capes, a few derby hats and the smart military uniforms, give the streets a piquancy which was unknown in the monotonous china blue of former

Among the notices posted on the city gate is a fashion plate that has been exhibited for weeks. It displays two or three of the typical "western suits"-the swallow-tailed and the lowfront frock for evening wear-street garb of European and American style, and many other varieties. There one also finds the plaited skirts recommended for the women, and close by them is the proud silk or stovepipe hat of felt, which has its special corner with other headgear.

Shorter Name Lowered Taxes. The city government at Tampico. was signaled to reverse their flight the second largest seaport in Mexico, displayed signs in a foreign language.

The proprietor of "The American He aired his grievance at the Colonial

"Make it 'el Cantina Americano.' and save the $1.70,' someone suggested. "Won't do it," replied the saloonkeeper. "Must have a sign in English to make it homelike."

"Then make it 'U. S. Bar.' " He did; and saved $1.20 a month All the Same. "Why do they have to have mo to put on a dumb show?" "Why not?"

Pendleton-With 150 entries and corn cannot be satisfactorily grown. Yuan Shi Kai it will receive financial more than 5000 ears of corn on exhib. Some of the largest ears of corn ever aid and moral support from the San it, the Corn show opened in this city.

Francisco Chinese, who filled the war There were exhibits from every Francisco Chinese, who filled the war chests that overthrew the dynasty.

Two thousand members of the corn snow opened in this city. There were exhibits from every county in Oregon penetrated by the O.-W. R. & N. company, under whose auspices the show was held.

Two thousand members of the corn snow opened in this city. There from Baker county. With most of the entries were reports of yields per acre and cost per bushel. On irrigated land the production runs as high as 85 bushels per county.

committee deliberations and speeches a great power in the commercial world day at the United States Land Show men at a meeting here took steps to in the Coliseum in the prediction that it would show the Middle West the true meaning of the term "boosting." Plummer gateway in Idaho, whereby It was Oregon day at the exposition Eastern Oregon would lose Milwaukee and if anyone doubted it that doubt road connections to points east of ed Association of Oregon Boosters, not organized a sub-organization of the missions and special commissioners ap- The Interstate Commerce commispointed by Governor West united in sion recently suspended until February Railroad Buys at Eugene. Eugene-By agreement, the Southits of Eugene, in order that a "Y" coast are causing concern to engineers of the Willamette-Pactic. The con- on the 'graph. Her headquarters nection now made gives direct access in charge of the construction of the to the coast line from the East on the Willamette-Pacific railroad from Eu-Southern Pacific, and it is desired to sitta in the air. She connected the fear that it will be impossible to fin-the abutments it will be impossible to lected while suits are pending attacking its validity, and should the Supreme court decide against the law, the money will be returned.

Answers consenting to the terms of the ultimatum came promptly, and authorized the count to send it out.

The study of algebra and composition to catch enough of the animals to in behalf of the citizens of Pendleton.