Makes Healthy Bowels

THIS simple rule of health is daily called attention to by every doctor in the land, whose first question to the patient almost invariably is, "Are your bowels regular?" Yet there's not one person in fifty who takes proper care of the bowels. And the result of this foolish neglect is nine-tenths of all ill-health. If today you are unable to free your body of waste matter at the usual time, or if the act causes straining, pains and discomfort, don't let that condition occur again tomorrow. Unless your bowels can carry away the waste materials left after food is digested, decay sets in, the poisons of which, taken up by the blood, increase the risk of Typhoid Fever, Appendicitis, and many other serious diseases. In treating constipation, there is a right way and a wrong way. The wrong way is to take harsh purgatives which even though they do clear the bowels, cause griping and nausea, injure the delicate tissues, and as disturb the normal functions as to cause the return of constipation. The right way is to help Nature to produce natural movement, without pain or discomfort, by using

Rexall Orderlies

More Than One Hundred Million Were Sold Last Year

This enormous quantity was used with good results by busy men who suffered from constipation, due to lack of exercise, or indigestion caused by overwork—by children whose parents realize the harmful effect of common purgatives—by old people whose systems cannot stand anything harsh—by women during pregnancy, and after childbirth, when any medicine with a violent action would be particularly dangerous. Many of these people are your neighbors and friends. Ask anyone who has ever used them—they'll tell you Rexall Orderlies satisfied and helped them.

—a gentle laxative in the form of a chocolate-tasting tablet. One of these tablets eaten just before going to bed will help to restore your bowels to normal activity at a time when, your body being at rest, the medicine can do its best work. As a result of taking that tablet (or say two, if your case is obstinate), your bowels will move easily and naturally in the morning. The use of Rexall Orderlies for a few days afterward will restore normal regularity. Even chronic constipation is benefited by them, and it is not necessary to continue the treatment for a long time, because, instead of driving Nature, they simply help her to help herself.

Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores and in this town only by us. In vest-pocket tin boxes, 10c, 25c, 50c

This Is Our Guarantee—You Risk No Money

If Rexall Orderlies do not make your bowels act right, tell us so and we'll give back your money without asking a single question. There is no red tape to this guarantee. It means just what it says. You sign nothing. We won't hesitate, or ask you any questions. Your word is enough. If Rexall Orderlies do not do all you expect them to—if you don't feel better after using them and find that they are the pleasantest-acting and best laxative you have ever used, we want you to tell us and get your money back.

THROUGH THE SNOW.

WE fared together through the snow,
How should we heed the driving blast?
I felt her heart beat warm below
The arm that held me fast.
And in her cheeks the laughing blood
Bloomed like a rose beneath her hood.

HOW should I miss the summer flowers

With such a flower so sweet and close?
White winter seems a friend of ours,
And all his drifted snows
That hint of winter snows that hide
Here in the breast against my side.

COME singing April soon or late

For all the frozen world, for me,
Oh, I can well afford to wait
For bloom and bird and bee
If only she and I can go
Walking forever through the snow!
—Richard Le Gallienne.

Summons

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Clackamas, SS. Grace R. Barkley, Plaintiff, vs.
Samuel W. Barkley, Defendant.
To Samuel W. Barkley, defendant above named.

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed in the above entitled action, on or before the eighth (8) day of May A. D. 1914, said date being more than six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail so to appear, plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in her complaint, to-wit:

For decree awarding plaintiff an absolute divorce from said defendant on the grounds of desertion, for a decree awarding plaintiff the custody of the minor children, and for such other and further relief as the court shall adjudge equitable.

Service of this summons is served upon you by publication in pursuance of an order of the Honorable H. S. Anderson, Judge of the County Court, for the County of Clackamas, State of Oregon, made on the 21st day of March A. D. 1914, directing that said publication be made in the Estacada Progress.

The date of the first publication of this summons is March 26, 1914, and the date of the last publication is May 7, 1914.

CLAUDE W. DEVORE,
Attorney for Plaintiff.

GARFIELD

The March meetings of the Garfield Dorcas Society was held at the home of Mrs. Edward Shearer. The forenoon was spent in sewing carpet rags. The hostess accommodated her guests about three table in her large kitchen-dining room. The different members contributed to the refreshments, which were substantial, varied and delicious. It was plain that the thoughts of the little company were centered about the membership contest which had been carried on for a month under the two captains, Mesdames Trowbridge and Dunlop. As the former was unavoidably absent, Mrs. Whitcomb was chosen to act in her place. Early in the afternoon the regular business session was held. Immediately following, by previous arrangement, the two captains read alternately the names of the newly acquired members. Twenty-two names were read by each, when Mrs. Dunlop ceased and Mrs. Whitcomb continued to read up to thirty-four, making fifty-six acquisitions to a membership of twenty-one, or seventy-seven in all. The winning side was ready with a song of victory, which was rendered with energy. One of Mr. Shearer's fine Brahma cocks, adorned with the slogan, "Watch Dorcas grow, hear us crow," was brought in with instructions to crow lustily. But the presence of so many ladies discouraged him. The losing side bore its defeat calmly and at once prepared to an adjoining room to formulate plans for entertaining the society at the next meeting which is to be held at the home of Mrs. Dunlop, April 16. The opinion prevails that the good natured rivalry of the past month will prove of value to the entire membership—old and new alike.

James Yeakey, Executor of the estate of Emma Yeakey, deceased, James Yeakey, Martin Yeakey, Grace Arville Yeakey, and Jesse Yeakey, Defendants.

To James Yeakey, Executor of the estate of Emma Yeakey, deceased, James Yeakey, Martin Yeakey, Grace Arville Yeakey, and Jesse Yeakey, the above named defendants.
In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed in the above entitled action on or before the eighth (8) day of April A. D. 1914, said date being more than six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail so to appear, plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in his complaint, to-wit:

Will take judgement for the sum of Three hundred and fifty five ($355.73) dollars and seventy three cents with interest at the rate of 8 percent per annum, on Three hundred ($300) dollars from the 10th day of August 1911, for $50.00 Attorneys fees, together with the costs and disbursements, which indebtedness arises out of a certain promissory note made, executed and delivered to plaintiff by Emma Yeakey (now deceased), mother of the above named defendant, and for a decree foreclosing the certain real estate mortgage executed and delivered by said Emma Yeakey to this plaintiff to secure the payment of said note, which real estate is described as follows, to-wit: Lots four and five (4 & 5), Block six (6), Original Townsite of the City of Estacada, Clackamas County, Oregon, and that said real estate be sold under execution, or so much there of as shall be necessary to satisfy the judgement, interest, attorneys fees, costs and disbursements, and accruing costs and disbursements, and as provided by law for the sale of real estate under execution, and for a decree that the interest of each of the defendants and all persons claiming under them, in said mortgaged premises, subsequent to said mortgage be foreclosed of all right or claim of interest, except the equity of redemption, and for such other and further relief as may seem equitable to the Court in the premises.

This summons is served upon you by publication in pursuance of an order of the Honorable H. S. Anderson, Judge of the County Court, for the County of Clackamas, State of Oregon, made on the 21st day of March A. D. 1914, directing that said publication be made in the Estacada Progress.
