CHRISTMAS AT THE METHODIST CHURCH

On account of the Public Christmas tree and exercises, which were held Wednesday night, the M. E. people gave their program Tuesday night. The church was very prettily decorated in keeping with the Yule time festivities and the program, which consisted of music, readings and exercises by the little children, was very good considering the short time those who took part had in making preparations for the entertainment. The church was filled with a very appreciative audience.

Cutting and Shooting Affair

There was a great "cutting and shooting" affair at Estacada Saturday morning at 8:55 o'clock, when two of Estacada's legal lights were seen cutting across the corner and shooting for the depot to take the 9 o'clock car for Portland.

New Year's Dance

Keep in mind the great big New Years dance on New Years Eve, given by the Estacada Fire Company. A good time is promised to all who attend.

A Feel in the Christmas Air.

BY JAMES WHITCOMB BILBY.

They're a kind o' feel in the air to me
When the Christmas times sets in
That's about as much of a mystery
As ever I've run ag'in.
For instance, now, while I gain in weight
And ginerah health, I swear
They's a goneess somers I cant quitestate
A kind o' feel fu the air.

They's a feel in the Chris'mas air goes right
To the spot where a man lives at!
It gives a teller a appetite—
They ain't no doubt about that!
And yet they's somepin—I don't know what

That follers me here and there
And ha'nts and worries and spares me not
A kind o' feel in the air.

They's a feel, as I say in the air that's jest
As blamed on sad and sweet.
In the same r-a-sho as I feel the best
And am the spryest on my feet
They's allus a kind o' sort of a ache
That I can't locate nowhere,
But it comes with Xmas and no mistake—
A kind o' feel in the air.

Is it the racket the children raise?
Why, no!—God bless 'em no!
Is it the eyes and the cheeks ablaze,
Like my own was long ago?
Is it the bleat o' the whistle and beat
O' the little toy drum and blare
O' the horn? No, no! It is just as sweet—
The sad sweet feel in the air.

Is it the racket the children raise?

ESTACADA FURNITURE CO.

W. D. and L. M. Henthorn, Proprietors
Odd Fellows Building

WE take pleasure in expressing to the people within our vicinity the real appreciation we feel for the liberal patronage and consideration received during the year 1913.

We are quite certain the year 1914 will bring added happiness and prosperity, and in extending our sincere wishes to all for a Merry Christmas and A Happy New Year, we wish to add that the new year will have our renewed endeavor to serve all better than the year about to close.

Christmas Poultry

of choicest grade is here in abundance. No matter where you buy the rest of the dinner, get your poultry here. We have scoured the markets to obtain a supply of the youngest and tenderest birds. If you eat any other kind on Christmas, it will not have come from here.

Car Off the Track

The car that brought some of the officials of the P. R. L. & P. Co. from Portland Tuesday afternoon, got off the track in some manner and delayed their return for a couple of hours.

A team hitched to a light covered wagon, decided to take a little extra exercise Tuesday morning and coming down Broadway at a pretty fast gait, ran down in front of the city hall where Mr. Henthorn caught them. The Public Christmas tree had just been raised in the center of the street, and there were many people and teams close by, but fortunately no one was injured.

Expensive.

"No: I've decided never to accept friendly advice any more."
"Why not? It doesn't cost you anything."
"Well, I've found out that it almost invariably costs you your friends."—Exchange.

No Rehearsals.

Wife (quoting)—You have ceased to love me. Hub (snoring cigar and newspaper)—No, my dear; I've only ceased making love to you.—Boston Transcript.

Brave actions never want a trumpet.—Italian Proverb.

Ever Present Help.

"They say that a woman's tears come to her aid at any moment."
"Yes. Her tears are volunteers, up to speak."—Boston Transcript.
